BIG PROGRAM PLANNED FOR WOMEN'S MEET

All-College Dance and Panel Discussion Planned; 14 Colleges take part.

"Plans for the A.W.S. convention next week are proceeding smoothly," President Marjorie Wible, '41, announced today. To date, 14 colleges have accepted, and 26 representatives are expected.

The All-College Dance, to be held next Saturday from 9 to 12 p. m. in Cochran hall will be semi-formal. This affair will be preceded by a formal banquet for the delegates. The members of the Dance Committee have been named. They are: Helen McClester, '43, Juanita Strock, '43, Caryl Harris, '42, and Helen Roeder, '41. The chairman, Patricia Van Ostrand, '41, announced that the dance will be held in Cochran. Frankie Fornear's orchestra will play. Since this is the women students' program, the girls will invite dates for the dance. The committee urges cooperation from the fraternity men in getting dates for the visitors.

The following colleges will send representatives to the conference: Beaver College, Jenkintown, Pa.; Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Dennison College, Granville, Ohio; Flora Stone Mather College, Cleveland, Ohio; Hood College, Frederick, Md.; N.Y.U., Washington Square College, New York City; N.Y.U., School of Commerce, N.Y.C.; Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio; Russell Sage College, Troy, N. Y.; University of Maryland, College Park, Md.; University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt.; Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio; Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa.; Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio; and Pennsylvania College for Women.

A discussion of the importance of student government as a training for civic life, the subjects of four panel discussion have been chosen. They are: 1. Student guidance in orientating students to college life; 2. How to develop pride and participation on Student Government; 3. Relationship of town girls to campus life; 4. How to interest the timid and reserved girl in Student Government.

OUTERS TO VISIT ALLEGHENY PARK

Allegheny state park, New York, is to be the destination of the fall trip of the Outing club, November 9 and 10.

Outers will leave at 1 p. m. on Saturday and return late Sunday evening. The cost of the trip, according to Treasurer Lewis Wible, '42, has been set at $1.25 per person. This trip is open to Outing club members only.

All members who have access to cars, are asked to see George Richardson, '42, in charge of transportation.

Grove City Tangle Solved

In an attempt to heal strained relations between Grove City college and Allegheny, President Howard Gibbs of the A. U. C. and Block A Representative William Faloan visited President Weir Ketler of Grove City Tuesday afternoon.

Grove City college had threatened to cancel Saturday's game here as a result of the midnight visit Sunday of nine Allegheny students to the neighboring college's campus. Considerable painting was done both inside and outside of the buildings.

Following is the statement by the A. U. C.: "Representatives of student government at Allegheny visited the president of Grove City college Tuesday afternoon in order to convey the feelings of the college with regard to the juvenile antics of nine students. Not only was an apology extended to President Ketler, but an offer was made to pay for the damage done, and an assurance made that such actions would not happen in the future.

Dr. Ketler received our representatives and expressed his sincere desire that Allegheny and Grove City might continue their relationship on as cordial a basis as they had been in the past. He emphasized that Grove City had been to blame in past instances as well as Allegheny, and that the present trouble should put an end to all such actions in the future. He recognized the fact that the nine students were in no way representatives of the Allegheny student body.

The Allegheny Undergraduate Council feels that the students responsible should send a formal apology to Grove City College; it further feels that in the future, students who deface college property should be dealt with severely. This also applies to our own property."

BASSERMAN PLANS VIOLIN RECITAL HERE

Concertmaster of Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra will entertain with program.

Hans Basserman, concertmaster of the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra, has accepted an invitation to give an hour violin recital in Chapel, Tuesday, October 22.

The tentative program will consist of works by Bach, Mozart, de Falla, and Suk.

Dr. Wendell Otey will accompany Mr. Basserman on the piano. In order to make possible his 60 minute program, morning classes that day will be cut shorter, and Chapel will begin at 11:20.

Before attaining his present position, Mr. Basserman had a varied and interesting career as a young violinist. At the age of 22, he became Concertmaster of the Berlin Philharmonic orchestra, which is considered an extraordinary feat. He played solos throughout Europe, and as a reward for his intensive development, he was offered the position of Concertmaster in Leipzig, and Geneva, Switzerland. Mr. Basserman has held professorships at five conservatories in Germany, and in addition, has personally instructed over one thousand private pupils.

