Dear Mr. Gumm:

I am enclosing a letter from Mr. Lidyard of Akron, Ohio who you may remember wanted to broadcast, "He Knew Lincoln" last year. I hope you can straighten the matter up and find out what Mr. Burrill wants to do - whether he wants to go ahead - whether anybody else wants to go ahead on a commercial basis. If not and the National Broadcasting Company wants to make it a feature on their program, why I suppose it might as well be permitted. What do you think about it? As I said before I am glad to have you handle it. You see you have a right to do so if you think you can work it advantageously.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. H. Harold Gumm
