Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

When I tried to tell you the story of the Test Men's Christmas Dinner in Schenectady I remember telling you that the document used was Custer's Message. Of course, later I found that I was wrong and that it was the Lincoln Chalked Hat Letter. Today I discovered for what the Custer Message was used. What a fine ability I have for mixing facts!

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude Chandler