In 1933, Mr. Basserman came to America and resumed his musical career, until 1938, when he reached his present position in the Pittsburgh orchestra.

STUDENT GRILL OPEN TONIGHT

The Student Grill, located in the basement of Cochran hall, will open officially this evening at 7:00, in time for the ceremonies of Homecoming day.

Mr. Willard O'Hara will manage the grill and will continue also to supervise the management of the Moore-Davison Dairy company.

The best of modern equipment has been used in furnishing the gathering place. In addition to a soda fountain, tables will line the walls, and green, overstuffed leather benches will add to the decorative scheme. Men and women will serve as waiters, the men wearing buff-colored jackets, the women, green smocks. A dance floor and victrola machine will make dancing possible.

The Student Grill will be open from 8:00 a. m. until 11:45 p. m. every day. For the time being, students can get fountain service and light lunches. Later, full-course meals will be served.

Delivery service to the various dormitories and resident halls is scheduled to begin at some future date.

C. M. A. PRESENTS COSSACK CHORUS

Tuesday evening, October 22, the first of a series of 6 concerts sponsored by the Civic Music Association of Meadville will be presented. Student activities tickets will admit Allegheny students.

The first program will consist of the famous Don Cossack Chorus for singers and dancers. This chorus is widely known for its colorful costumes and its beautiful group singing.

The Allegheny Undergraduate Council has appropriated $750 for these concerts which will be presented during the season of 1940-41.

On November 22, Jarmilla Movotna, a Czech soprano, will be featured. Programs for December 5, February 6, and March 13, will consist of the Meadville Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Mr. Maurice Lord. The last program of the year, on March 27, will feature the duo piano team of Luposchutz and Nemhoff.

Mr. Luvaa, head of the Allegheny music department, urged that all students interested in music should avail themselves of this fine opportunity.

CROWD EXPECTED FOR HOMECOMING

ALL-COLLEGE DANCE IN GYMNASIUM, 'WHAT A LIFE,' THREE-ACT COMEDY, PLANNED FOR ALUMNI; NEW GRILL READY FOR CROWD

Allegheny college will play host to its Alumni with a diversified program, featured by a football game Saturday with its old rival, Grove City.

The program, which begins with a soccer game Thursday afternoon at 2:30 and ends with Homecoming services at the Stone Methodist Church Sunday morning at 10:45, will consist of many activities which will be of interest to Allegheny students as well as the visiting alumni.

Homecoming Speaker

Carl Sandburg

* Plans for Allegheny's big three-day homecoming celebration were completed at a meeting of the A.U.C., the freshman and sophomore class officers, and the cheerleaders Tuesday night," it was announced by A.U.C. head, Howard Gibbs, '41.

It has been urged that all students should sit at the far end of the stands at the homecoming game, so that the Alumni may sit together. Freshman, contrary to the custom of previous years, have been asked not to wear their pajamas at the game, because they will not have their previously scheduled fight with the sophomores between halves. The band, under the direction of Frank Fornear, '41, will perform instead.

Copies of the "Allegheny Athletic News," "The Gay Gator," and a variety of refreshments will be sold by the Cwens. In addition, mums with blue and gold ribbons will be on sale. The committee, headed by William Faloan, '41, with Ruth Godley, '42, and James Schultz, '41, assisting, which is in charge of student participation in the activities is endeavoring to stimulate interest in other events on the program.

Two important events on the program will occur Friday night and Saturday morning.

Carl Sandburg, one of America's most famous poets and author of what has been hailed as the greatest biography of Abraham Lincoln, will be speaker in Ford Memorial chapel Friday night at 7:30, and following the program there will be an informal reception at the Lincoln Room in which all students will have an opportunity to meet Mr. Sandburg.

All nine o'clock classes will stop at 9:25 Saturday morning so that all students may have the opportunity of attending the cornerstone-laying ceremony for the new women's dormitory. Ten o'clock classes will be held, because the proceedings are not expected to last more than twenty minutes.

