Dear Miss Hanna:

Do forgive my delay in thanking you for securing for me the material that I wanted copied from the Venango Spectator. I have been swamped with work since I returned to New York. I am just getting out from under the accumulation. I hope Mrs. Beers does not think I am forgetting her dollar. It is enclosed and with it go my thanks for her kindness in doing the work.

I am quite sure you can be of use to Mr. Nevin in his work on Rockefeller.

Have you in your library "A Few Scraps (Oily and Otherwise)" by Alfred Wilson Smiley? It is an engaging selection of reminscences - candid and humorous. If you haven't it I think it would pay you to make a search for it. You ought to have all the early oil books in your library.

With renewed thanks for your kindness, believe me dear Miss Hanna

Gratefully yours

Miss Louise Hanna
