Mrs. Julia R. Tutwiler,
471 Park Avenue,
New York City.

My dear Mrs. Tutwiler:

I have been away for several weeks which will explain why you have not heard from me in regard to Henry Wallace Phillip's material. Mr. Shuler wrote me that you had been good enough to say that you would go over his manuscripts, with an eye to the moving picture possibilities in them.

I suppose Mr. Shuler explained to you in what hard case Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are. He has had, as you know, all sorts of nervous and mental disturbances. His wife is a plucky creature. I wish that we could do something to help them. I shall be greatly obliged for your judgment in the matter.

Mr. Durant of the Lasky Corporation has agreed to look over anything that would seem to have promise; but if you are good enough to give your judgment on the matter, I should want to follow it as to where the material should be offered.

With real appreciation of your kindness, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

I wish we might see you again at The Pen and Brush.

Miss Scanlan Letter 3 Woolen 2/3 Mdl.