INDEPENDENTS PLAN ACTIVITY

Independents will meet at their annual dinner, Saturday night, in Cochran hall.

Toastmistress for the evening will be Miss Helen Bowman. Mr. Philip Benjamin is scheduled to speak. Tickets may be secured for seventy-five cents. Those eating regularly in the college dining hall may have tickets for twenty-five cents.

Plans were discussed last Monday concerning a mixed swimming party to be held Tuesday, October 22, at 8 p. m. All independent women are invited to attend.

The next meeting of the independent men is slated for Monday, October 28, at 7:15 p. m., in Cochran lounge. Refreshments will be served.

COLORFUL PROGRAM PLANNED AT CORNERSTONE CEREMONY

Current College Publications, names of all women to be included in box which will go into Cornerstone of new dormitory; Program set for Saturday morning.

Laying of the cornerstone for the new college program issued last year. Anna Cloyde Brooks hall, the addition to the women's dormitory which is being constructed adjacent to the west side of the present structure, will take place Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been planned for that time.

It has been decided that the cornerstone will contain bits of Allegheniana of interest to future generations. These curios will be designed to give interested historians of the future an insight into the life of college women in 1940.

Already assembled for insertion in the box that will be placed in the cornerstone are representative publications and the names of all the women now attending the college.

A copy of the current college catalogue is slated for inclusion together with the latest student handbook, the most recent issue of the Alleghenian, a copy of Campus Notes, supplement to the Alleghenian, and the brochure Not Built for a Day, a prospectus of the college program issued last year. Together with these administration publications will be included sample numbers of the Campus and the Literary Magazine.. Colonel Charles A. Brooks, from whose wife the building takes its name, has donated a suitably inscribed Bible which will also be inserted.

The signatures of the women were collected on a scroll which will be presented to Colonel Brooks together with the other objects for insertion in the box. The constitution of the A.W.S. is also slated to be included, together with a woman's dink and a statement for posterity.

Classes will be dismissed at 9:25 a. m. in time for the program at which the names will be presented to Colonel Brooks who will place them in the cornerstone.

Dean Laila Skinner will make the presentation. Appropriate music will be provided by the band, under the direction of Frank Fornear, '41.

Most Alleghenians accept the fact that rushing rules are in dire need of revamping.

That the M.U.C. is vitally concerned, was evidence at this week's meeting when the three-quarters vote was adopted for approval of measures. This replaces the previous requirement of unanimous approval—practically an impossibility.

We think the M. U. C. went a bit off the deep end in voting so soon on a proposal which is published as a news item on another page of this issue.

It would have been far better had the M.U.C. given several weeks of real study to the problem and to this proposal. As it was, the measure was defeated for three reasons: first, because one fraternity had a rather valid objection to extending the rushing period; secondly, because several members in favor of the plan were absent from the meeting; thirdly, because one fraternity said it was perfectly satisfied with the present set up.

"The Campus" proposes, therefore, a three way public debate, sponsored by the Philo-Franklin Union. Proponents of the present set up would debate advocates of the plan defeated this week. The third plan is presented by the Campus after much consideration and informal polling of student opinion.

We advocate deferred pledging which must not be confused with deferred rushing. We don't believe we can defer rushing, but we can defer pledging.

Our proposal . . .

. . . Pledging would be prohibited until the first week after Thanksgiving vacation.

. . . Rushing activity would be arranged so that no freshman could spend all his time at any one house during the period preceding pledge week. Fraternities naturally would be allowed to invite freshmen to their house for meals, smokers, and dances, but it is obvious that such affairs would not take place with the intensity of rush week.

We advocated this plan for these reasons:

1. We believe firmly that it is unfair to freshmen to bring them here, put them through a week of hectic rushing before they even know their fellow classmates and pledge them to a fraternity, suitable or unsuitable, which they should remain loyal to for four years. Many times their friends made later on through the years, are members of rival fraternities. What happens to those friendships in succeeding years is obvious.

2. We believe firmly that it is unfair to fraternities to have pledging before the houses are really acquainted with the freshman class. A high scholastic average and a National Honor society pin is no indication of an outstanding college career—high school standards vary too much with the town in which the institution is located. Many a fraternity is chagrined when class honors, extra-curricular activity honors, and honorary society keys are given to students who, in their freshman year, were not considered "outstanding enough" for dear old Eata-Bitea-Pi.

