THE CAMPUS

OF ALLEGHENY COLLEGE.

VOL. XVIII. NO. 15 MEADVILLE, PA., OCTOBER 23, 1901. NEW SERIES.

11 to 0.

ALLEGHENY LOSES TO W. U. P. IT SEEMS AN IMPOSSIBILITY TO BREAK AWAY FROM THE ABOVE SCORE.

The game at Schenley park against W. U. P. on Saturday was by far the best game of the season. Neither side scored in the first half but Allegheny had the better of the argument during that part of the game.

The team left for Pittsburg Friday evening on tran 1, arriving there at 11 p. m. The team was met at the P. & L. E. depot by the manager of the W. U. P. team who marched it up Smithfield street, down Fifth avenue. and after much walking and winding, landede it at the Hotel Shriner. And what a hotel! Located on the darkest corner of Market street, immediately opposite the market house, its appearance was anything but inviting. Coach Eisenberg, after looking at the rooms reserved for the team determined not to remain, but at so late an hour our manager was unable to get other accomodations, and was compelled to put up at the Shriner. A majority of the team preferred to sleep on the floor rather than risk the danger of an early morning attack. As a result they looked anything but brisk on the following morning. At 1:30 p. m. the team left their elegant quarters for Schenley park and appeared on the grid iron at 3 o'clock. W. U. P. appeared a few minutes later and each team was cheered to the echo. In weight, the W. U. P. team had the advantage, but in the preliminary practice Allegheny seemed to work much faster and handled the ball more accurately. It was evident that a splendid game would be played and the outcome very doubtful.

Our team showed that it is fast mastering the Lafayette style of guards back, and the way the boys tore up the line of their opponents was something fierce. It was evident to W. U. P. at the end of the first half that something would have to be done or the game would go against them. They found that the system of tackle backs was not a success against the team and resorted to the Princeton formation in the second half. This style of play is the same as that used against us by Geneva, and as in the Geneva game their gains were mostly between tackle and half back.

Saturday was an ideal day for foot ball from the onlookers standpoint, but a little too warm for continued fast work. The oval in Schenley park is a good one, a litle exposed to the wind which handicapped the kickers but smooth and roomy. The crowd numbered three thousand and were kept well back from the lines by mounted policemen. Allegheny had many enthusiastic rooters in the crowd, and from an Allegheny standpoint the only colors in evidence were Allegheny's, as our colors and that of W. U. P. are the same. The crowd was truly representative of what college teams should attract. Alumni and undergraduates, interested parents and friends of education, they were all there with true college spirit, and what cheering!

Taylor won the toss for Allegheny, and chose to defend the east goal. A high wind was blowing from the west, and Captain Taylor decided to play with the disadvantage in the first half so as to have the wind in the second.

McConnel for W. U. P. kicked off, the ball going to the fifteen yard line. The kick was a long, fast one, and no one was able to get under it. From the fifteen yard line it boundede over William's head,. In an attempt to catch the flying oval Williams succeeded in touching the ball with the tips of his fingers, but did not suceed in stopping it before it bounded across our goal line. A safety was declared by the umpire, and Allegheny kicked from her 25 yard line. As Williams was in no condition to kick, Lampe was called upon to take his place. He sent the ball far in the teeth of the wind and Simpson carried it but three yards before being downed by Fletcher. The game was now on in earnest.

By a tackle right formation Walger gained five yards and Secrist hit the line for another five. In the next attempt W. U. P. fumbled but retained the ball without gain. Secrist was again sent at the line but advanced a scant yard. Walger and Simpson failed to make the distance and the ball went to Allegheny. Taylor hit the right side of the line for four yards, McCartney followed suite and made three. Guards were called right, and Lampe dived through the line for six yards. Fletcher now started around left end, but fumbled Lampe fell and it was first down. After advancing the ball rapidly through the line for several downs, the ball was fumbled and Morrow fell on it. McClain now made ten yards around left end and Reed added twenty more by one of the prettiest runs of the day. Wallace then dashed through tackle for seven yards and placed the ball on the twenty-yard line. Here Allegheny held and got the ball on downs and now began a fierce onslaught on W. U. P.'s line by Allegheny. Lampe dived through the line for five yards. McCartney hit the line for five more. Turner swung around right end for six yards and Leffingwell added five more on close formation. Taylor hit tackle for six and Lampe dived through guard for seven. Allegheny was now penalized ten yards for offside play, and on first attempt the ball was fumbled and captured by W. U. P. After a few short gains Allegheny held and secured the ball on downs and again began the onward march by pounding W. U. P.'s heavy line, occasionally sending an end run around her opponent's end for a short gain. Lampe was called on most frequently to carry the ball and never failed to respond with a gain. W. U. P. finally braced up and Fletcher punted, the punt was fumbled and Lampe fell on the ball. The half finished with the ball in Allegheny's possession on her opponent's 20-yard line.

