9.

Supplementary Bibliography

The critical bibliographies in the 3 volumes of this series should be used in connection with the text as they are called for. They are Allan Nevins' The Emergence of Modern America - 1865-1878, Arthur M. Schlesinger's The Rise of the City - covering the period of this book 1878 and 1898 - and Harold Underwood Faulkner's The Quest for Social Justice 1878 to 1914.

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

Bibliography Collecting Pamphlets Etc

Autobiography.

Personal Material (Autobiography)
and

Autobiographical Material of value in the study of ~~which the Individual~~ in the person of their women is ~~a~~ women's place in the domain of ~~public~~ social & political life. The Memoirs of Henry Villard. The Autobiography of Andrew Carnegie. The Random Reminiscences of Men & Events by John D. Rockefeller, ~~His~~ Memoirs of Abraham Lincoln by Abbott K. Flint; Fifty Years of It by Brand Whitlock, Confessions of a Reformer by Frederick C. Howe, Fifty years in Wall St by Henry Clews, 70 years of Life & Labor by Samuel Gompers, a number of valuable contributions [illegible]

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

Personal Material

Thirty years of Labor by Terence Powderly

From Immigrant to Inventor by Michael Pupin - Chapter in Poole's Index of Periodical Literature will be found Periodical articles based on interviews.

An invaluable source of autobiographical material is to be found in the examinations of leaders in all fields of industry & finance which are conducted by the State & Federal Industrial Commissions, in Kentucky, in Kansas, in preparing the pending & anti-trust & railroad legislation & in the Federal Industrial Commission and in reports such as that made by the Industrial Commission. Many of the persons examined who wield practically all of the leaders in manufac-