ALLEGHENY GRIDDERS TO MEET GENEVA IN BATTLE FOR TRI-STATE TITLE NEXT SATURDAY

As a fitting climax to one of the most successful gridiron seasons in the history of Allegheny, Geneva College will oppose the Blue and Gold on Montgomery Field this Saturday with the Tri-State Championship at stake. The Allegheny Alligator has been priming himself all season for the heralded battle with the Covenanters. If the Covenanters live up to their reputation they should be more formidable than any eleven that has met the Alligators so far this year; which means that Allegheny will have to play a hard faultless game to win.

As far as standing in the Tri-State district is concerned Geneva has the better record. In all encounters with Tri-State teams the Covenanters have been victorious. Allegheny, on the other hand, has a 7-7 tie with Grove City to mar its otherwise perfect record. A few comparative scores throw no light upon the probable outcome of the game, but only tend to bring about confusion: Geneva downed Thiel by a 7 to 0 score while Allegheny crushed the same eleven by a 20 to 0 count. Then the Covenanters defeated Grove City 14 to 7 while the Crimson held Allegheny to a tie. With the results of these two games in mind it would be impossible to pick a favorite. Obviously enough, however, an exceedingly hard-fought game should be the result. Allegheny will be obliged to play a heady defensive game to stop Geneva's brilliant passing attack, and the Covenanters will have no little problem on their hands to stop the powerful offensive drives of the Alligators.

The Allegheny squad is in good physical condition—probably the best that it has been all season. Although Garbark was severely bruised at St. Bonaventure, he will be all ready to go when the opening whistle blows. The 'Gator ends which have been badly crippled since the first several games have fully recovered and are prepared to be flung at the enemy. The unbeaten Alligator is in an excellent state of mind for the fray and will have no excuses to offer in case of defeat. For the second consecutive time Allegheny has the Tri-State championship within its reach. Out to revenge last year's 27 to 13 setback at the hands of Geneva, the Blue and Gold will put forth everything in an endeavor to send the Covenanters home-ward minus championship laurels.

Literary Magazine Given to Students Monday, Nov. 9th

The Fall Edition of the Allegheny Literary Magazine came out after Monday chapel exercise. It contains some exceedingly interesting material and deserves much praise.

The essay "Autumn," a very appropriate and colorful word picture by the editor, acts as a foreword to the book. Then the editor finds "enjoyment" as the keynote in his editorial. "Pokey Goes to Hell" by Edith Fox, "The Legend of Loch Ness" by William Hunter, and "Complete Mastery and Control" by Lois Gardner comprise an intensely interesting and diversified group of fiction short stories. Dr. J. L. Ross, Ellenetta Beachley, Sturges Cary, Dorothy Day, Richard Quinn, and Clifford Lewis contribute some very readable and enjoyable essays on a wide scope of subjects.

Then two anonymous selections about attending Allegheny appear. Louis Haberman cleverly answers many serious questions in his little creation "In Answer."

Last but not least comes poetry without which the magazine could be termed excellent. "Valueless" and "Land-Locked" are the work of Rowena Baker while Dorothy Day again contributes—this time the poem "Proof." Jane Bortz makes her debut in publications with two short poems: "A Fancy" and "Yes, But—"

Student criticism, as far as the writer of this article has heard, is very favorable. It is agreed that the editor and his staff deserve much credit for the work that they turned out.

BOETTCHER IN PLAY
The students and faculty will be interested to know that Allegheny will have a part in an auspicious occasion to take place Saturday evening in the theatre of the Department of Drama of Yale University. At this time the Department will be presented with a bust of Eugene O'Neill, the work of the late Edmond Quinn. Preceding the ceremonies the students of the Department will present two of O'Neill's best plays, "Bound East for Cardiff" and "Emperor Jones." In the cast of the latter play will appear Mr. Henry F. Boettcher, until this year a member of the faculty of the College and now studying in the Yale Department of Drama. Mr. Boettcher will play the role of a slave driver.

MEADVILLE CITIZENS DONATE TWELVE BOOKS

Carnegie Corporation Books May Now Be Seen by Students.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shartle of Meadville have presented the Reis Library with twelve finely bound volumes of "The Inland Printer" and "The American Printer." These books were a part of Mr. Shartle's reference library which he used while he was carrying on a business in high grade printing. The books are valuable to all college people who are interested in publications and to anyone who is studying journalism or printing. They contain articles on printers of note, recently developed methods of printing, and a large number of forms useful to anyone planning programs, circulars, or any other printed work.

Mr. Shartle has for a number of years been interested in the establishment of a department of printing at the college. He and Mrs. Shartle are giving these volumes in the hope that they may be the nucleus of a collection of books which will assist those in journalism and the mechanics of publications and college papers.

Miss Rowley has expressed the appreciation that the college feels toward Mr. and Mrs. Shartle for the interest that they have shown in this and previous gifts. The books are on exhibition at the library.

Large numbers of students are taking advantage of the chance to examine the collection of books from the Carnegie Corporation gift. These books are shelved in the alcoves at the west end of the new reading room. This new reading room has been used during the past week by an increasing number of students who are finding there almost perfect conditions for study. Reference books formerly shelved in the present periodical room have all been moved to shelves on the north side of the new reading room and in the alcoves on the east side.

