My dear Miss Tarbell:

Here is another year almost gone, and it seems to me I have been next to nothing at all for you! But I often think of you, and it is a comfort to know that you are here, with your own dear and fine outlook upon life. I had a card yesterday from Bert and was glad to know where he was. When he gets back I do wish we could have a gathering of the old clan!

I have just come back from North Carolina and am going to do a new syndicate

Series. I am at the White House for luncheon on Sunday: as being a situation as I think I have ever been or known.

Our two big sons are home from college & we are planning an old-fashioned family celebration. Our older daughter is soon to be married & our younger one is well along in the high school. We shall soon be old folks!

With the warmest best wishes from all of us for this Christmas season,

I am, Faithfully yours,

May Howard Baker
