TRACK TEAM LOSES TO CARNEGIE TECH

Four College Records Broken—Final Score is 66 to 60.

The second annual track meet between Allegheny and Carnegie Tech was won by the latter school on last Saturday afternoon. The final score of 66 to 60 indicates the closeness of the meet, which was not decided until the last event was over. The fine weather conditions prevailing on last Saturday afternoon put the track on Montgomery Field in first class shape for all the running contests. A good sized crowd was out to root for the home team and the many exciting races often brought them to their feet with cheers.

The fact that four local college records were broken; one of which was a new shot put record in Western Pennsylvania Intercollegiate circles, ought to give evidence that Allegheny was opposing a speedy aggregation in the Carnegie Tech runners. Considering that the Gold and Blue was pitted against some of the best track talent in this part of the state and that the visitors already had the experience of several previous meets, everyone ought to feel proud of the showing of the local team. From a spectator's standpoint nothing more could be asked in the way of an exciting meet, for the score continually fluctuated throughout the afternoon. At one time Allegheny would be slightly in the lead while after another event was run off the Plaid would take the lead. This, of course, kept the crowd on edge throughout the afternoon. It was in the long distance runs that Allegheny showed up the weakest and it was in these events that Tech gained a lead. The Gold and Blue only made one point in these three events. Hazeltine, the star of the Pittsburgh aggregation, fully lived up to his reputation in the two mile and half mile runs. The speedy Tech runner took these events in good time.

Especially credit is due to several of the Allegheny men. Besides making a new college record in the shot put for Western Pennsylvania, Captain Dotterrer, '14, also took first place in the discus and second place in the hammer throw. The shot put record will, of course, hold as a local college record, giving Dotterrer the two outdoor records in the shot and discus, having bettered his previous record in the shot. Fahr, '15, fully lived up to his reputation as being one of the best all-round track men who has ever run for the Gold and Blue. By going over the high hurdles in 16 2-5 seconds Fahr established a new college record that will no doubt stand for some time to come. After handily winning the quarter mile run he ran the low hurdles in the exceptionally fast time of 28 1-5 second, thereby establishing another new college record. With a third place in the broad jump, he was the individual point winner of the meet. Wells, '14, broke the college pole vault record, although he did not win first place in this event. After dropping out at 11 feet in the regular trials, he cleared 11 feet in an attempt to break the local record which had heretofore been held by him.

The work of several other men is worthy of mention. Brownell, '15, and Drake, '17, met a stiff proposition in the Tech sprinter, who won both the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash in fast time. Brownell came in a good second with Drake a close third in both events. By winning the broad jump and taking second in the high jump McKay, '16, proved himself to be a valuable man to the team and will no doubt better college records in these events before this season is over. Long, '15, also showed up well, especially in the low hurdle race, where he gave Fahr a close run. M. Dotterrer, '15, won a second in the shot put with a heave of over 36 feet and much can be expected of this man in the future. Metcalf ran a hard quarter mile, but was beaten for a second place by only a few feet. Mc-

Kinney, '17, showed that for future years Allegheny has a promising half-miler. Tarr took a third in the pole vault.

The last event on the program, the broad jump, was more interesting than usual for the spectators, for if Allegheny could have taken all three places the meet would have been tied with a score of 63 to 63. As it was McKay, '16, took first and Fahr, '15, third. The work of the whole team was gratifying to Coach Hammett. The coach expected Tech to pile up a larger score and was well satisfied with the results considering the fast bunch of men the local runners were competing against. The Tech sprinter, Hemmann, was an exceptionally fast man, while Wright and King in the jumps proved to be experts in their events. Several other of the Tech men showed up well, this being especially true of their long distance runners.

The summary of the events is as follows:

100-yard dash—Hemmann T, first; Brownell A, second; Drake A, third; time 10 3-5 seconds.