As soon as the repainted stacks are placed in the old stack rooms the books on reserve for classes will be (Continued on page 4).

Wakefield Oration to be Held at Playshop Thursday, Dec. 3rd

Plans for the Wakefield Oration Contest are rapidly nearing completion, with nine men tentatively entered to date. Arrangements have been made with Miss Spalding to hold the competition in the Little Theatre in Arer Hall on Thursday evening, December 3.

Those who have signified to Mr. Hurst Anderson their intention to enter include: William Boettcher, James Mansell, Sanford Corcoran, Douglas Marks, Bramer Carlson, Harry Thompson, Kenneth Johnson, William Olson, and Harold Loyal.

This group of prospective speakers will submit original orations to those in charge of the contest before Thanksgiving recess. From these the six best will be selected, and delivered by their authors on December 3.

Three prizes are offered, one of $40.00, one of $15.00, and a third of $10.00. The three contestants who win these prizes will then be eligible to represent this school in the inter-collegiate contest to be held here in May. The choice of the representative will depend upon the quality of the orations developed by next spring.

NINE MEN ON FROSH DEBATING ROSTER

The Freshman debate squad has conducted the customary elimination, and the squad from which the team will be picked has been chosen. They will meet Freshman teams from other schools, debating the question, "Resolved: that capitalism as a system of economic organization is unsound in principle." Those who have succeeded in making the squad are: John Corcoran, Donald Bortz, Homer Kuney, Earl Green, Harold Rowe, Norman Olson, James Cowles, Charles Bartberger, and Wesley Miller.

COLLEGE SPIRIT "HOKUM"

Dean Charles Maxwell McConn of Lehigh University told the faculty and student body of Brown University, assembled in an academic convocation, that "this college spirit and loyalty stuff is pure and simple hokum."

The dean scored the theory that extra-curricular activities are more important for the training of character than studies and that athletes are more loyal to their colleges than scholars. Athletes, he said, went out for teams primarily because of a desire for publicity and personal ambition.

FRANCES WALSH SLOWLY IMPROVING IN HOSPITAL

Severely Injured in Accident but Now on Road to Recovery.

Miss Mary Frances Walsh, who was injured in an automobile accident early Saturday morning, October 31, which proved fatal for Miss Julia Roessing, is slowly improving at the Indiana, Pa., Hospital.

Miss Walsh has been suffering from shock since the accident, and though she was very critically injured it is certain that she will recover. The wounds on her head and face alone were so severe that thirty-nine stitches were necessary to close the lacerations. An eye specialist from Philadelphia who has been working on her case has stated that though her eye was severely injured, she will not lose her sight and will regain muscular control of the eye.

Her improvement has been very slight and very gradual, and due to the fact that she received a fractured skull, which will necessarily require a long period for mending. Miss Walsh will not return to Allegheny this semester. In view of the fact that Miss Walsh is still suffering from shock, authorities at the Hospital have felt it unwise to reveal to Miss Walsh the fact of Miss Julia Roessing's death until recuperation has been more complete.

German Club to Hold Monthly Meeting at Sundback Residence

"Der deutsche Verein" will hold its second monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, November 17, at eight o'clock at the home of Miss Ruth Sundback, 502 Chestnut Street.

The program for the evening will be made up of two parts. Ruth Sundback will show several reels of motion pictures taken recently in and about Nuremberg, Bavaria, by the Sundback family. The other part will consist of student songs, puzzles and riddles, recitations and folk dancing, which will be presented by new members who were initiated at the first regular meeting of the current school year. The initiation took place on Tuesday evening, October 20, in Hulings Hall. The new members are as follows: Miss Mildred Ludwig, Harold Atkins, Robert Bair, Ellenetta Beachley, Clarke Beiler, Joseph Borrisson, Manson Brown, Edwin Campbell, Betty Cappe, Harold Crook, Evelyn Dennis, Edwin Frost, Edith Gillen, Lois Mae Gratz, Reginald Hewitt, Earl Houck, Lois Husk, Kenneth Johnson, Edward Kemble, Wilma Kuhnert, Thomas Mansell, George McCartney, James Murphy, Robert Reis, Gary Roush, Mary Shuman, Paul Siple, Winifred Strick, Anna Strott, John Tintzman, Jack Ungerman, Knighton Waite, Franklin Williams, and Michael Yohan.

MR. McDERMOTT SPEAKER BEFORE CLASSICAL CLUB

"Roman Historical Relief" was the subject of an interesting talk delivered to the Classical Club by Mr. McDermott on Tuesday evening, November 3. At this meeting Katherine Millhoff was elected a member at large of the executive committee. The Club meets again on November 17.

HERE THEY ARE!

Allegheny's Football Squad, which will meet Geneva for Tri-State Championship Saturday.

COLLEGE TO CELEBRATE AT THEATRE ON FRIDAY

Gala Demonstration to Precede Geneva Game on Saturday.

