April 13, 1923

Mr. William H. Briggs,
Harper & Brothers,
Franklin Square, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Briggs:

The letter came later in the day, but I am off for the country this afternoon. This is only a note to tell you how much pleased I am that you and your colleagues who have read the installments of the Lincoln story think so well of it.

I will do as promptly as possible what you ask, next week if I can. I must be away the week after. Could you give me a fortnight? I think I could promise it by the 30th. What that do?

As to our talk over the details of the publishing agreement, how would Tuesday afternoon, two o'clock at the Arts Club do?

Faithfully yours,

Digital Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.