My dear Eda Tarbell -

I phoned your house last week -
hoping to get you
over here for lunch
or dinner - but was told you were in town!
So I suppose that means you are at work. What a nuisance you are - I'm in the middle of your book and it's so

like you - honest
big and modest
and written with good craft and charm.
There have been so many mediocre like
written lately - yours
is a joy -

Do let me know when I can and may see you -

affectionately
Habee Cuthers