One of the greatest student demonstrations ever to be staged at Allegheny will be held next Friday evening in connection with the impending football game with Geneva. The celebration will be termed "Allegheny Night," and with the Park Theatre as the setting, will be devoted exclusively to the student body and the natural enthusiasm which will be a forward to the Tri-State Championship game.

The officials of the Park Theatre announce that they have secured for this occasion the new picture, "Touchdown," a football film which does not have its national release until November 14. Tickets are to be sold at three for a dollar, and all students are requested to be present at the seven o'clock showing. At the conclusion of the picture, the show house will be turned over to the students for the gala celebration.

The band, under the capable leadership of Howard Forbes, who has been training his players diligently for the past several months, will appear, resplendent in new uniforms on the stage. Following the rendition of the Alma Mater, Wilson Kelley, head cheerleader, will assume charge, and will lead yells for a while. The program will be carried on with short talks, novelty musical numbers, group singing, and other demonstrations of enthusiasm. The members of the Allegheny football team will be the guests of the Park Theatre for the occasion.

The celebration is being sponsored for the most part by Arthur Daniels, physical instructor, with the aid of the Student Senate, Wilson Kelley, and other interested students. The movement has the hearty approval of President Tolley and Dean Schultz. The Student Senate is now in possession of theatre tickets which may be secured for thirty-five cents.

This is probably the first organized down town pep meeting that has been held for years. The leaders have been working strenuously for some time in an endeavor to show the intense feeling of the student body in a manner which will meet the approval of all parties concerned and yet which will not curb the spirit of the undergraduates. They have evolved this plan after due consultation with Meadville citizens, college officials, and Allegheny students. They have finally secured this one night when Meadville will be turned over to Allegheny College for the purpose of annexing the Tri-State championship in its last year of district competition.

Appearing on the same platform with Clarence Darrow, eminent criminal lawyer, Reverend Bruce S. Wright, Allegheny '05, delivered a lecture on "Why I am a Protestant" in a forum on religion held last Monday night in Erie.

Other speakers included Dr. John A. Lapp, who explained "Why I am a Catholic" and Rabbi Max C. Curriek, speaking on "Why I am a Jew." Darrow's subject was "Why I am an Agnostic." Each speaker was allotted thirty minutes for a statement of what he believes and why.

MARY L. CLARK IS GUEST OF COLLEGE

Speaks in Chapel on Friday on Student Volunteer Movement.

The students at the chapel service, Friday, enjoyed a talk given by Miss Mary L. Clark, a graduate of Smith College, who represents the Student Volunteer Movement.

Miss Clark began by revealing the extent of the economic interdependence that exists between the countries of the world today. She contrasted the good gifts of this interdependence which consists such products as Persian rugs, the telephone, China dishes, foreign literature, and others, with the ugly gifts. These include such things as the book "Mother India," written in criticism of the customs of India, and a similar book written by an Indian on American customs.

Miss Clark went on to show the connection between this interdependence and the true work of the foreign missionary. She described the work of the missionary by the relation of actual incidents. One of these was told concerning the people of Korea. The living conditions of these people were raised from a standard of two cents per day, which often did not provide the bare necessities, to ten cents per day, which permitted the advantages (Continued on page 4).

Epworth League to Start Campaign Sunday, Nov. 15th

Featuring a "Check and Double-Check" program, with the Cabinet entirely in charge of the services, the College Epworth League will start an active two weeks' program next Sunday, November 15. These plans were announced last Sunday evening, when the League held a tea in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy. Mrs. Elisabeth Spann poured.

Next Sunday being Joash Day, the League has reserved a special and separate section in Stone Church for all members and all College Students who attend the morning services.

Thursday, November 19, is the date set for the annual Leaguers' Banquet, which will be held at 6 o'clock in Thoburn Chapel and will be followed by the election of officers for the coming year.

The Life Work Union, it was announced, will start its year's activities on November 22, when it will hold its first meeting. That same evening, the League will install its newly elected officers at the regular evening meeting in the Church Parlors.

TOWN STUDENTS TO STAGE ALL-COLLEGE

Under the supervision of Miss Cora LeRoy, a committee of town men and women has been making arrangements for the first novelty all-college dance to be held this year.

The dance is to be held in the gymnasium on Saturday evening, November 21, and will be entirely novel in nature. The committee has not yet revealed the nature of the dance, but has stated that no one will be admitted who is not in old clothes or some other very evident semblance of poverty or hard times. The decorations and entire program of the evening are to be carried out in a novel manner, entirely different from anything done here at Allegheny in recent years.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR PLAY

"Arms and the Man" to be Presented Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday.

What gives promise of being the most brilliant theatrical performance in the history of Allegheny College will open a three night engagement Saturday evening when the Allegheny Players Guild is presenting George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man," an excellent play by the most famous of modern dramatists and executed by a well trained and professional cast. This is a dramatic treat that no Alleghenian can afford to miss. Seldom is the opportunity offered to witness such a fine collegiate performance, and it should not be allowed to slip by. The ability and reputation of Miss Alice Huntington Spalding as a director is well known, and "Arms and the Man" has given her the opportunity to be at her best.