Grove City and Allegheny are now at peace, the threatened severing of athletic relations has been satisfactorily averted.

We are quite sure the nine students who defaced the neighboring college's buildings are convinced that their actions were entirely out of keeping with the type of college Allegheny is. Had Saturday's game been cancelled, Allegheny would have been in a most embarrassing position.

Aside from the general childishness of the action, and the unlawfulness of entering private buildings, there must be taken into consideration the possibility of any actual injuries to students, either ours or Grove City's.

It's time for Allegheny students to rise above infantile practices, both on other campuses and on our own. In spite of the chapel address of Dean Schultz this week, the class of '44 splashed tar all over the campus last Tuesday night. We recognize the fact now that it's childish to "decorate" other colleges, why mar the looks of our own?

TABLE TALK

by DAVE KINZER

Dave Kinzer:

In regard to your latest drive in The Campus, we Freshmen feel that you have overstepped the boundary between sarcastic humour and downright slander. We also feel that your description of the boys is more fitting if applied to the anemic class of '43. Being of a generous frame of mind we hereby serve notice that if there is not a retraction in the next issue of the paper, we will be forced to give vent to our feelings and deal out the kind of punishment we think you deserve.

With all due respects to the fine chapter of Phi Gamma Delta of whom you are a degrading member, we remain,

The Freshman Class of "44"
"Benjie's Boys."

Men? of '44,

I refuse to retract. I lost both my sleep and my appetite, but it is still journalistically unethical.

I am ready for you. My body guard "Dead Head Dick" Meikle is at my side night and day. He has a lead pipe in his pocket, but I am sure the "Dead Head" won't have to use it. If you don't happen to know my body-guard, he will be all the more frightening to you—especially at night.

After you have made hash out of me, you conquering heroes still have a job on your hands—the mighty men of '42. And if by slim chance they happen to read this letter, all of you better not bother to wear pants, because they just won't stay on.

D. M. K.

Seriously, though, you of the class of '44 should take advantage of your first year in college, because it will probably be your best as far as the rah-rah college stuff and the good times are concerned. And this is the year in which the reputation of your class is established.

Many people will hold the same opinion of you when you are seniors as when you are freshmen.

It's silly but it's still fun to have a little class spirit, because after your freshman year there really isn't any class to have spirit about. After leaving Cafilisch. You students will burrow into your respective fraternities and spend three years in prejudicing yourselves against the guys you liked in your freshman year. Fraternity spirit will take the place of class spirit.

And another thing—a large percentage of you won't be around for the finish of this academic race (and it is a race), so you might as well be undivided before your fall.

Although the present senior class of which I made a little study is an exaggerated case, it still illustrates my point.

Class of '41

Original members—206
Men—123
Women—83
Present size of class—126
Original members remaining—93
Survival value—45 per cent
Didn't return—113
Men—77
Women—36
Working—55—49 percent
Transferred—34—30 percent
Married—11—10 percent
Unaccounted for—13—11 percent

So take a look at that little table, and try to guess where you will be and what you will be doing four years from now. You should do your best to at least see that you will not be "unaccounted for."

POTPOURRI . . .

Tryouts for freshman debate will be held Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 in Room 15, Arter hall. Further particulars may be had in the speech office.

The library will not be open for study Friday evening, October 18th, because of the dedication exercises for the Lincoln room. Reserve books for overnight use may go out at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Students interested in joining the club supporting Norman Thomas for president are requested to call 1064 and to ask for the Thomas Club chairman.

M. U. C. VOTES NEW TEETH TO CONSTITUTION

Motions now adopted by a three-quarter vote instead of by unanimous consent.

At their meeting in the Delta Tau Delta House Monday the Men's Undergraduate Council unanimously amended their constitution to read thus: "A three-quarter vote of the members present is necessary for the adoption of a motion." It was announced by President H. Richard Taylor, '41. Originally a unanimous vote was required for adoption.

