My dear Mr. Ewell:

I am enclosing my reports for the two weeks that I was out, under the Mutual.

In one of your letters you said you were afraid that this was not going to pay very well for the Mutual; I sympathise with you for certainly it is not paying me very well. Of course I understand exactly how it happened--the war and the influenza, and I hope it will not happen again. We could not either of us afford it, I think.

I am going overseas very soon, so I shall be obliged if you will settle the account at once. You will notice by the schedule that the Stillwater people were to send a check direct to you. I don't know why.

Yours very truly,
