Forty-four East Twenty-third Street
New York

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Did Mr Deland write you that I was in New York? I wanted to see you all so much that I did n't wait but came down here. And you were out! Alas! I am going back to the Manhattan for luncheon when I am spending the night with a friend. If you are going, this evening, to the Pen and Brush to meet Mrs Craigie and will send me word (at the Manhattan I will go too

— to meet you; otherwise,
I shant go. My love to Mrs
McClure. I sent him my card.
Very sincerely yours,

Alice French