220-yard dash—Hemmann T, first; Brownell A, second; Drake A, third; time 22 4-5 seconds.

MANY HIGH SCHOOLS ENTER BIG MEET

Over a Hundred High School Athletes Will Be Here.

The annual Interscholastic Track-meet, which is to be held this year on Montgomery Field on May 16, is already attracting widespread notice among the many secondary institutions in western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio, and southwestern New York. Coach Hammett has been very busy sending out the prospectus to the various schools. For this purpose the coach had a very neat folder made with cuts of various buildings of the college and Montgomery Field with the announcements of the events, together with the prizes and other rules necessary to such an occasion.

The events included in this meet are those which are usually held in any track meet of this kind. The day preceding preliminaries will be held in some of the events where the contestants number more than it is feasible.

PITT EASILY DEFEATS GOLD AND BLUE NINE

Errors Largely Responsible for Loss of First Game.

A number of errors coming at crucial times cost Allegheny her baseball game with the University of Pittsburgh last Saturday, the latter winning by the one-sided score of 10-0. It was expected that the Pittsburgh team would play a hard game with the chances of victory on their side, but a defeat of such proportions as that administered by them was not in the least anticipated. The lack of opportunity to get the proper fielding practice undoubtedly was the cause of the poor form that a majority of the Gold and Blue team showed.

While Allegheny made such a poor showing, Pitt on the other hand put up a game that was of excellent class. Their pitcher, Williamson, was a whirlwind on the slab while his work at the bat was of the exceptional variety, one of the two home runs charged against the visitors being his. His support in the field, too, was good although the Pitt men owe their victory primarily to their hitting which was of the first rate order. Brookmire was on the mound for Allegheny throughout the game and for his first game in college baseball did very creditable work notwithstanding the fact that two home runs were made from his delivery. In fielding Campman and Rose were probably the best men working for Allegheny while Captain Robinson also played a fast fielding game after the third inning. Of the three lone hits that the Gold and Blue were able to garner Richards is to be credited with two, one of which was a neat two-bagger. Thomas also coming in for a hit completed the sum of Allegheny's safe clouts of the ball.

In the first inning of the game Pitt made the game practically theirs by scoring five runs from two hits. The errors that made these scores possible proved to be not merely chance ones, for several others followed in the game making it impossible for any attempt for a rally to yield results.

The game started with Richard at bat for Allegheny. A pop fly to short retired him, and Robinson on a strike-out and Campman thrown out at first finished the inning. Pitt then came to bat and proceeded to score five runs while they batted around once.

The second inning was productive of nothing more for Allegheny, Thomas and Park being struck out and C. Gilbert caught at first. But Pitt was also unable to make anything in this period their men going out one, two, three.

The following innings showed little to break the monotony of the successive putouts for Allegheny except Richard's drive into left field for two bases in the sixth inning. Pitt, however, followed up their work of the first inning by hitting and scoring enough to run the final count up to ten. One of their runs came in the third, two in the fourth, one in the sixth, and one in the ninth.

The Gazette Times gives the summary of the plays that resulted in scoring as follows: "After Allegheny had gone out in the first frame, Pitt got away to a flying start by scoring five runs on a combination of hits and errors, Ammon's double figuring largely. With two men down in the third, Peck walked, stole, and scored on Ammon's hit. In the fourth with Schenck down, Williamson was hit by a pitched ball, and advanced on Colmery's hit. Both crossed the plate on Wilson's drive. Williamson's smash in the sixth and Dillon's in the eighth were both good for the circuit." The same paper also mentions Robinson's running stop of Peck's bid for a hit as one of the feature of the game.

Throughout the contest Pitt found it necessary to make three substitutions, Reel going in on the mound for Williamson in the sixth, Gaw at third for Colmery and Greenbaum for Dil-

ALUMNI ITEMS

News From Many of Allegheny's Successful Alumni.