The cast of the play is as follows: Raina Petkoff — Miss Jane Blair Katherine Petkoff, her mother — Miss Jean Holman Louka, housemaid in the Petkoff home — Miss Virginia Slacum Nicola, the butler — Mr. Louis Haberman Captain Bluntschli — Mr. Earl J. Kohn General Petkoff — Mr. L. Bramer Carlson Sergius, Raina's fiance — Mr. Charles Fallon A Russian Officer — Mr. Jack Shaw

Mr. Harry Hill is production manager of the play; Miss Rosanna Riordan and Ruth Staples are assistants to the director; Mr. Donald Clark designed the sets; Mr. John Myers is executing the lighting; Mr. Fred Harper is the business manager. New lighting equipment arrived yesterday and was installed immediately so as to be used in the dress rehearsal tonight. It is to be understood that positively no one will be admitted to the building while dress rehearsal is being conducted.

The scenery for the play is by far the finest of any production yet seen in the Playshop Theatre. Everything, including all properties, was made in the workshop of the Theatre by the members of the Speech 6 class and other students interested in dramatics. Seats may be reserved through any of the fraternity representatives or by calling phone 1120-W any afternoon. Seats are reserved at the price of cents, an extremely low amount considering the quality of the production. The business management hopes that all who intend to see the play will reserve seats as soon as possible to insure complete satisfaction and to facilitate the work of the management. The Playshop Theatre is so constructed that a complete view of the stage can be had from any seat in the Theatre, and the actors can be heard with equal distinctness from all points. It is expected that with the excellence of the production and the low price of seats the Theatre will be filled to capacity on each of the three nights.

The American Association of University Women, Meadville Branch, will present Lila Newdick, reader of plays, on the coming Friday evening at eight o'clock in Ford Memorial Chapel. The proceeds are to be used for the benefit of the student loan fund sponsored by this organization. Miss Newdick will give Alexandre Dumas' four-act comedy of French court life, "A Marriage of Convenience." Without setting, makeup, or change of costume, the artist is able by change of voice and posture to bring to life the characters of the play. Among the prominent women of Meadville who are patronesses for this entertainment are the following Allegheny College women: Mrs. William P. Tolley, Dean Adeline Bowie, Mrs. C. F. Ross, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Akers, Mrs. Luvaas, Mrs. Beiler, Miss Spalding, Dr. Schafheitlin, and Mrs. Swartley.

ALLEGHENY, LET'S GO !!

For the past several weeks the conversation on the campus has been directed for the most part into athletic channels with the impending encounter with Geneva the cause for much comment. Allegheny, for the second consecutive year, is within one game of winning the Tri-State championship with one of the best teams in over seven years. She meets the same obstacle she encountered last year, but under much more favorable conditions. The game is at home; the team is in excellent spirits; and the student body is back of the team to a man.

The athletic officials have arranged a mammoth celebration for the players on Friday night, and every student should disregard all previous engagements in order to be present. The students should continue to talk football until after Allegheny has successfully subdued the opposing team. They should make known to each player their intense interest in the outcome of the game and prove to the team that they are backed by six hundred enthusiastic Alleghenians.

Let us consider what this game means to Allegheny. It means that our college withdraws from district competition with the glorious record of having annexed the championship in its last year of competition. It means to the numerous seniors on the team that they have been successful in building up an extremely poor team into first a championship threat and then a real champion. It means no small amount of favorable publicity to the college, and it will afford to the students that feeling of satisfaction which comes from attending a school, superior in every department to the surrounding colleges. It means worlds; so we must win.

What we can write to stimulate spirit would be of little avail. The students have the right attitude, the players are in an excellent frame of mind; so the only thing that can be done is to keep talking and keep fighting until after the game is over. This is Allegheny's big year; so ALLEGHENY, LET'S GO.

A FEW CHANGES.

With this issue of The Campus we wish to announce several changes in the policy of the paper. A conscientious effort is being exerted to improve the content and makeup, and we believe that the few adjustments will be of some aid in achieving this purpose.

Every week in the fourth column of page 2 there will be a department devoted exclusively to official announcements. Students should turn to that place every week in order to discover exactly what information concerning them is to be found. All contributions must be in the hands of the editor not later than Sunday night if publication is to be gained.

The second change will be found in the Society Department. Stories will be given definite heads, and the fraternity headings will be abandoned for various reasons. A recording of guests will be similar to the Personal column in daily papers.

These are, so far, the only changes, and we wish further to stress the importance of consulting the announcement department every week.

CAMPUS CLIPPINGS

Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland is to be one of the principal speakers at the Third International Bituminous Coal Conference, which is to be held at Carnegie Tech November 16 and 17.

Over two hundred fathers attended the fifth annual Dad's Day recently held by Lafayette College.

John Erie, a Muhlenberg sophomore, weighing 300 pounds, appealed for police protection from the Freshmen of that school after he remained tied in a pig pen while he first year men held their banquet.

A prominent social fraternity at the University of New Mexico requires its pledges to ride donkeys about the campus the week preceding their initiation.

In a letter to the University of Virginia daily publication one student suggests that "the army of young ladies now employed in the library be provided with a suitable nursery so that they will not play hide and seek through the files and reading rooms."

