Mr. Gilbert L. Ross
Lake Geneva, Wisc.

My dear Mr. Ross:

I have your letter of February 28, enclosing the picture of Mr. Lincoln which you call the Lost Photo of the campaign of 1860.

It would take more study, my dear Mr. Ross, of the photographs of my collection, than I have time for, to give you an opinion as this point. It certainly resembles closely one or two of which I have copies. As soon as I get around to it I will go over my collection and write you again.

Thanking you very much for letting me see the picture, believe me

Sincerely yours