Coincident with the Mexican war talk comes the publication of a war novel by one of Allegheny's most prominent figures in the literary world. A review says: "Frederick Palmer's ('97) 'The Last Shot' is the last word in war-novel making. Nothing in his pages recalls the hammer-and-tongs, heavy black smoke and division tactics of earlier generations. Even as methods of warfare have been transformed, so, also, the literary fabric of war romance metamorphosed."

In the Philadelphia Sunday Ledger of April 26 occurs an article which will interest all Alleghenians. A three column write-up of Wayne Whipple, '77, founder of The Campus and one of Allegheny's most prominent alumni, and his "peace flag," with two large cuts finds place in that newspaper. Most of the college will remember the impressive ceremonies that attended the unfurling of one of Mr. Whipple's "peace flags" before Bentley Hall last Commencement Day.

Mr. Whipple's flag differs from the ordinary flag only in the arrangement of the stars in the blue field. At present the space is completely filled by the forty-eight stars leaving no room for the possible addition of others with the admission of other states without reducing all considerably in size. Mr. Whipple got his idea while engaged in writing his "Story of the American Flag," by which with several other popular history books, he has gained a wide reputation. He saw the difficulty that could arise and set himself to design another field. The result was his "flag of peace." It is thoroughly logical in plan. In the center of the field are thirteen stars forming a large six-pointed star representing the original thirteen states. Around this large star is a circle of twenty-five stars representing those states which were admitted to the union during the first hundred years of the nation's history. Again around this circle at regular intervals are placed the remaining ten stars for the states that have been admitted since 1876.

This flag has been approved and adopted by numerous patriotic organizations and unofficially has received the approval of ex-President Taft and other authorities in the army and navy. No doubt very soon when the need of a new arrangement of the stars and the beauty of Mr. Whipple's design is realized more fully this will be adopted as the official flag of the nation.

A recent letter from the Rev. W. L. Stidger, ex-'11, tells some interesting news from Alleghenians on the Pacific Coast. Rev. Stidger is the pastor of the Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church of San Francisco, Cal. An extract from this letter would certainly be of interest to the members of the student body. It is as follows: "The San Francisco Examiner is running a contest for the six greatest women in the world. The lists are sent by anyone who pleases. They simply send a list of the six women. When the final list is selected the six women are to be invited as guests of the Examiner to attend the great Exposition which begins here next February. It has been very pleasing to Mrs. Stidger and myself as loyal Alleghenians to observe that Miss Ida M. Tarbell's name very frequently appears in these thousands of lists that are sent in, and it is very likely that in the end her name will be among the six greatest. Mrs. Pankhurst, Madame Currie, Helen Keller and Miss Tarbell's names I see most often in the lists as they appear from time to time." It might be added to this statement that Miss Tarbell is one of the most popular lecturers at the Leeland Stanford University.

The Seniors of Delta Tau Delta were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Lockwood for dinner last Saturday evening.

KLEET-O-KLEET WILL GIVE PLAY THIS WEEK

Japanese Comedy Will Be Given in Hulings Hall Gymnasium.

"The Revenge of Shari-Hot-Su," a beautiful Japanese play, is to be presented by the Klee-O-Kleet, the women's dramatic club, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. The adaptability of this oriental drama to interpretation by such a society and the good cast that has been selected to carry the few characters concerned in the plot will undoubtedly insure its being the best of the four plays that have been presented since the beginning of Klee-O-Kleet in the fall of 1910. The production of this play has been in preparation since before the Easter vacation. This has given the cast ample time to work up their parts under the direction of Miss Colter of Meadville who has heretofore made such successes of the dramatic efforts on the part of the women of the college.

As was explained last week the play to be presented this spring is a Japanese play full of romantic situations in oriental settings. The plot revolves about the love affairs of two American young people and of two native Japanese young people. Complications between the two affairs occur, but eventually, of course, are solved leaving the proper couples united. Besides the misunderstanding of their ladies' favors by the two men characters, the command of the mother of the heroine, "Cherry Blossom," that she marry an old man, "Shari-Hot-Su," is one of these complications. The "Revenge of Shari-Hot-Su" is forgiveness for "Cherry Blossom."