"The change, which has aroused considerable praise from Allegheny faculty members and students, is expected to be the source of much increased activity in the M.U.C.," Taylor added.

Another change in the constitution was the addition of the clause; "By a one-third vote any motion may be tabled to the next meeting." The purpose of this clause is to give members of the organization additional time to deliberate on the business at hand.

After the constitution was changed, the new rushing plan which had been brought up in the meeting of the previous week was defeated. The feature of this plan is a period of silence from Saturday night at twelve until three o'clock Monday afternoon, in which no upperclassman may speak to a freshman.

After the close of rushing Saturday night, bids were to be issued by the various fraternities and distributed in the dormitories by members of the M.U.C. By Monday at three, all acceptances were to be deposited in a box at Cafilisch and distributed to the fraternities and at dinner the freshmen were to be officially pledged. Open rushing for freshmen who had not arrived at a decision would have begun at twelve, midnight Monday. This motion was defeated by a vote of nine to four.

The next meeting of the organization will be held Monday noon at the Phi Delta Theta house.

Letters to the Editor

Once again the Campus
Rears its ugly head
To say the same trite things that have
For many years been said.

And Campus columnists begin
To slander and to hex
Is it any wonder then
That we have Cochran Complex?

They said that on a certain night,
(This made us fume a-plenty)
That only two had dates, when they Had really numbered twenty.

We disappoint the freshmen girls
By our lack of dignity
Sure, we could be sophisticates,
But heck, who wants to be?

They call this Cochran Nunnery
Men hesitate to date us
With nineteen-twenty model T's
And old tin cans they rate us.

We cannot see that we have changed
We look and feel the same, . . .
If Cochran girls turn introverts,
The Campus is to blame.

ORGANIZE CLUB TO AID WILLKIE

Plans were laid for the formation of a Willkie club for Allegheny college at a meeting in Arter hall, last Tuesday night. John Van Strien, '43, was chosen temporary chairman.

The purpose of the movement is to organize Willkie supporters in the college and to back his candidacy in the coming election.

Speaking Sharply

By Bob Shane

Dear Alumni, please return to Allegheny this year on Homecoming. This day is set aside for you and you remember how the whole school prepares to receive you. I should say we prepare to receive your money, but this year there is a more important consideration. Help us keep alive the memories of what Allegheny used to be. The place isn't the same now and changes are coming fast.

Tell us of the days when a Freshman was the lowest form of life known on campus and was kept in place as such. There were rugged days when traditions were respected and not altered every year to suit the whims of the A.U.C. Freshmen women then did not encroach on the social position of upperclass girls. Upper-class women, too, could well maintain their seniority rights.

Tell us of how fraternity rushing was a heman affair. Lead piping and laissez-faire were the rule. Quality and not quantity determined the rushing program.

The library was a place to study and Cochran was occupied by he-men.

Kappa Beta Phi, it is rumored, numbered as many as Phi Beta Kappa.

Grove City was always a rival but not a snooty one. A little painting now and then was relished by the best of men.

Students had the nerve to fill the organ of the Chapel with water and have gala meetings there. Now we can't even have a political rally there on election night. Fraternities conducted lively programs and moving up day made insecure the reputations of the faculty.

There may not have been twenty-two good football players but smaller men came out to give them enough for scrimmage practice. Allegheny had a "Golden Age" once. Tell us about these golden ages. Don't forget to mention your problems so we won't feel so bad. We are trying to solve ours. Tell us how you met yours.

We'll be glad to see you, alumni. We need your inspiration. Here's to bigger and better homecomings.

Yours truly,
Allegheny '41, '42, '43, '44.

Now, dear readers, it's time for current history.

Hulings must be a dull place these days. All attempts to learn of any interesting happenings result in the answer, "Nothing happened over there."

All the fraternities are grooming themselves and steeling their nerves for Homecoming. Everyone is disgustingly industrious which makes for little idle gossip.

We have a good idea now, men, about the girls' opinion of us. It seems that they just are having a devil of a time finding thirty-five dates for the A.W.S. convention. Out of more than three hundred men the girls have trouble in picking a ten percent suitable for dates. Now we know how we rate.

