My Dear Mr. Hook:

I am wanting very much to have a talk with you on industrial relations as you see them now. Not for publication unless it is with your consent. I feel greatly the need of testing my own notions by those of the wise and experienced in industry.

Now I am to be in Ohio next week. I expect now to be in Dayton by Friday, the fifteenth. Would it be possible for me to see you if I ran over to Middletown Friday afternoon or Saturday morning?

Hoping for a favorable response, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Charles L. Hook