The cast as selected to carry the parts is no doubt the very best owing to the few number of parts to choose from, and is good reason for pleasant anticipation on the part of those who expect to see the play.

The scenery will necessarily have to be rather simple on account of the fact that it must be accommodated to the Hulings Hall Gymnasium but at that there is room for excellent effects as has been demonstrated in past productions. The costumes will be rented and will undoubtedly be elaborate and striking in the oriental style.

Tickets for the play are on sale today in the treasurer's office and should be procured early.

The cast is as follows:

Shari-Hot-Su—Helen Adams, '16.

Kioto, in love with Cherry Blossom—Marian Whipple, '16.

Harold Armstrong, in love with Nina—Arlene McKinney, '15.

Mrs. Beaconstreet, Nina's mother, Marion Carroll, '14.

Nina—Alice Hawkey, '16.

Moig-uf-fa (Cherry Blossom)—Ruth Lavelly, '15.

Toyama, Cherry Blossom's mother, Daphne Harper, '17.

The active chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta entertained the Freshman members of Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Alpha Chi Omega in their fraternity rooms, Saturday evening.

In the many discussions that have grown out of the proposed honor system various interesting arguments have been presented. But in the final analysis the real question seems to be that of personal responsibility. It seems difficult for many people to realize that their bodies and their minds are not their own to help or harm as they please. Many others are, as well, unable to see that the dishonor of one man is the dishonor of the whole college. But is it possible that one diseased man in a community may not be the cause of disaster to the whole community? Or, is it unlikely that the rotten place in the apple will not spread until the fruit is of no value? It is the supreme selfishness for a man to live to himself alone and to forget that his influence is reflected in other lives. It is true that responsibility often brings perplexing problems and unexpected difficulties, but these are outweighed by the pride in noting progress and a certain feeling of self-respect.

With the next issue of The Campus competition for the year will close. The remaining issues of this year will count for competition for the succeeding year. As there are still six numbers of The Campus for the months of May and June it is quite evident that the work done this spring will largely determine the results to be announced in May, 1915. There will be several vacancies on the board which will give an excellent opportunity for the newer competitors from the two under classes. If you desire to enter this field of college activity, you should see the editor at once.

ELECTORAL BOARDS.

The electoral boards which are to elect the managers of The Campus and the Literary Monthly were chosen from the usual five groups of three each on last Saturday morning by the persons who had paid up their subscriptions for these publications. The electoral board for The Campus manager this year will be composed of C. S. Burwell, '14, Isadore Cohen, '14, Douglas Dunbar, '15, G. D. Rose, '14, and Miss Mary Sansom, '14.

J. B. Hutchinson, '15, H. J. Hartman, '15, H. L. Askey, '15, Miss Alice Chapin, '14, and Miss Miriam Shryock, '14, were chosen to decide upon the manager of the Literary Monthly. Both of these boards will meet some time this week and select the managers of the two publications.

The voting at this election was quite spirited. The successful candidates were chosen from the following groups.

For The Campus:

Group I—C. S. Burwell, '14, P. H. Nicholls, '14, John Taylor, '14.
Group II—G. A. Shaner, '15, I. Cohen, '14, H. S. Taylor, '15.
Group III—R. E. Hoffman, '16, Miss Mullian, '15, Douglas Dunbar, '15.

Group IV—Miss Bardall, '14, Miss Gertrude Reed, '14, G. D. Rose, '14.
Group V—Miss Browning, '14, Miss Sansom, '14, Miss Helen Thomas, '14.

For the Literary Monthly:

TENNIS SCHEDULE

Manager Has Signed Contracts With Four Schools.

