Basket Ball.

POINTS ABOUT THE PLAYERS. THE SCHEDULE AS FAR AS COMPLETED.

The first full week of practice at basket ball was held last week and the result was that the team has already assumed definite shape. There are about 25 candidates still on the field from which eight or nine are to be selected. The selecting of these men is a harder job than at first supposed, for almost all the squad are playing fast enough to entitle them to a trial.

In selecting the team this year many things will be considered. Besides the playing form displayed by each contestant, his chance of improvement, his ability to drop into the style of play that will be adopted, his physical advantages and his class standing. This latter is an important part, for it will abolish the old trouble of having men continually changed and taken from the team because of the condition of the studies. It is also better for the team to have a lower classman than a senior for the team will profit next year by the experience gained by this year's substitutes.

The four players of last year's team will in all probability make positions on this year's five. This leaves but one position vacant, that caused by the graduation of Wolstonecroft, last year's guard. The men who are showing best form for the place are Leffingwell and Haas, both players of some experience. Haas is at present out of the running, owing to a dislocated finger, but will no doubt be in the game by next term. Haas handles the ball well and covers considerable ground, his one weakness being his inability to stop his man when once he gets the ball. Leffingwell guards better but cannot pass as accurately as Haas. His shooting is good and his style of play fits in excellently with Jackson, the other guard.

Of the new forwards, Allen and Mansell are both showing first team form. Their passing and shooting is first-class, while Mansell's ability to guard his opponent, and Allen's passing make them both likely candidates.

At center, Lewis is the surprise of the season. His height, six feet, three inches, and his strength, coupled with a sure shot, makes him look like the extra center for the season.

Of the old men, Taylor and Jackson are the only ones that are doing anything as Lampe and Williams have not yet recovered from the effects of the foot ball season. Taylor's play is even faster than last year while his shooting is even faster than ever done in the gym. before. Jackson is playing the same sure, fast, nervous style of play that characterized his work of last year. He will add much strength to the team.

It was intended to play a game on Tuesday with Edinboro. The consent of the board had been gained and arrangements made and nothing was lacking but the consent of President Crawford. His refusal put an end to all thoughts of a game on the home ground this year, and the people will be forced to wait until next term for a sight of the team in action.

The manager is still after games, however, and it is probable that several games will be played away from home in vacation.

Manager Merrill gave out the following incomplete schedule. It lacks two opening games and several other dates are yet open. A number of good teams are corresponding for these dates; and they will not be settled until later.

The following is the schedule:

"Chi Brothers"

BANQUET SISTER MEMBERS OF THEIR COLLEGE SORORITY AT THE LAFAYETTE.

On Friday evening Alpha Chi Omega enjoyed the novel function of dining as guests of "Chi Brothers." It came about through the desire of the ladies of the chapter to show their appreciation of certain kindnesses received at the hands of Dr. T. L. Flood and Hon. John J. Henderson, which they did by electing those gentlemen "honorary members" of Alpha chapter. The gentlemen considered the honor worthy of a dinner, consequently the elegant spread which was served at the Lafayette last evening.

Covers were laid for about 35, and it would be hard to imagine a more prettily decorated table. Red carnations and smilax were used, bringing out in pleasing harmony the fraternity colors, which also appeared on the menu, the announcement, in red, being encircled by a wreath of green.

Following was the menu and toast list:

College Glee Club.

A DIRECTOR PROCURED—AN ENTIRELY NEW PROGRAM IS BEING PREPARED.

On Friday afternoon the Glee Club met for the purpose of procuring a director for the present year. After carefully considering several candidates, Mr. Harry Waithe Manville was decided upon to fill the place. He comes to the Glee Club well fitted to make the club a decided success.

His successful experience in vocal instruction, and in chorus, choir and quartette work especially fit him for the position. The club will be under his instruction four times per week. An entirely new program is being prepared, and the members of the club are working hard to make this year's club the best in the history of the college. The leader, Mr. Burton, and the manager, Mr. Scott, are at present arranging quite an extensive trip. The trip will come some time during the winter term, and Mr. Burton is very anxious to perfect a splendid program which shall maintain the splendid reputation the Glee Club of Allegheny has had during the past.

