Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am indeed obliged to you for your kind letter of the 15th. In accordance with it I shall put in hand at once a re-issue in one volume of the present two volume Life of Lincoln. I think perhaps it might be well to allow the two volume edition to go out of print with the publication of a revised edition in mind, and carry for the time being only the one volume edition. I note that the ten per cent royalty to which you agree is to apply only on the one volume edition. Of course that was my understanding.

Very truly yours,

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY.