Interest in tennis has been growing more and more intense during the last week as the fine weather has permitted several more matches to be played off. The tennis this year is of an unusually fast variety. Three of last year's men, H. F. Brownell, Cox, and W. A. Brownell—are in school and all are working hard to retain their positions this year also. Some strong contenders for their places as well as for fourth place on the team, made vacant by the graduation of Mates last year, have appeared in Ricker, Burwell, and Bright. All of these men are good and will give the men of last year's team a hard fight.

At present Cox is number one in Class A and bids fair to vanquish all other contestants for that place. The next four men are Bright, W. A. Brownell, Arnold, and H. F. Brownell, with Ricker and Burwell close behind. There is sure to be a great deal of interesting tennis played before it is decided finally who shall represent the college in singles this year.

With Friday night the entries in doubles were closed. Many good teams entered, and last year's doubles champions, the Brownell brothers, are destined to have a hard fight to repeat this year. Some unusually strong contestants for that honor are entered in Ricker and Burwell, Cox and Arnold, Bright and Dunbar, and others.

For several reasons there is especial interest in tennis manifested this year. Tennis has always been a popular sport at Allegheny, as may be estimated from the fact that last year nearly fifty men entered the tournament in competition and also from the fact that approximately three hundred matches were played in the course of the spring before the tournament was officially closed. This year an even larger number of men are entered—56—the largest in the history of that sport in Allegheny.

An added incentive to making the team this year is furnished in the unusually fine schedule which the manager, H. F. Brownell, has been able to arrange. For some time past he has been corresponding with the nearby schools and as a result is now able to give the tennis team the finest schedule that has been offered them in years. One trip will be taken this year and on it two dual meets will be played, one with Ohio Wesleyan and the other with Dennison. This is probably the most pretentious trip that Allegheny's tennis team has taken for considerable time. Two other dual meets will be played, both of which are at home. One will be played against Grove City and the other against Wooster.

It will be noticed that the first trip will be on May 11—but one week off. The shortness of the time in which to settle the team will make it necessary that every man do his utmost in helping the tournament to a quick conclusion. Every man can assist in doing this by arranging and playing his match as soon as possible as well as by posting immediately the results of that match. It is imperative that every man do this and if he will act as promptly as possible, he will aid greatly. The schedule will be found below:

May 11—Ohio Wesleyan, at Ohio Wesleyan.
May 12—Dennison, at Dennison.
May 26—Grove City, at Allegheny.
June 2—Wooster, at Allegheny.

The Misses Caryl Reynolds, '15, Rachel Smith, '14, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller were dinner guests at the Phi Kappa Psi House on Sunday.

MONTESSORI SYSTEM.

Since the committee that has had under consideration the proposed honor system for examinations was not ready to make a report to the student body on last Assembly morning President Crawford was asked to continue the series of talks which he started some time ago descriptive of his recent trip to Italy. In response to the invitation he gave an account of the Montessori system of education for children of which he made an extensive study while abroad and which is receiving so much attention of late throughout the world.

The interest aroused in the Montessori system is evidenced by the fact that the American Ambassador at Rome has received more requests for presentation to Madame Montessori than to the king or the pope. Dr. Crawford mentioned the interest the Italians themselves are taking in it telling of the courtesies extended him by three titled Italian ladies in order that he might make the most careful study of Madame Montessori's schools. In this study Dr. Crawford visited a number of the Casa di Bambini and watched the children there at play and school. The principle of the whole system is the idea of making the child interested in learning and beyond that allowing him to do as he pleases. The description of the carrying on of the school as he saw it, the occupations and behavior of the children, was intensely interesting.

NEW HEATING SYSTEM.

On last Monday the executive committee of the Board of Trustees, with President Frank A. Arter, '64, presiding, let the contract for the new heating plant of the college. The new plant will be one of the most modern of its kind in the country, leading many of the larger institutions of learning, and also being better equipped than those plants at colleges the size of Allegheny.