Four Haverford students expected to attend the recent Haverford-Susquehanna game but they never got there because the owner of the Model T Ford in which they were riding received a good offer for the car "en route" and sold out.

At the University of Berlin students pick their own professors. There are six weeks before the semester officially opens in which the students may study and analyze the various professors.

A Temple University student succeeded in obtaining a personal interview with Eddie Cantor. Among other things the comedian told the reporter that he liked college students and that even in these times of depression it was harder to make people laugh.

THE SCRUBBING BRUSH

The Lit Magazine was especially good this week—besides Montgomery Ward has not sent its sketch book in some time.

The half and half coffee craze has taken Cochran. Half in the cup and half in the saucer.

The editor told us to keep puns out of this column. They are Elizabethan and have gone the way of hoop skirts and serious prohibition enforcement. Yet to have a punctual, pungent article with plenty of punch we must have a few "puns" (Play on words) 'Arms and the Man' (Play on stage—Little Theatre)—clever adv.

The only important characters missing from Haiberman's "Answer" were Harpo, and the Mysterious Mr. Linqu.

Saw a load of apples going into the Sig house this week. Did you use 'em at the Faculty Reception last night, boys?

Then there was a carpenter who thought he was broke, but looked in his tool-box and found two bits.

First Freshman: "Want a date?" Second Same: "Dromedary or dormitory?"

Hunting season is on. We suggest a plentiful bounty for bringing down a Bing Crosby imitator.

If you are not satisfied with our column and want to contribute something yourself, just call 852.

As Lee said to Einstein, it is time (relatively, of course) to quit. So now our toast to Hulings:

Here's to three o'clock permits for all Sororities houses instead of the damn hall
Ravine dates twenty-four hours a day
And smoke and smoke 'til you hit the hay*.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The following groups must have their pictures taken this week: Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Alpha Theta, Non-Fraternity Seniors, and any others who have not yet had their pictures taken. Please have your picture taken as soon as possible, as the staff is running behind schedule.

All Freshman and Sophomore men having football equipment used in the Freshman-Sophomore game are requested to turn this equipment in at the gym office immediately.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL TO MEET TONIGHT

The Inter-Fraternity Council will meet this evening at the Beta Kappa house, and, in accordance with the custom, the chairman of the meeting will be the Senior representative of that group, John Coffin.

They will meet to discuss the proposed amendment to the constitution requiring all fraternities to deposit a bond of one hundred dollars with the Inter-Fraternity Council in order to protect the Council against non-acceptance of penalties imposed by the Council on any fraternity. This act would put more teeth into the decisions of the Council than have hitherto been evident and would tend to make the Council a much more powerful organization. It has usually been the custom for groups to heed only slightly penalties placed upon them.

ALPHA CHI SIGMA INITIATES SIX NEW MEMBERS

Alpha Chi Sigma, professional chemical fraternity, initiated six new members yesterday evening. Those admitted to the secrets of the fraternity last night were: Glenwood Black, Thomas Gates, Jack Pogue, Charles Poole, Glen Rumberger, and Charles Stanton. The initiation banquet will be held next Tuesday evening, November 17, in the private dining room of the Kepler Hotel.

BONAVENTURE HOLDS STRONG ALLEGHENY TEAM TO 6-7 SCORE IN HARD GAME AT BRADFORD

Allegheny's Blue and Gold football team continued on its way to an undefeated season by defeating St. Bonaventure, 7-6. The game, Allegheny's third away from home, was played before a large crowd at Bradford, Pa. Throughout the four periods it was a fairly even contest, the ball being carried first into St. Bonaventure territory and then into Allegheny's. Allegheny scored in the first quarter, but it was not until the last quarter that the St. Bonas team managed to score.

Maxian kicked off to Garbark, who returned the ball to the 30 yard marker. Unable to gain, Garbark kicked to the St. Bona 30 yard line. Shortly after this Allegheny got the first break of the game when a St. Bonaventure player fumbled, and Garbark recovered on the St. Bona 45. The Alligators then opened an attack that carried them to the 3 yard line, and in two plays Garbark took the ball over for the touchdown. Varano kicked the extra point. During the rest of the first period play was largely confined to St. Bonaventure territory. The second quarter saw both teams using straight football, with an occasional pass to keep the game interesting.

Neither team seriously threatened to score during this period.

As the second half opened, Berger kicked to Francisco on the 33 yard line. Falling to make a first down, Maxian got off a beautiful kick to Allegheny's 10 yard marker. During the rest of the third quarter the ball was kept largely in Allegheny's territory. Twice in this period the St. Bonaventure team had the ball on the 'Gators 10 yard line, but both times they lacked the punch to take it over. With the ball in mid-field as the last quarter opened, St. Bonas recovered a fumble and a long pass, Eagan to Maxian, gave them their touchdown. Gildea, star kicker for St. Bonas, was sent in to kick the extra point, but his dropkick went wide. With a one-point opened, S. Bonas recovered a fumble. Allegheny played good defensive football, while St. Bonaventure tried to pull the game out of the fire by attempting a number of passes, but fine work by the Blue and Gold team prevented any serious scoring threat during the rest of the game. As the final whistle sounded the ball was in mid-field.

