Dear Miss Dodge:

Miss Tarbell has asked her publisher to send you a copy of her book "Nationalizing of Business." You will find in the Critical Bibliography a reference to the New York Museum of Science and Industry. Miss Tarbell regretted that she could not use the material more fully but space restrictions were severe.

Yours very truly

Dear Miss Wolfe —

Miss Tarbell's courtesy and gratitude is greatly appreciated — and I think I should inform you that the museum no longer has an active library — and that I resigned last winter after the move to the above address and change of administration. You may therefore instruct