Enough for this week. The snake dance is Thursday night this year, but there may be some seeing snakes, etc., Sunday morning.

BY THE WAY

By George Johnston

Most everyone seems to be getting a kick out of Bill Pierce's amusing actions as of Saturday's game. Bill's inability to forget play number 49, and his hilarious amusement at the obviously foolish questions which everyone asked him do seem amusing, don't they? We wonder how amusing they would have been if Bill had returned home with a permanent hilarious outlook? Don't we have enough campus idiots already?

Well . . . this is the weekend that the sentimental old grads come back to the campus in search of those college days "when things were different." I wonder if we have grown up any since the good old days or is the Grove City painting job representative of the 1940 edition of Allegheny grads?

Our Pittsburgh correspondent tells us that the Allegheny soccer team looked mighty mean as they de-skirted the Tech Tartans last week. Let's hope they have a little more of the same ungentelemanly attitude when they play the Grove City boys tomorrow afternoon.

The report that any glassware will be redeemable at the rate of five cents a bottle after this weekend, if taken to Bob Roundy at the Phi Gam house, is absolutely without basis. Mr. Roundy says, "No sir, I wouldn't degrade myself to such an extent. Besides, there is no money in it."

We see by the Students' Manual that Allegheny College wishes by its athletic program "to train the individual in leisure-time recreation which may enable him to maintain health after graduation."

Maintain health after graduation indeed! How do you like that, Hanlon, Doolittle, Shuster, Hartwell, etc.?

Instead of a mob of 100,000 or so, which the average English soccer game draws, a straggling crew of approximately 15 spectators turned out for the first Allegheny soccer game. Why not drop over to Montgomery field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and watch our booters work out on the Grove City boys?

Next time the soccer team buys a meal it won't be a six course affair. Tiger Joe Nasba almost fainted away while waiting for the second course. The pie a-la-mode helped make up for it somewhat though, didn't it Joe.

GATORS TANGLE WITH GROVE CITY BOOTERS

Carnegie Tech falls after two overtime periods in hard fought game by 4-3 score; team shows much improvement over opening game.

Riding high on the crest of last week's victory over Carnegie Tech, the soccer team meets Grove City tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Montgomery Field. Both coach and players are confident of victory over the traditional rivals and the team as a whole is in good condition for the tilt. Everything points to a hard-fought, interesting game. The Grovers, who have already lost to Slippery Rock, 5-2, the same team that defeated Allegheny, 1-0, in the first game of the season, will point toward this contest and field a strong, experienced team.

Last week's 4-3 victory over Tech at the Tartan stronghold in Pittsburgh was one marked by fine teamwork and a generally improved brand of play on the part of the Allegheny booters.

It was a gruelling battle all the way in which the Allegheny team came from behind to win in overtime when Jim Gilmore, senior halfback, scored on a corner kick to sew up the game.

Tech led 2-0 through the first and second periods until a few seconds before half-time when leftwing Caputo scored for Allegheny, making the count 2-1. There was no scoring in the third quarter but the Tech team counted again in the fourth. Late in the fourth quarter, however, Stunder and Captain Jim Baldwin both rang the bell to tie up the score. The first overtime period was scoreless. With only 50 seconds remaining in the second overtime period, Gilmore effected the shot that spelled defeat for Tech.

Outstanding for Allegheny were Baldwin, Caputo, Gilmore, Caravacci, and Doncaster.

Said Coach H. P. Way in reference to the showing of the team, "We have a well-balanced team. Our offense and defense have both improved considerably since the first game and I was very much satisfied with the performance of the team as a whole."

BULLETIN

According to a report from Meadville city hospital, Robert Hanlon is resting much more comfortably today. The infection has been entirely cleared up and he is getting along satisfactorily.

Hanlon had his leg broken in last Saturday's football game with Oberlin.

Initiated by the . . . German club Tuesday night were Ruth Salisbury, '42, Portia Clark, '43, Patricia Ludeman, '43, Frank Rittenburg, '43, Eleanor Sterrett, '43, Wallace Hanson, '43, James Craig, '43, Richard Mullhaupt, '43, Joseph Baldwin, '43, Robert Leuthner, '43, Edward McElrath, '42, Paula Prange, '43, Myles Miller, '43, George Richardson, '42, Julius Raskin, '42, Theodore Sampson, '43.

