enclose Dodge letter

December 27, 1938

Dear Donald Stevens:

Do forgive my delay in writing the letter to Mr. Dodge. I have had a hectic time since I saw you with Christmas which I always threaten to ignore, and always seize with both hands - added to certain imperative pieces of work have kept me until now from writing the letter.

Here is a copy of what I am sending to Mr. Dodge. It isn't a very good letter, I fear, but at least calls to the fact that the documents in this case leaves an outsider, like myself, with a strong suspicion that the reason for closing New College is something beside a deficit.

attention

I shall be much interested to know how the matter stands. And in the meantime, dear Donald Stevens, do not lose heart. I am enclosing you a copy of a postal Christmas card which I sent out five years ago. I still feel the same about it.

Cordially yours

Mr. Donald Stevens
