April 23, 1930

My dear Mr. Stafford:

I returned to New York a few days ago but have been too busy to try to get in touch with you. I learned from Mr. Phillips, However, that you have something for me and he gave me your address.

I am leaving town today to be gone until the first of next week. Could you call here, say next Tuesday morning, about eleven o'clock? Then we can talk over what you have. I shall be obliged. You can either telephone me Monday morning at Algonquin 6674 or drop me a note.

Very truly yours

Mr. Bert Stafford
Hotel Brostell
3 East 27th St.
New York City

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.