Pittsburgh, Penn.,
April 1, 1916.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have just received this P. M. your pleasant and welcome letter of the 30th ult., and in accordance with your request I will start on the 3 o'clock train for N. Y. and on the next morning, the 4th, after breakfast I will report your proofs on or before 9 A.M. I thank you to have seven hours to look over and read the letters and get a general survey of the material. I have already marked, besides a few other things to which I wish to call attention.

Reciprocating the great pleasure of meeting you, I am, Cordially yours

Gilbert H. Tracy.

Digital Image, 2012. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library