Second Half.

Lampe kicked off and McCready was downed on the 20-yard line. W. U. P. now changed her style of play and steadily pounded our tackles. Reed gained five yards. Secrist made seven and Simpson five. W. U. P. steadily carried the ball down the field, Secrist being their principal ground gainer, until the ball was on Allegheny's 30-yard line. Simpson now took the ball and by aid of fine interference he carried the ball over for the first touchdown.

The crowd went wild, and it is said that the animals in the zoo a mile distant, crouched in fear when they heard the uproar.

McConnel kicked goal. Score 6-0.

Lampe again kicked and Reed was downed on the 20-yard line by Leffingwell. Secrist now dived through left tackle for six yards. Reed attempted to go through the same place, but was thrown back, Mook tackling him fiercely back of the line. Simpson now gained three and Smith five yards, making it first down. Simpson hurdled the line for two yards. Reed made three through tackle. Secrist made five yards and Reed added another five. Secrist was again called on, and responded with five. Reed now went around the end for a ten-yard run. Reed took two and then gained seven yards. Allegheny now braced up and it was third down for W. U. P. and four yards to gain. Secrist dropped back, apparently to punt, but instead of punting, the old fake full-back run was attempted and strange to say it caught our boys napping and Secrist was not stopped until he had placed the ball on the twenty-yard line.

Secrist, Reed and McClain steadily advanced the ball until Reed finally carried it over for the second touchdown near the side lines. McConnel punted out, but failed at goal. Score 11-0.

Kerr was substituted for Morrow at this juncture and Lampe kicked off to McCready who was downed on the fifteen-yard line. Reed hit left tackle for a loss and time was called with the ball in W. U. P.'s fifteen-yard line. Final score 11-0.

DEATH OF A NOTED ALUMNUS.

On Tuesday, Sept. 17, the Rev. Orville Nelson Hartshorn, died at his home in Alliance, Ohio. He entered Allegheny College from Mahoning county, Ohio, in the year 1846, graduating in 1849. Shortly after his graduation he founded Mount Union College. In the year 1852 he received the degree of A. M. from our college. For 41 years he held the position of president of Mount Union College. The week including the 13th and 17th of September was a sad one for Mount Union College. President McKinley was a warm friend of the college and a life-long friend of Dr. Hartshorn. The death of two of their illustrious friends within a week cast a gloom over the student body. The funeral services of Dr. Hartshorn were very touching. Funeral orations were pronounced by members of the faculty who had been coworkers with him for nearly half a century. The music for the occasion was rendered by a male quartet from the student body. Dr. Hartshorn had lived to see the college grow from its infancy into a strong flourishing school. It represented his life's work and he died feeling that he had done what he could.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA ENTERTAINS IN LIBRARY HALL.

Last Friday evening Kappa Alpha Theta gave a very novel entertainment in Library Hall. The invitations read, "Wanted! Fifty men to try for position of expert trimmer at Madame Kappaalphatheta's Millinery Emporium." As a result a large number of men applied at Library Hall and after each had passed a satisfactory examination he was admitted to the contest. Coupons were given to him with which to obtain a hat, trimmings and other materials. He was next shown the latest styles from Paris, each hat bearing the name of a member of the faculty, one of the classes or of the fraternities. Next the contestant was allowed to choose a hat which he should trim. These hats were all said to have been worn by the "Kats" within the last ten years. At other counters feathers, ribbons and thread could be obtained at very reasonable prices. Each contestant was to trim the hat he had selected and to submit it to the critical tasts of the judges. Prof. A. M. Reese secured the first prize, which was an Allegheny cap; while the booby prize, a pair of scissors, went to Mr. Burton. After the prize winners had been selected, light refreshments were served. Soon after the guests departed, being given a souvenir of the pleasant evening.

NEW ERA FOR JOURNALISM IN ALLEGHENY.

In the fall term of the college English I couse, all of us who have reached the greatest class in the college have learned that it has been literature which has bound nations together in times past. In the good days since the year of one the Bible has been the conserving element, but in these better days of twentieth century life the college newspaper must bind together all factions in school politics. Thus the Campus will put itself on record as the long missed link between frats and non-frats in Allegheny.