Our Sing.

THE ONE HELD ON SATURDAY A GREAT IMPROVEMENT OVER THE PREVIOUS WEEK.

On Saturday morning the usual college sing was held in the gymnasium. While it was an improvement over the sing of the previous week, it is not yet what it should be. Strange to say, a few persons still seem to care more to spend the time set apart for the college sing in walking up and down North Main street, or in a childish manner drawing simple, silly pictures on the blackboards of the recitation rooms.

The college sing belongs to the students, and each student should feel it his duty to attend. But you may say, "I don't sing, so why should I be present at the sing?" You should at least lend the encouragement of your presence.

The college sing is the expression of college spirit, and the one thing in which every student should feel so much interest that nothing could prevent his attendance.

Now it is possible that twenty or thirty students can put an end to our present system of college sings by persisting in showing their indifference to the affair.

The faculty feel that if there is not enough interest manifested by the student body to insure a better attendance, it is useless to spend the time in the weekly sing.

Those who made themselves conspicuous by their absence from the last sing should take this matter seriously. Come out and do your part and show that you have some college spirit.

The present issue of the Campus will be the last one during the year 1901.

We feel that in our inexperience we have not made the Campus what it should be, and we wish to thank the student body for showing so friendly a feeling toward us in not criticising our work more severely than it has. We wish you the greatest success during your examinations and a most delightful holiday time.

The Campus board is in receipt of letters from some of our alumni, in which we are asked to agitate the setting aside of a room as a trophy room, in which shall be placed the pictures of the various athletic teams from year to year. We believe the suggestion is a good one and suggest that a room be set apart in our new library as a trophy room. At present the pictures of our various teams are hung in the office of the gymnasium. They cannot be properly taken care of and in a very few years a team's picture will be ruined. A year or so ago a number of our team pictures were stolen from the gymnasium; they cannot be replaced and we feel that the loss is very great. A room set aside in our new library, in which could be hung the pictures of our teams, would insure the preservation of such pictures indefinitely. Let us, as a student body, give the subject our attention.

The past week has witnessed the transition of interest from foot ball to basket ball and other college organizations. The interest manifested in basket ball thus early in the season is unprecedented. About fifty candidates are out and at work, and faster basket ball is being played at the present time than was played during the latter part of January last year. With Williams, Lampe, Taylor and Jackson of last year's team, and the many fast substitutes, the team this year should be the most successful in the history of the college.

In past seasons the basket ball team has been right royally supported. We trust that this year shall be no exception. Let us get enthusiastic over our team, and exercise our young growth of college spirit. That pennant must come to us this year again; let us, everyone, get out and do our part in landing it.

We are firmly convinced that the playing of any college team will be what the student body demand. If there be lack of interest on the part of the student body, the playing of the teams will be half-hearted. Let us see to it that our team shall not lack that incentive. We believe that every game can be won this year; and now is the time to get ready to win them.

The fall term of 1901 will soon be a thing of history. Undoubtedly it has been one of the most important periods in the history of our college. Though it opened under the deepest gloom, caused by the death of our most noted alumnus, it shall still stand out in the history of our college as one of the brightest periods.

The present term has witnessed the completion of Newton observatory. It has witnessed the completion of the walls of our new chapel and library. We trust that it shall be crowned by the successful termination of the untiring efforts of Dr. Crawford in raising the $200,000 endowment fund. This would certainly be a fitting climax to our present successful term.

And somehow we cannot get away from the impression that the present term marks the beginning of a new era in athletics. We feel that in the future the student body will demand better athletics than we have had, and if their demand be backed up by plenty of college spirit and enthusiasm the demand shall not be in vain.

The present term also witnessed the inauguration of a new system of class periods, and the success of the new system warrants its permanent adoption.

Words! Words!!

THE WIND BLOWETH WHERE NO MAN LISTETH.

The following soliloquy which was uttered in elocution class and given to the Campus reporter has evidently made the girls angry. They say it was ungentlemanly to criticise them when they could not talk back. We will give the talk and let the reader judge.

