

My dear Miss Tarbell,

Word has just come from Mary that the Southern survey is abandoned. It was a fine challenge to Mary and I know she would have had her heart in the work, but I am glad that she can stay on in Geneva to finish her present survey without interruption.

Very sincerely,

Alma T. Stoy.

May twelfth, 1929