Golf can now be marked up on the intramural ledger (as completed). Seven groups entered teams in the tournament which took place last Sunday afternoon on the wind-swept shores of Conneaut Lake. The final tally has not been tabulated as this is written, but it seems likely that first place went to Phi Delta Theta, for the second straight year. Scores were boosted somewhat by a strong wind and by the poor condition of the greens. That 13 jinx (Sunday was the 13th) held true in several cases. A few more strokes on several holes would have necessitated removal of shoes and sox in order to keep track of some of the scores.

Touch Football was launched on Friday as the Tau Deltis put down a fighting, though outnumbered, Independent team by a 32-12 count. At the start the Non-Fraterniters could scrape up but six men who were willing to play, but a later addition of a man gave the Deltis only a one-man advantage. Hereafter if a team has less than eight men within a period of ten minutes after the game is scheduled to start, that team must forfeit the game. (The games are being played in two halves of 25 minutes each, and if they are not started on time, there will be difficulty in finishing before darkness.)

The Deltis' margin of superiority was in the possession of a fast-moving, capable back in Chuck Zimmerman, who scored three touchdowns personally. The Independents were handicapped by an early injury to Lyons, a fast-charging Freshman. Chuck Beiler and Don Modisher played well for the losers, who were in the lead, 12-8, at half-time.

The underdog B.K.'s surprised the Chi Rhos in their opening game last Thursday and came from behind to dump the rosebuds 24-6. Neiner, Haack and Kenny were instrumental in the B.K.'s second half drive.

Last Tuesday afternoon Phi Gamma Delta maintained a six year opening game winning streak by defeating the B.K.'s in a hard fought battle. Despite the 24-6 score which the Phi Gams ran up, the game was close all the way.

The Phi Gams fielded a strong team which is bound to cause a lot of trouble before this year's champion is determined. McKay, Harper, Brandt and Kinzer played well for P.G.D.

The schedule for the remainder of the week features the Delt-Phi Delt game on Thursday at 4:30 and the Chi Rho-Phi Gam game which will be played Friday at 4:00.

FACULTY CUP FINALS SET FOR SUNDAY

McEwen, Lyons, Caravacci and Blank remain as quarter finalists; matches to be held on Cafilisch courts at 3:00 o'clock.

"The final match of the Faculty Cup Tournament is to be held Sunday, October 20, on the Cafilisch courts," William McEwen, '41, captain of this year's tournament, stated on Monday. The probable time for the match will be 3:00 p. m. A large turnout is expected.

By last Tuesday, the quarter-final matches had all been played, with one exception. The semi-finals will close tomorrow. Several outstanding matches, therefore, are scheduled to be played the latter part of the week.

Eight of the 16 men who participated in the first round were eliminated. McEwen, '41, defeated Wahr, '42, 6-0, 6-1; Caldwell, '42, defeated Leuthner, '43, 6-2, 4-0, winning the latter set by default because of rain; Lyons, '44, defeated McInt, '42, 9-7, 1-6, 6-4; Pauver, '42, defeated Schoenholtz, '44, 5-7, 6-4, 7-5; Blank, '42, defeated Nichols, '43, 6-2, 6-1; McKay, '43, defeated Larson, '43, 6-8, 6-3, 8-6; Burrows, '42, defeated McVey, '41, and Caravacci, '42, defeated Dennison, '41, the latter two winning by default.

In the quarter finals the following came out on top. Lyons, a surprising freshman, defeated Pauver, '42, by a score of 1-6, 6-4, 6-3; Blank, '42, defeated McKay, '43, 6-3, 6-3; McEwen, '41, defeated Caldwell, '42, 6-1, 6-1.

In the semi-finals, McEwen will meet Lyons, and Blank will meet the winner of the Burrows-Caravacci match. The winners of these two matches will then battle in the finals on Sunday, Oct. 20. A tentative time of 3 p. m. has been set.

OBERLIN WALLOPS ALLEGHENY 43-0

46th meeting between two rivals finds both teams striving for first win; Schuster and Hartwell return to lineup.