ELEVEN GAMES PLAYED IN VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE

During the past week, Nov. 2 to 9 inclusive, eleven spirited games and three postponements constituted the activities of the volley ball league. All of these games were interesting and were enjoyed immensely by players and spectators alike.

On Monday, Nov. 2, Beta Kappa defeated Non-Fraternity, 2-0, Phi Gamma Delta defeated Delta Tau Delta, 2-0, and Phi Delta Theta won from Alpha Chi Rho, 2-0. On Nov. 3, Beta Kappa won a 2-0 victory over Phi Kappa Psi, and Beta Upsilon defeated Alpha Chi Rho, 2-1. The following night Phi Delta Theta turned back Phi Kappa Psi by a 2-1 score, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Phi Gamma Delta in two straight games, 2-0. On Nov. 5, both games, Beta Upsilon versus Phi Kappa Psi, and Alpha Chi Rho versus Non-Fraternity, were indefinitely postponed. The next night only one game was played when Beta Kappa chalked up its third straight 2-0 victory of the week, this time against Alpha Chi Rho. On Nov. 9, Beta Kappa defeated Phi Delta Theta, 2-1, Phi Kappa Psi defeated Non-Fraternity, 2-1, and Beta Upsilon won a very hard fought game from Phi Gamma Delta, 2-1.

At the present time the B. K.'s with five won and none lost, and the Sigs and B. U.'s each with four won and none lost, are in the lead and the rest of the teams have suffered at least two defeats.

WESLEYAN SHOWS STRENGTH

Last Saturday West Virginia Wesleyan lost a hard-fought battle to West Virginia U. The final score was 7-12. Throughout the game both teams showed exceptional strength defensively. Judging by the record shown by W. Va. W. it is a sure bet that when Allegheny's Blue and Gold team lines up for the last game of the season it will have a real fight on its hands.

"You needn't tell me—I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!"

FRESH

in nature's way

CAMELS are never parched or toasted!

FRESHNESS and flavor in a cigarette trace right back to natural moisture.

If you overheat or process tobacco so harshly as to dry out all natural moisture you drive out freshness and flavor too.

Camel never parches or toasts the fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos it uses—they are naturally smooth, cool, mellow, with natural moisture retained.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack proves such a blessing to Camel smokers—it brings them a fine cigarette fresh to start with, and fresh to smoke.

If you don't realize what natural moisture means in genuine freshness and flavor, switch to Camels and see.

Try this mild, slow-burning, throat-friendly favorite for just one day—then leave it, if you can!

HISTORY CLUB HOLDS MEETING LAST TUESDAY

History and Political Science Club initiated eight new members on Tuesday, Nov. 3. Hullings Hall living room was the scene of the event. The initiates were: Virginia Wright, Myrtis Dailey, Marian Sleeman, Sanford Corcoran, William Hunter, Thomas Johnson, Michael Yohan and S. F. Cary.

Following the initiation ritual, there was a short business meeting which disposed of several important measures concerning committees and the plans for the next meeting. Paul Cares and Hugh Elliott were appointed members at large of the executive committee, and Charlotte Sweet and Martha Fell were designated as a refreshment committee. It is expected that Dr. and Mrs. Woodring will entertain at the next meeting, which is scheduled for Tuesday evening, December 8, in the Hullings Hall living room.

After the items of business had been transacted, President Harold Atkins delivered a report on conditions in England today. A general discussion on this report followed. The meeting was brought to a pleasant end by the serving of pumpkin pie, after-dinner mints, and coffee.

MISS CLARK HOLDS OPEN FORUM FRIDAY

Miss Mary L. Clark, representing the Student Volunteer Movement, addressed a meeting of the Thoburn Club last Friday evening on the subject of "Modern Missions," after which there was an open forum discussion on the evident lack of interest among college students for missionary work.

In her talk on "Modern Missions," Miss Clark pointed out the great varieties of missions. There is the medical missionary as exemplified by Thomas Harrison of Arabia, and the recreational missionary who, like Ray Phillips in the diamond mine district of South Africa, can increase the health and vigor of the natives by providing recreational outlets for them. Then there is Sam Higginbotham of India who established an agricultural school and experimental farm in India to raise the level of agricultural methods and procedure in that country. She spoke of the difference between the modern missionary and the usual idea of the gloom spreading preacher which is present in the majority of minds.

After Miss Clark's address an open forum was conducted on the question, "Why aren't more students interested in missions?"

THOBURN CLUB WILL SEND DELEGATE TO MEET

Ways and means of sending delegates to the Buffalo convention of the Student Volunteer Movement was the subject of discussion at last Friday's meeting of Thoburn Club. A number of new members were enrolled at this meeting.

Miss Clark, Student Volunteer representative who spoke in Friday's chapel, also gave a talk at Thoburn Club about missionary work as a life calling. Miss Clark lead a discussion on this topic and then brought up the matter of sending Allegheny delegates to the Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement of the United States and Canada, which convenes at Buffalo from December 31 through January 3. Although the club was unable to take definite action on Miss Clark's proposition, there was considerable interest aroused, and it is possible that arrangements will be made for sending representatives. The delegates will not be restricted to Thoburn Club alone, but may be selected from all those interested in some form of religious work.

