My dear Miss Tarbell:

I've had two letters from Mr. McClure lately. The first one is the best though I've heard. I've done some opening & spreading but I'm all right. In the other he says "I've been an awful fool. My duties & my duties going just together." Then my right & true - not like some other things the General has said.

I'm off to Brooklyn - back Tuesday when I look to see you from Philadelphia