The contract for the new plant was let to the firm of Canon and Kinney, of Erie, at the sum of $10,754. The work must be commenced by May 15, and the plant must be finished by August 15. This will allow three full months for the successful bidders to finish their work. There were a number of firms who bid on this contract, the bids ranging from $10,754 to something over $20,000.

The new heating plant will include complete steam carrying lines from the boiler house to every one of the college group of buildings, with return lines. The lines will be covered with what is known as the Ricwek conduit system, a non-heat conductor, pronounced the very best on the market. The new system will mean the transforming of all the radiators in order to accommodate the new vacuum system, and includes the installing of new valves and much other material.

The new system has been something that has been looked forward to for many years and has been especially needed since the growth of college buildings during the past five years. With this new heating system installed, Allegheny will be well up-to-date in this form of equipment.

ROCHESTER NEXT.

On next Saturday afternoon the University of Rochester's baseball team will be present on Montgomery Field to try conclusions with the Allegheny nine. Since this is the first appearance of the local team on the home grounds it is expected that a large crowd will turn out to see the contest. This is also the first appearance that a Rochester baseball team has ever made in Meadville, although the Gold and Blue has competed in other branches of athletics with this college. From the reports given out by the Rochester papers, this nine is unusually fast and has already taken over some of the best college teams in New York state.

After the good showing made by the Allegheny nine against the University of Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh on last Saturday, there are prospects of the team winning this coming game. The three pitchers, Brookmire, '17, Robinson, '15, and E. A. Gilbert, '15, are in good shape to do the twirling in this game. It is hard to predict which one of these men will do the pitching but it is safe to say that this important part of the game will be well taken care of. Coach Phillipi will probably make a few changes in the lineup during this coming week.

At a recent meeting of the Round Table Club in this city, Dr. E. A. Smith, head of the department of History, was elected secretary and treasurer of that organization to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Professor W. T. Dutton.

The practice of the various fraternity baseball teams has been progressing nicely during the past week. Several games are scheduled for this ensuing week which promise to be interesting. The entire six fraternities will have teams entered with a possibility of Cochran Hall also competing with a nine. The games will be played on Montgomery Field after the 'varsity is through practicing or when the first team is playing away from the home grounds.

President H. J. Hartman, '15, of the local Y. M. C. A., was present at the annual meeting of the college Y. M. C. A. presidents of this state, which was held this year at Bucknell University, Lewisburg. The sessions commenced last Thursday and lasted three days. Many inspirational talks by noted religious leaders were a part of the program, and the visiting delegates were accorded the most delightful entertainment by the student body and faculty of Bucknell University.

The Intercollegiate Civic Oratorical League contest, which was scheduled to be held in Ford Memorial Chapel on Friday evening, has been postponed by the authorities until May 22. The inability of Wooster University to send a representative on the early date was the cause of the postponement. Secretary W. J. Armstrong, '16, of the local oratorical association, has been in communication with the authorities of the other institutions and it is thought that May 22 will be suitable to everyone concerned.

The voting on the honor system was postponed until the assembly morning on next Friday. It had previously been decided upon to have this new system at Allegheny come up for a vote by the student body on last Friday, but many things intervened which would not allow this. During the past week several of the classes have had meetings, at which time the honor system was discussed pro and con. It is expected that on next Friday a full attendance of the student body will be present at this important occasion.

The work on the Kaldron is nearing completion, although many things remain to be done, including the taking of several class pictures. The editor is still making appeals for literary productions of any kind that exemplify Allegheny life as it really is, or ought to be, or has been. Some special pictures of student life promise to be features of this publication. Manager Brooks, '15, is working hard with advertisements, while Editor Nichols, '14, has the usual troubles of a Kaldron editor—that is in the securing of contributions from the student body. It is expected that the year book will come out on Moving-up Day or a week later.