I am sent by silent lips to cry the need of purpose at Allegheny. Needed by all, but particularly the girls (its need is not so noticeable among the boys, because I and a few more help to bring up the average among the sterner sex).

Some poet, greatly inferior to me, said:

"A whistling girl and a cackling hen

Always come to some bad end."

How true, yet how poorly expressed. I could have done it so much better with my "a la Kipling style." Most of the girls, instead of reading my sublime thoughts, prefer to enjoy themselves reading Dooley and George Ade. Their only thought is to spend Papa's money.

With me how different. Think of my purpose.

Am I not a member of Philo Literary Society? Did not a New York paper publish my song? Was I not defeated when I ran for base ball manager? Also Mr. Taber has frequently asked me to contribute to the pages of the "Allegheny Lit." Fie upon you, weak woman; look at me and receive inspiration. If you are still unconvinced listen to a poem that I wrote for the occasion and be satisfied.

O woman, frail woman, what a poor thing you are,

That cannot admire a poet like me. Just hear my "far-words," that echo my "star words"

With a "glist" that is glistening. Look! See!

And revel in riot and sing of the "wind king,"

Not a blood song, a sad song, with strange unfound power,

For I am the real thing, yes, I am the "wind king."

For when I speak or I write I'm the joy of the hour.

This was the talk that made the girls mad. The advice of the Campus is this: Think it over a while and you will probably remember that,

A poet is a genius.

Genius and insanity are closely allied.

They often outgrow it.

GYMNASIUM EXHIBITION.

CONCERT

By the Glee Club of W. & J.

Strange as it may sound, nevertheless it is a fact that the Glee club of W. & J. has been procured to give a concert in the First Presbyterian church, Dec. 27th. The Campus does not know who is responsible for the concert by the W. & J. Glee club, but feels that it is not only a direct insult to the Glee club of our college, but to the college itself.

The Glee club of Allegheny college has always given to the people of Meadville the worth of their money, in fact furnishing the very best talent the county affords, at a cost to the public which has always been most reasonable. The members of our Glee club feel that they do not deserve the insult and are righteously indignant.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The new chapel is almost entirely under cover. The woodwork is completed over the entire roof, while a large portion is already slated.

Prof. Morey is training a beard preparatory to playing Santa Claus at Christmas fairs.

Rickard did not know the meaning of the word cosy corner, which provoked the following remark from Prof. Baynum: "I guess you never leaned in a cosy corner." Think of what that youth has before him.

Prof. Elliot advised Hazen recently "to take lessons in the use of your lip." Acting upon the advice, Hazen has been making dates ever since.

Miss Bertha Miller returned to Butler on Monday, after a visit of a few days at Hulings Hall.

Will J. Lousteter spent a few days at the Phi Delta Theta house last week. Mr. Lousteter departs for Genoa, Italy, in a few days. He will make a tour of the continent before returning, and will be gone about nine months.

The Glee Club will not make a trip during the holidays. On the 12th of January a week's trip is under consideration.

George Campbell has given up his work in college for this year and left for his home in Warren, Pa., on Tuesday. We are all sorry to see him go and hope that he may return at some future date.

HONORS WON BY MEN DURING FOOTBALL SEASON.

The following men are entitled to a vote for captain of football team for 1902, having played in two games or their equivalent:

Beyer, Lampe, Kelley, McQuiston, Ashley, Taylor, Turner, Mook, Williams, Leffingwell, Fletcher, Harper, McCartney, Yard, Frazier, Yeane, Campbell, Neff.

The men of the following list are entitled to a block A, having played three regular games or their equivalent, and shall be entitled to wear the block A as soon as it shall be voted by the Athletic board:

Beyer, McQuiston, Fletcher, Yard, Harper, Smith (manager), Ashley.

Princeton's Basket Ball.

Princeton, N. J.—The candidates from the three upper classes for the university basket ball team were called out recently. About 40 men responded, and were given a short preliminary drill in dribbling and caging the ball. After a week's practice the team which will represent the university in the regular scheduled games will be chosen. The first game will be played with the Silent Five of New York Dec. 11. The inter-class games were played last week.

Intercollegiate Debate.