New members enrolled at Friday's meeting were Robert Maytum, Henry Masman, Wesley Miller, Edward Franklin, Roger Morgan, Thomas Mansell, Grace Bunner and Frances Hyde.

The affairs of Thoburn Club are under the direction of the following officers: President Charles Hartung, Vice-President Lawrence Avery, Secretary Charlotte Sweet, and Treasurer Charles Baldwin.

moved to their place at the right of the stairway. A cloak room is being provided at the right of the vestibule for the use of the students. During the past week the former Romance language room and the Quill Club room have been replastered and it is expected that they will be ready for use in a short time.

Over one hundred students in the college have not yet taken out cards in the library for the circulation of books. Miss Rowley has asked that all students who have not yet taken advantage of this opportunity do so as soon as possible.

books and schools. This adjustment came entirely through the work of the missionaries. In another case, a miners' strike, which promised to be disastrous, was peacefully averted by a missionary who had taken the minds of the laborers from their purpose by the showing of humorous movies in a showhouse that he had established in their settlement.

The great need for missions was shown by Miss Clark through the presentation of several striking statistics. Included in these were the following facts: 90% of India's population is entirely without education; China has one Christian hospital to every 500,000; one doctor to every 200,000 people and Persia is 96% Mohammedan.

Miss Clark closed her talk with an explanation of the Student Volunteer Movement. This movement, fostered by students from the various colleges and universities of the the country, is made up in an endeavor to aid with missionary work. She announced a convention of the organization at Buffalo where 4,000 delegates of the movement will meet in December. The Allegheny Singers have been invited to sing at this convention.

NON-FRATERNITY PHOTOS MAY BE TAKEN ANY TIME

An officer of the Non-Fraternity Group calls the attention of the members of that group to the fact that they may have their Kaldron pictures taken at any time during the hours when the photographer is in his headquarters. Since the published schedule for Kaldron pictures made no mention of a time for the taking of Non-Fraternity pictures, there was naturally much confusion on this point. Non-Fraternity Group members are now informed that they may have their pictures taken at any time during the photographer's studio hours—from 10 to 12 A. M. and 1 to 5 P. M. on Monday to Friday inclusive. The headquarters are located in the former broadcasting room in Bentley Hall.

"I liked Chesterfield right from the start"

