My dear Miss Tarbell

Miss Fisher tells me that you might be interested in the three Currier and Ives prints issued at the time of Lincoln's death. I am therefore enclosing a full description of them, and shall be glad to send on the pictures themselves if you care to see them. They are in the old mahogany-veneer frames of the period such as were used on almost all C. & I. prints - and under glass, of course.

I have also a seven-page list of books about Lincoln which I shall be glad to send - but suppose you have practically all the books already. There are also available ^{the Washington} the Chronicle of ^{Washington} Apr. 15, ^{of the} Apr. 22, and ^{of the} Apr. 27 which have come down in a family here, but I have no idea what the price of these might be.

Very truly yours
