

Wm. L. Garrison
report of news 2/10

Editor of C. News: Very I must have expressed myself awkwardly in my talk on L. before the City Club. I have led your reporter to think that I said ^{immediately} ~~at any moment~~ ^{me} to say that A. L. was ready to
"to relinquish his ideal as a way to peace." One of the loudest complaints against him was that he would consent to no peace which sacrificed the his ideal time ideal being 2 - the preservation of the Union & no further extension of slavery.
Again ~~the~~ ^{you & you} ~~spoke~~ ^{say} ~~you~~ ^{that} repeller. Make me say that I am in full accord with to the Grace & answering his

Prayer of 20 Million that if he could stop the war by asking all the slave chm L. said a very different thing.

My paramount goal - in this war is to save the Union & not allow it to be a bloody slavery if I could save it.

The one thing A. L. refused to do consistently to the end was to permit a peace. Much sacrificed the Union - I after-the Emancipation Proclamation. The Union would remain as a slave free by that document to be returned to slavery.

Immediately I did not say that - this letter to H.C. may be of the present - of H. Love - I do consider it - broken - a ~~very~~ ^{rather} pretty document & perhaps said so.
