Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am enclosing a letter from Graeve about the Roosevelt article. I think the idea is a good one and I will see if I can't interest Bigelow.

Yours sincerely,

Paul R. Reynolds

Dear Mr. Reynolds,

Miss Tarbell's idea for the Roosevelt article is splendid but, alas, it comes too late for us. In our July issue is an article "Washington Looks at the Roosevelts" by Frances Parkinson Keyes which has much the same point of view and much the same material that Miss Tarbell outlines and in a later article by Mrs. Keyes - to appear in our September issue - is the party Mrs. Roosevelt gave Miss Perkins on the night of the Gridiron Dinner. Mrs. Keyes was one of those invited to this party.

But I have an idea brewing for Miss Tarbell.

Sincerely,

Oscar Graeve