Hulings Hall

Miss Mary Barkley, '15, Editor. Mrs. H. E. Gates of Oil City is spending a few days with her daughter, Miss Helen Gates, '16.

The Sunday Y. W. C. A. meeting was held in the association rooms, Miss Mary Bardall, '14, being the leader. Her subject, "The College Woman as a Leader," was very interestingly presented.

On Wednesday evening an Eaglesmere Rally was held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Very interesting talks were given by the Misses Mary Bardall, '14, Ruth Browning, '14, Rose Platt, '15, and Dorothea Abrams, '15.

The athletic election held on last Tuesday resulted as follows: President, Harriette Bassett, '15; vice-president, Jeanette Robinson, '15; secretary, Mary Flahavan, '17; treasurer, Hazel Ross, '16; assistant basketball manager, Martha Nebinger, '17; assistant tennis manager, Leona Rial, '16.

The Young Women's Christian Association was especially favored this last week in having a visit from Miss Kelsey, a traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer movement. Miss Kelsey graduated from Vassar in 1913 and is a student volunteer. Both her talk in chapel and in the Y. W. meeting Wednesday evening were very earnest and helpful. Miss Kelsey met the Y. W. C. A. cabinet and also the missionary committee and gave many helpful suggestions for the work for the coming year.

CONVENTION REPORT.

The regular monthly meeting of the Modern Problems Club was held on last Tuesday evening in the Library. At this time W. Scott Lane, '14, the club's delegate to the annual convention of the Intercollegiate Civic League, gave a report of the proceedings of the meetings. The meetings this year were held in New York City and Washington, D. C., during the spring vacation. Besides Allegheny's regular representative, LeRoy Peterson, '13, C. A. Eckles, '13, and H. J. Weiler, '13, were also alumni representatives of this college chapter of the league. Over fifty colleges and universities were represented at this gathering.

Mr. Lane's report was a comprehensive and an interesting one. The report included resumes of the speeches of some of the leading statesmen and political economists of the age, which were delivered before the members of this organization. The work which the various chapters are doing in the way of uplifting the municipal government in the cities in which the colleges are situated and also their social service work were features of this report. In many of the universities the Civic League works with the Associated Charities as the Allegheny chapter does. Social survey and other institutions which are a great help to the community are being accomplished by other chapters. In some colleges the chapters of the league have taken it upon themselves to improve conditions right in their own college. The work which is being done by these various college clubs was extensive in its scope and many helpful suggestions were received by the local organization.

CHAPEL TALKS.

Last week Wednesday, Miss Kelsey, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, was a visitor in the college and at the chapel service gave a talk before the students. Miss Kelsey is a graduate of Vassar College in the class of last spring and is herself a student volunteer. Her short talk at the chapel hour was one of the utmost sincerity. She said that just as in an oratorio, a symphony or an opera there must be a central theme by which all is brought into harmony, so in Christ's life the theme was to do the will of God and in our lives the central theme should be the carrying out of the will of God. She pointed out the great needs of China, Japan and India. Not most useful are the religious workers, for medical missionaries, physical directors and teachers have perhaps a greater immediate opportunity for service. But for all the opportunity is given to serve in a work that will abundantly repay.

The School of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh offers two courses of instruction—one the regular four-year all medical course leading to the degree of M. D., for which the entrance requirements are two years of recognized college work, including courses in Chemistry (Inorganic and Organic), Physics, Biology, and German or French, in addition to the four-year high school course; the other the six-year combined medical and college course leading to the degrees of B. S. and M. D., for which the entrance requirements are the four-year high school course or its equivalent.

The School now occupies a thoroughly-equipped laboratory building on the University campus. The Medical School is in affiliation with two general and five special hospitals representing a combined bed capacity of over fourteen hundred beds. Clinical work is given to small sections of the class in these affiliated hospitals. The required work including residence in a Maternity Hospital with board and room furnished.

