Dear Miss Tarbell:

I was very glad to have had the pleasure of meeting you this week, and as stated I can arrange at any time to chat with you on the subject of transportation, subject to a temporary dentist demand.

The best way would be to simply telephone my office, and if I am not here my secretary, Miss McLaughlin, will be able to speak for me.

Meanwhile I take the liberty of sending you under separate cover a copy of some proceedings in which a number of my engineering and other associates were good enough to engage on my three-quarter century lap. It will perhaps tell you some of the things you wish to know, but I appreciate that personal contact may be a little more satisfactory.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th Street,
New York City.