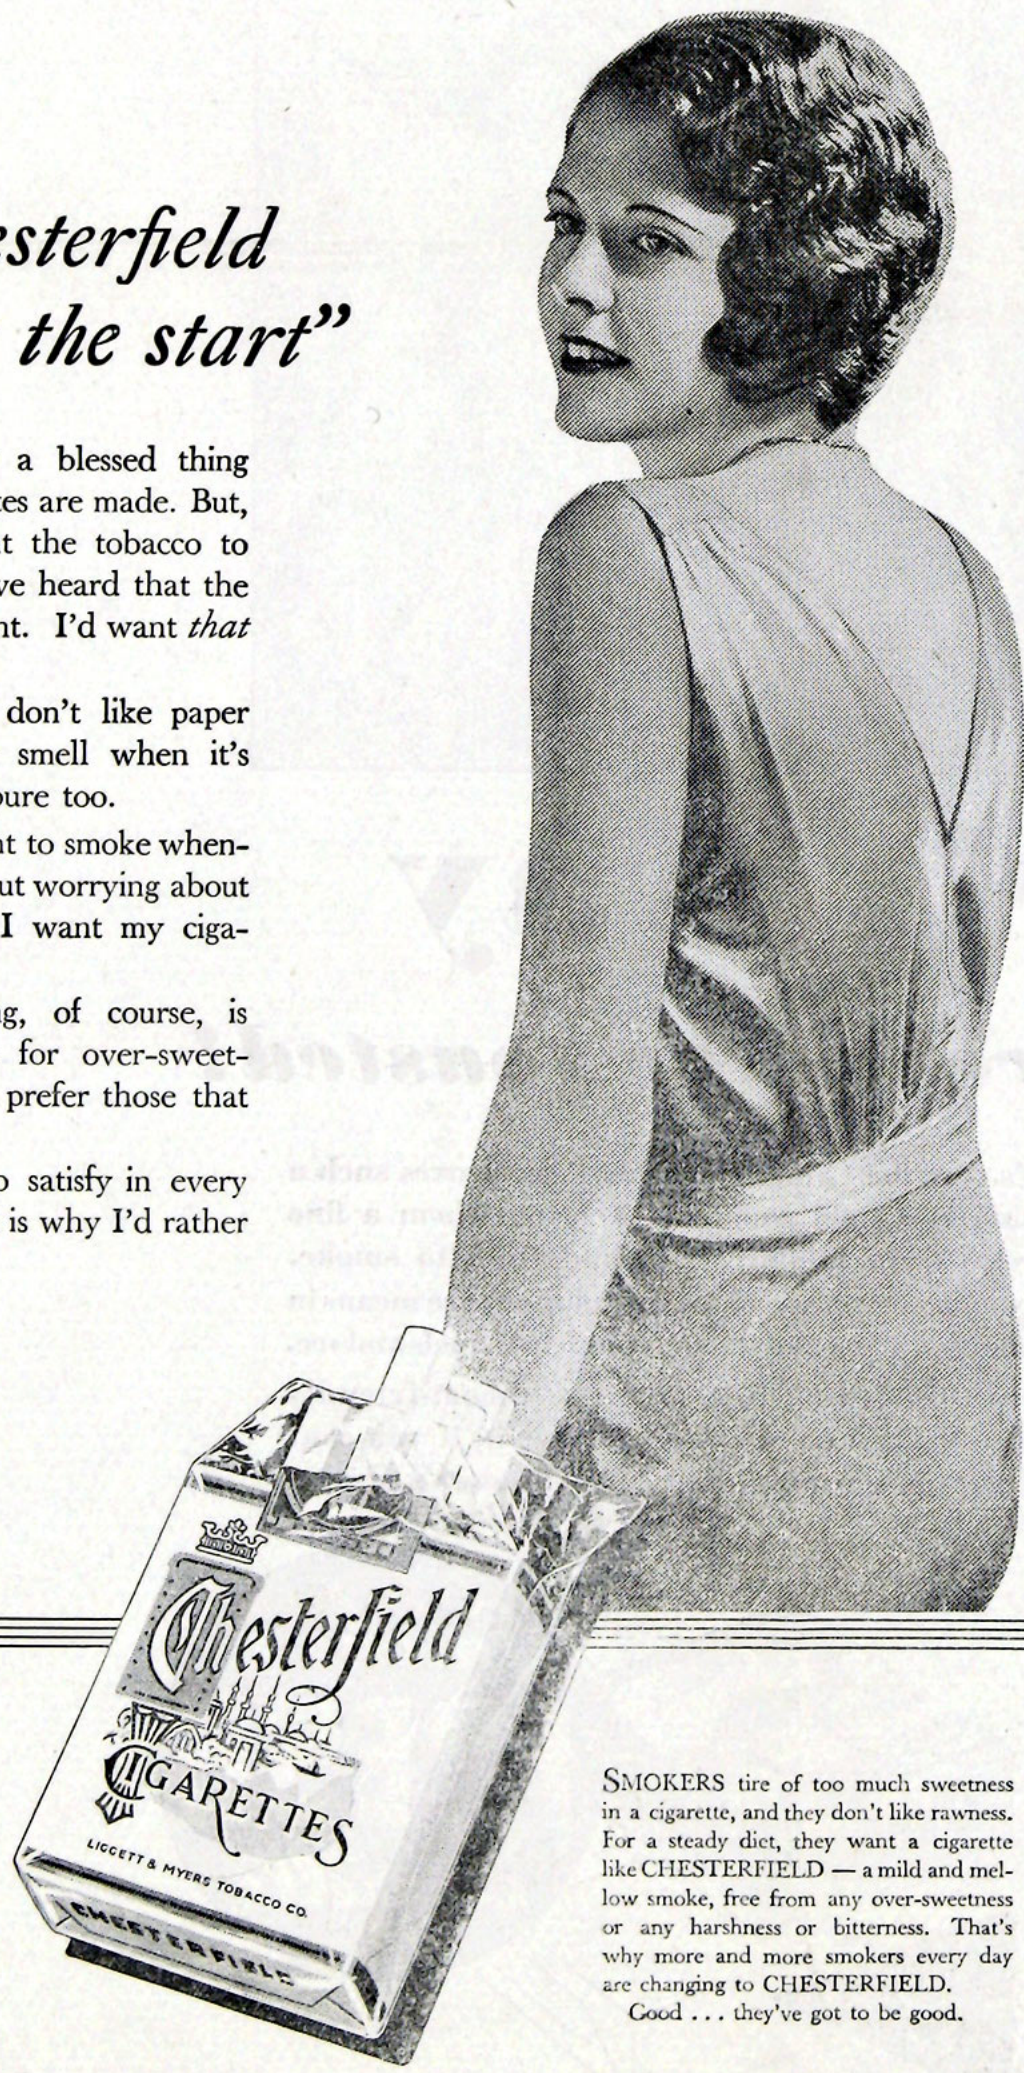

"NO, I don't know a blessed thing about how cigarettes are made. But, of course, I would want the tobacco to be PURE. And then I've heard that the blending is very important. I'd want that to be done just right.

"Then the paper. I don't like paper that you can taste—or smell when it's burning. I'd want that pure too.

"Another thing. I want to smoke whenever I feel like it—without worrying about smoking too many. So I want my cigarettes MILD.

"But the main thing, of course, is TASTE. I don't care for over-sweetened cigarettes. I much prefer those that are just sweet enough.

"Chesterfield seems to satisfy in every one of these ways. That is why I'd rather have a Chesterfield."

SMOKERS tire of too much sweetness in a cigarette, and they don't like rawness. For a steady diet, they want a cigarette like CHESTERFIELD—a mild and mellow smoke, free from any over-sweetness or any harshness or bitterness. That's why more and more smokers every day are changing to CHESTERFIELD.
Good... they've got to be good.
