Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East Nineteenth Street
New York City, New York

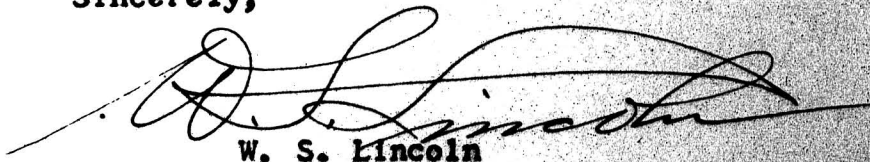

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Recently Dr. Louis A. Warren advised me to communicate with the New England Historic Genealogical Society and copies of my letter and of their reply are inclosed herewith. It would seem that I was at the end of my trail since the Newberry Library in Chicago failed to send the desired information. I expect, however, to visit the Library this fall and hope to obtain some information of value.

I am a great-grandson of Nathan Lincoln, who was a son of Joshua and Elizabeth Seekins Lincoln of Taunton, Massachusetts. I have worked during leisure hours for the last seven years, tracing my family, and I certainly hate to give up now.

If you can give me any lead from which I might obtain the desired result, it will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

W. S. Lincoln