On Friday afternoon five men representingthe non-fraternity clubs of the college came before the faculty with a request for official permission to publish a new college paper to be

The past week has brough to light the fact that much dissatisfaction exists in college in regard to the present system of running the Campus. The non-frat element feels that it is not being dealt with fairly in that it has no representatives on the Campus board, and since the Campus is ostensibly a college newspaper, they feel that all parties should be equally represented. And further that the present system of election of officers to the Campus board is not according to merit, and that the present system fails to secure the best representative men for the board of editors. Considering all these phases of the question, they decided to organize a paper of their own. Accordingly a mass meeting of the non-frats was called and a board of editors was elected. Freeman, '05, was elected editor-in-chief. King, '04, was elected as business manager and a committee was appointed to wait on the faculty asking permission to found a new college weekly.

We feel that we cannot afford to pour cold water on the spark of college spirit that we have, and we feel that the establishing of another college weekly would surely prove disastrous to the best interests of our college.

At present the college is not large enough to support two weekly papers, indeed it very poorly supports the one now issued.

We claim that the Campus has always been fair in representing college affairs and at no time have facts been distorted to gain any political end. We have poked fun at members of both parties and dealth indifferently with individuals, disregarding clique or fraternity.

It has been the aim of the Campus to record all events of college life as they occurred, to keep the alumni and outside world acquainted with the actions of the undergraduate body.

The Campus was founded by the fraternities. It is a bona fide stock company and all shares of stock are owned by the different frats in school. It is nothing more than natural that the Campus board under such conditions should be selected from said fraternities.

The Allegheny Literary Monthly is ostensibly a non-frat production, and in the past care has been taken in selecting men who were not or were not likely to be fraternity men. The monthly has never shown any petty factional feeling and is an honor to the college. Had we felt that we should be represented on the board of that paper, we should have made an earnest request for representation, but since contributions from all parties are published in it, we fell that mere nominal representation is unnecessary.

Now we feel that we cannot afford schol of our size, not from a financial standpoint, but from the standpoint of college spirit. The publishing of another weekly would simply aggravate factional quarrels, which would be felt in every phase of our college life, and would not only be felt, but would work ruin to the best interest of our institution; we must get above self in this matter, and look rather to the welfare of our college. We will be here but a few months, but we can leave a heritage which the students of many years must take up. It is not more than fair that the non-frat element should be represented on the Campus board, and there is no reason why they cannot be. A representative of non-frats on the Campus board will mean that they must support it in a financial way more liberally than they have in the past.

To sum the whole matter up we feel that a representation of non-frats on the Campus board will not only make the Campus a better college weekly, but will be conducive to better college spirit.

A new weekly would necessarily not only be biased in representing college affairs, but would naturally force the Campus to be the same. Thus college affairs would not be properly represented to the outside world, which would plainly work against the upward trend of our dear, old "Allegheny."

We trust that the present difficulty may be amicably settled, and that both sides may look to the best interests of the college, rather than be prompted by any selfish motives.

We are glad to note that President Roosevelt has risen above the petty prejudice of color line, and has invited Booker T. Washington to dine at the White House. It is the first time in the history of our country that a colored man has been welcomed to the hospitality of the capitol as has Mr. Washington.

We, as college students, should naturally feel interested in the departure, since Booker T. Washington is perhaps to-day the most earnest friend of educational interests in America. In getting an education himself he had to overcome almost unsurmountable difficulties — difficulties under which any of us would have given up in despair, but not he. Earnestly struggling onward, he has made himself a master of men in the best sense of the word.

We feel that Booker T. Washington is one of the truly great men of our time, great in intellect, great in soul, an example of what the colored race may become, when they have lived down the evil influences of a long bondage.

Once more Allegheny has gone down to defeat under the baleful shadow of eleven to nothing. Has fate figured out for us to a mathematical nicety the result of our foot ball games, or in modern parlance are we hodooed? On Wednesday we are going to prove that such is not the case.

Our team on Saturday played much better than it has at any time this season. The offensive work was above reproach, but the defense is as yet somewhat weak. Saturday's game was played with four men in the game practically for the first time. Our interference was superb, and our line bucking was all that could be asked. We must now correct our defensive work. We will lose no more games this season. Too much cannot be said in praise of the new men. Harper at quarter was in every play. He tackled hard and supported the runner well. Lampe played a star game. He perhaps gained more ground for us than any other man. He tackled fiercely and succeeded in gathering in two fumbles. Turner at half is quite a find. He has wonderful quickness and is very heady. Leffingwell is certainly making good at end. He not only gained ground when called upon, but was very fleet in getting down on punts. McQuiston made some fine openings in the line and with a little more experience, will make a very valuable tackle. We feel that we should win all the rest of our games, with one possible exception. Now all together and to work. We can yet keep that pennant from Geneva.