MANY HIGH SCHOOLS TO ENTER BIG MEET

ible to let compete on the day of the meet. The events include a 100-yard dash, a 220-yard dash, a 440-yard dash, half-mile run, relay race, mile run, two hurdle races, a 50-yard dash, broad jump, high jump, pole vault, shot put, discus throw, and hammer throw. Suitable medals are being offered to the three athletes who take a first, second, or third place, while ribbons will be awarded to those contestants who take a fourth place. The high school winning the meet will be awarded a large silk banner.

It will be remembered that at the meet last year, which was the first of its kind ever held at Allegheny, the enthusiasm among the secondary institutions was quite rife and many of the schools sent large delegations to root for their respective teams. Over one thousand spectators were present to watch the events and the college thereby was given a great deal of advertisement. The various high school contestants were entertained at the fraternity houses and at Cochran Hall. Erie High School sent down a delegation of over two hundred students, while the entire enrollment of Meadville High was present. Several bands led the delegations into Montgomery Field. It was only after an exciting afternoon that Meadville High won first honors with Erie a close second. Fast time was made in all the events and several new interscholastic records for this part of the state were lowered.

This year Meadville, Erie, Kane, Jamestown, N. Y., Franklin, Oil City, Ashtabula, Conneaut, Sharon, Greenville, Corry, Titusville, and many of the other schools will have teams entered. Over one hundred and fifty athletes will compete in the events of this year. Of the hundred or more schools written to it is probable that in the neighborhood of fifty will send contestants, although not an entire team. In case the entire track team is not sent, only the best athletes will be entered to compete. Erie High and Meadville High both have strong teams again, while Jamestown, Kane, Sharon, and several others have been making good records for so early in the season.

Members of the 'varsity team will assist as officials as there is no meet scheduled for them on this day.

PRESIDENT ARTER SPEAKS.

President Frank A. Arter, '64, of the Board of Trustees, was present in the Chapel services on last Tuesday morning and after the regular service and ritual spoke to the student body. In introducing this noted alumnus and official of Allegheny College President Crawford said that Mr. Arter had only consented to speak after he had heard the regular Chapel service.

In his usual pleasing manner the president of the Board of Trustees complimented the students on the way in which the Chapel exercises are conducted and the reverence which is shown at these religious services. President Arter went on to give some of his observations of life after being fifty years out of Allegheny College. His talk was of such a nature that those who heard it cannot forget it soon. By way of introduction he recalled the small college which was then in existence when he entered, the two buildings, the small student body and the small faculty. The students are reaping the good of the growth of the past thirty years, he said.

Further on in his speech he gave plenty of good advice to those who are just about to leave the college and told them that in the first year after their college course they will have the hardest job of their entire life. He spoke also of the fellow who thinks he can and then does something in comparison with the person who thinks he cannot and then never does anything. President Arter read several little verse selections expressing this point very clearly. Think big and your deeds will grow. That was a point emphasized again and again by the speaker.

Students are diamonds in the rough and it is your opportunity to get the polish while here. This faculty will put on this polish if you properly submit yourself to the process. By all means have confidence in yourselves, for if you do not have it in yourself, no one else will. Strive to do big things and some day you will do those things. Let the hardest kind of work accompany all your ambitions. A great many of the points were well illustrated by timely stories.

GERMAN CLUB ENTERTAINED.

The German Club was delightfully entertained at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Mulfinger, on Loomis street, last Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in an informal way, the members of the club singing several German songs, while Miss Anna Rosalie Bork rendered an exceptionally pleasing program of noted German songs, accompanied by Professor Dewey at the piano. Miss Bork was accorded such hearty applause by those present that she was forced to give a number of encores. The selections included "Im Herbst," by Franz; "Ich Grolle Mich," by Shuman; "Folk's Leidchen," by Shuman; "Rhein Leid," by Peters and "Oh Schone Selt, Oh Selige Seit," by Gotze.
