Miss Ida Minerva Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

We are enclosing a description of Lincoln's Cartoon published by Currier & Ives in 1860; This description is very inadequate for this interesting cartoon; but, we think will give you a sufficient idea to understand somewhat the nature of it. If you are interested in purchasing this item or know of any one who would like to secure it we would appreciate hearing from you. The price is $75.00.

We are also enclosing a description of a very remarkable and valuable Lincoln Document. This document has been examined by Walter S. Herzog, an expert in such things, who advises that it is the original deed to the home of William Lincoln and Jane Lincoln, his wife, of Great Yarmouth dated 1649 being the missing link in tracing the history of the ancestors of Abraham Lincoln to its source. This item is also for sale. Price $2500.00.

Yours very truly,

WCD-f