Homecoming Day for the Allegheny gridders brings to Montgomery Field one of their oldest traditional rivals, the Grove City Grovers.

Saturday's game will mark the 46th turf struggle in a series which has never failed to present a hard-fought encounter. Such has been the rivalry and tradition built up through the years that previous records of the teams each year have proven of little value in determining the game's ultimate victor. This year's tilt will be no exception with the victory-hungry Alleghenians striving for their initial win in two years and the Grovers out to smash the Gators.

The local eleven, after the 43-0 defeat at the hands of Oberlin's Yoesmen, should, nevertheless, be at their full strength for the first time this year. With Shuster and Hartwell back in the lineup, the backfield will be at top strength. The line, as well, barring accidents, will take the field intact when the opening whistle blows.

The Grovers may be expected to bring a formidable aggregation for the weekend invasion if the 13-0 defeat suffered at the hands of Hiram is any indication of their strength. The Grove City men have shown up very well so far and will undoubtedly be primed for the coming battle.

To meet this invasion, the locals have mapped out a stiff week of work for themselves including one scrimmage this week against the freshman varsity. Other workouts will stress the Gators defense and running attack, both of which should improve to meet the Grove City onslaught.

As both camps prepare for the Saturday engagement, the Grovers must, on both teams' records, be considered the favorites. The Gators, on the other hand, should be sufficiently seasoned by now to overcome the early season's inexperience and with the morale of the team as high as it is, should be ready to chalk up their first victory of the season.

C. F. ROSS PLANS ALUMNI REGISTER

An Alumni Register, containing the addresses of all living alumni and ex-students of Allegheny College, is being compiled by Mr. Clarence F. Ross, formerly registrar and dean of the college. Mr. Ross expects to publish the Register some time next year and it will be distributed generally to faculty, undergraduates, and alumni.

The new Register, a need for which has long been felt, will be several times the size of the college catalogue and will be similar to it in form and make-up. This Register differs from the 1931 edition, in that it will contain only the names of the living alumni. It will be indexed both geographically and alphabetically.

Dr. Ross, in addition to preparing the Alumni Register, expects to travel a great deal in connection with the Allegheny financial campaign during the coming year.

Letter To Editor

Dear Mr. Gibbs:

In the Pittsburgh Post Gazette for Monday, October 7, there was a list of those states that will observe Thanksgiving day on November 21 instead of the day decreed by President Roosevelt last year. In that list Pennsylvania was present. However, to my dismay I discovered that apparently a great percentage of the school, including myself, are to be left without a Thanksgiving day this year. It seems that the states of New York, Ohio, New Jersey, and Connecticut, also West Virginia, are celebrating Thanksgiving day on the new day. As I have said, a great percentage of the students at Allegheny are from these states. In view of this I wonder if some idea might not be formulated to counteract this situation.

A New York Stater.

ard Taylor, '41, Marian Mumford, '43, Gilbert Brown, '41, Virginia Brandt, '43, Donald Leberman, '43, Donald Modisher, '42. Plans for the coming year were also discussed at the meeting.

WOMEN TO HOLD EXTEMPORANEOUS

The Women's Extemporaneous Speaking contest will take place next Thursday at noon in Ford Chapel.

A current national problem was discussed in the men's competitions held this morning in Ford Chapel.

Representatives of seven fraternity groups and the independent organization competed for the cup, won last year by Edgar Wood, '40, of Phi Delta Theta. They were: Blaine Detrick, '42, Alpha Chi Rho; Russell Minnick, '44, Beta Kappa; Arthur Diskin, '42, Delta Tau Delta; Frank Ritenberg, '43, Independent; Howard Beebe, '42; Phi Delta Theta; John Van Strien, '43, Phi Gamma Delta; John Foster, '43, Phi Kappa Psi; and Willard Detwiler, '42, Simpa Alpha Epsilon.

The contest was judged by Miss Mildred Ludwig, Mr. John E. Cavelti, and Mr. John McMann.

fused. Nov. 21 is the day set by Roosevelt. Pennsylvania celebrates Thanksgiving on Nov. 28; so does Allegheny.