The New Campus.

A GREAT CHANGE IN OUR COLLEGE WEEKLY.

A meeting of the representatives from the frats and non-frats met yesterday at 11 a. m., and succeeded in adjusting the newspaper difficulty. The non-frats are to have an equal representation on The Campus board. It is very gratifying to all concerned that the difficulty has been so amicably settled.

The Campus can surely become a much better college paper, and the work of editing it will not devolve on a few persons as hitherto. This statement is necessarily brief as it comes just as The Campus is going to press. A full account of the committee's proceedings will be given in the next issue.

THE THIEL GAME ON WEDNESDAY.

We sincerely hope that on Wednesday next we may break away from the hoodoo of 11 to 0. On that day we will meet our old enemy, Thiel. After a lapse of one year, athletic relations have been brought together with the two collleges. Allegheny has never defeated Thiel except once. That was the lase game we ever played them. We had managed to tie Thiel in years before, but only on this occasion was Allegheny ever the victor.

This year we have a strong team. The game Saturday showed what the team was made of. We must win on Wednesday and to do that we must have the hearty co-operation of every student in college. The scrubs will have to come out and do their part. A good scrub team is of the greatest importance towards the success of the team. Then we must have some "rooters" to go with the team. The last time that we played in Greenville we took 200 people with us. This year we must equal or surpass that record. Now someone must take ahold of the matter and push it. A good rate can be obtained to Greenville if a sufficient number of persons will pledge themselves to go. A train leaves Meadville at 1:17 and arrives in Greenville at 2:04 (Eastern time). We feel that the faculty should excuse all who go from afternoon classes. This is as much of a college duty as anything and should be recognized as such. We can have the crowd with us if we make the effort, so let us do all that we can and we will be there two hundred strong on Wednesday.

NEW ERA FOR JOURNALISM.

known as the Allegheny Weekly. The fraternity never had heard of this move and had therefore sent five Greeks to explain their ideas of college journalism to the faculty. For forty minutes this learned body listened to the arguments of the advocates of the proposed paper. Then the summons was sounded for the fraternity men to appear in the president's office. It took but fiftene minutes for the professors to learn that the secret societies had no desire to keep the Campus from being a college publication. As a parting shot Dr. Montgomery suggested that both parties meet and agree on some amicable settlement of differences. Following this suggestion a joint committee of non-frats and frats met on Saturday to discuss means of effecting a union of forces for the betterment of college news, nominally, but college spirit, actually. Of course either side may fail to ratify the suggestions of this meeting, and yet that is unlikely

The good feeling and unanimity of sentiment which prevaded this meeting argues great things for college society. At the close of the meeting a warm handshake all around was the order. This grip of friendship is a thing which has been too long missed in our institution. With very little difficulty a temporary adjustment was decided upon. The scheme on foot is to increase the editorial staff for the remainder of this year. Hereafter all editorial offices are to be filled by some competitive system not yet fully arranged.

It is hoped that by the time this issue goes to press, all differences on this subject will be lost in a new era of college enthusiasm, dashing with great force on the entire student body in this, our united college. Long years of political wrangling have tended to destroy good fellowship. If now a union on the Campus board can effect a reconciliation of all elements of college society, all will believe that "the pen is mightier than the sword."

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Rev. Charles G. Ames, of Boston, Mass., will give two lectures on the Adin Ballou Foundation, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 7:45. The subject of the first lecture is "Men and Women;" of the second "Marriage." Mr. Ames lectures in the school chapel. Those interested are cordially welcome.

The conference for this week, Friday, at 5 p. m., is in charge of Mr. Savage. Subject, "Active Optimism." The Wednesday evening preaching is necessarily postponed one week.

At a gathering of professors, students and friends of the school, resolutions of gratitude and appreciation were adopted to be signed and forwarded to Mr. Honeywell, who recently donated $20,000 to the gymnasium fund. Mr. Honeywell has often responded to worthy appeals, and once before this school has been remembered with his generosity. A special effort will be made to complete the fund before the new year comes in.

During the last week the students organized a Browning society, with Mr. S. C. C. Dutton as leader.

The registration of the graduate school of Yale shows an enrollment of 147, as against 117 for last year at this time.

NOTES OF OTHER COLLEGES.

An effort is being made to raise $200,000 for an endowment fund for Westminster.

President Roth, of Thiel college, has been relieved from all college duties and is endeavoring to raise the debt which has been such a heavy burden to the college for a number of years.

