Dear Mr. Lengel:

Here is our first carbon of "All in a Day's Work." It needs copy editing such as the Macmillan editor is giving it. If you should have success in placing any of it I should like a chance to make corrections. Probably it could be done with the least trouble on the proofs.

Whether you succeed in persuading anybody that here is magazine material-or not - please believe I appreciate deeply your interest, and that I shall be glad of anything that you can do.

With all good wishes

Very sincerely yours

Mr. William C. Lengel