A large hotel to cost $100,000 is being built at Columbus, O., for accomodating the students and faculty of Ohio State University who prefer hotel life to that in dormitories or private homes.

The faculty of Waynesburg college disbanded the college foot ball team on account of the professionalism displayed in the makeup of the team. This action will make it hard for Waynesburg to put a winning team on the field for a few years, but in the end it will be a marked benefit to the institution. The faculty is to be commended for its step toward the purification of the college's athletics.

On Sunday, Oct. 20, the Yale Bicentennial celebration began. Just two hundred years ago Yale received its first start in the way of a gift of some books. This week they will commemorate the event. New Haven has been preparing for the gathering for some time and the entire celebration should move off in perfect harmony. President Hadley and his aides have arranged many spectacular performances in the way of parades and plays. This will be the greatest event in the history of the alma mater of the sons of "Old Eli."

On October 7th President Seth Low, of Columbia University delivered a farewell address to the officers and students of the university on the occasion of the opening of the one hundred and forty-eighth academic year of that institution. In his address President Low announced that he had forwarded his resignation to the trustees of the university. Later in the day the trustees accepted Mr. Low's resignation and appointed Nicholas Murray Butler, professor of philosophy and education, as temporary president of the university. Mr. Low has accepted the nomination as Republican candidate for mayor of New York.

There is considerable talk about the removal of Thiel College from Greenville to Greensburgh. The Lutheran church has a school at the latter place and if Thiel is moved the two will be consolidated.

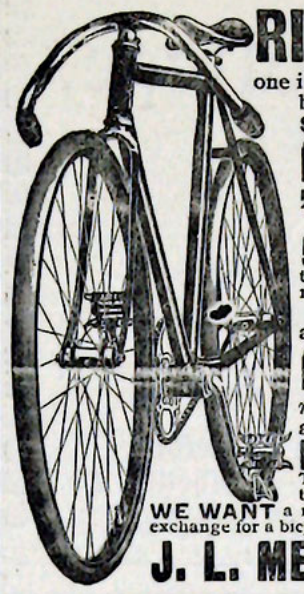

DELTA TAU DELTA ENTERTAINS.

Last evening at the home of Mr. Dull, Delta Tau Delta gave a reception to its many friends. The elegant home of Mr. Dull was brilliantly lighted within and without. The Northwestern orchestra furnished music for the occasion and rendered many pleasing numbers. An elegant lunch was served, presided over by Mrs. Dull.

At 8 o'clock the guests began to arrive. They were received by a reception committee which extended to each guest a cordial welcome, and made each one feel that he was to enjoy himself.

The guests continued to arrive until the spacious parlors were well filled. At 10 o'clock the girls from Hulings Hall were taken in to lunch so that they might have ample time to do justice to the spread, and be able to reach the hall before eleven. After they had departed the guests from the city were invited to the dining room and all certainly did justice to the spread. After a thoroughly enjoyable time the many guests left, feeling that in every respect the reception was most pleasant.

All join in saying that there are few hosts as genial as Mr. Dull and few hostesses who have more grace and tact than Mrs. Dull. Delta Tau Delta is to be congratulated on the splendid success of its yearly reception.

Proves we got it in the neck.

In all probability the foot ball team will play Oil City A. A. at Athletic park on Saturday next, Oct. 26. Oil City has always had a good team and a close game may be expected if the arrangements can be made.

Care should be taken to perform the experiment in the dark, as some of the material is explosive and the reaction is very violent. Ex.

OUR SAVIOUR IN ART.

Cost nearly $100,000 to produce. Contains nearly 100 full-page engravings of our Saviour and His Mother by the world's greatest painters. True copies of the greatest masterpieces in the art galleries of Europe. Every picture is as beautiful as a sunrise over the hill-tops. Contains description of the paintings, biography of the painters, the names and locations of the galleries in Europe where the originals may be seen. Also contains a Child's Department, including a Child's Story of the Christ and His Mother, beautifully written, to fit each picture. This wonderful book, matchless in its purity and beauty, appeals to every mother's heart, and in every Christian home where there are children the book sells itself. Christian men and women are making money rapidly taking orders. A Christian man or woman can in this community soon make $1,000 taking orders for Christmas presents. Mrs. Waite, our agent in Massachusetts, has sold over $3,000 worth of the books in a very short time. Mrs. Sackett, our agent in New York, has sold over $1,500 worth of the books in a very short time. The book is printed in velvet-finished paper, beautifully bound in Cardinal Red and Gold, and adorned with Golden Roses and Lilies. It is, without doubt, the most beautiful book of this century.