The plan to hold a joint debate this winter between the University of North Carolina and the Johns Hopkins will probably be carried into execution. A very favorable reply has been received from the two literary societies at the Southern institution, and a meeting of committees from the Senate and the House of Representatives at the Johns Hopkins has been held to consider the matter. In order to arouse interest in the affair it is proposed that the debate should be held in McCoy Hall of the Johns Hopkins University. The president of the university at which the debate is held will choose the subject, and the visitors are to have the choice of side. Each university will be represented by two debaters, who are to be selected from the undergraduate body. No definite announcement has yet been made, but it is likely that the contest will take place about the first part of next April. The arrangement committee is composed of John C. Campbell and Harney B. Stone, from the Senate, and Messrs. Harry K. Tootle and W. Sellman Bird, from the House of Representatives. Dr. G. C. Lee has also heard from Harvard, Lehigh and several other Northern universities. In several instances the replies were favorable, but none seemed so inclined to have the contest in the near future as the University of North Carolina.

Good Reading for Everybody.

In addition to its special articles by famous men and women and its stories by the most popular living writers of fiction The Youth's Companion presents from week to week many regular features of great value.

The editorial page discusses the public questions of the day in a spirit of impartiality, the aim being to give the reader the material for forming his own opinions.

The article on the care of the health which has been published every week for many years is of the greatest value.

The departments of Current Events and Nature and Science give the important news of the world in condensed form.

The children's page provides diversion for the little ones, and the anecdotes and miscellany have their share in making the paper a complete treasury of good reading.

An illustrated prospectus of the new volume for 1902 will be sent to any address free.

Every new subscriber who sends $1.75 for the 1902 volume now will receive free all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1901 and The Companion Calendar for 1902, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
195 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass.

Harvard's Football Captain.

Cambridge, Mass.—The Harvard Varsity football eleven chose Robert K. Kernan, 1903, of New York, captain for next year. Kernan prepared at the Brooklyn Polytechnic School and was a substitute on his freshman eleven, a substitute on the Varsity eleven of last year, and this year played a brilliant game at left halfback.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Recent gifts have made the alumni of Upper Iowa University particularly joyful.

Albion has a debt of $93,000, but President Dicke predicts its payment within a year.

The election of Dr. F. H. Knight to the presidency of the New Orleans University is well received.

There are 629 universities and colleges and forty-three schools of technology in the United States.

The friends of Syracuse will not be surprised to learn of other generous gifts to the institution almost any fine day.

The Illinois Woman's College opened with the largest attendance in its history. Every room filled, and provision has been made for the overflow by renting rooms outside.

Iowa Wesleyan enrolled more students in its regular preparatory and collegiate departments the first matriculation day this year than were there the whole of last year. Everybody is encouraged, and many hitherto lukewarm are enthusiastic.

The University of Michigan has just begun a series of weekly meetings for the purpose of practicing college songs. The singing is being led by the university glee club.

Rutgers College has started a crusade against hazing by abandoning the cane rush.

A new book entitled "Yale Fun" was published at New Haven Friday. It consists of selections and illustrations from the Record for the past eight years, and according to the Yale News represents the best humor writing by Yale men in recent years.

O. S. N. closed the football season $600 in debt.

Woodruff, of guards back fame, may coach University of California next year.

The University of Pennsylvania expects to send another crew to compete in the Henley Regatta in 1902.

COLLEGIANS WILL PLEASE READ.

Of course the college yell is the chief study of the curriculum, but it would be well to add a little Greek or geology as side electives.

"Athletics" is one thing, "gym" is another. The first means a broken kneecap and glory; the second means drudgery and a strong body. Take your pick.

A college course is like a railroad track. "Push the youngster out on it," some folks say, "and he cannot get off. It makes no difference whether he knows where he is going or not." But they do not run their railroad trains that way. Indeed, a definite purpose doubles the value of a college course.

Make it a rule never to guy a professor till you have achieved a grade of over 90 in his classes. By that time you may have lost the desire to guy him.

An hour's brisk walking and three hours' study will accomplish more than no hour's walking and five hours' study. Make your heels save your head.

"The midnight oil" is the "midnight spoil"—spoiled health, spoiled scholarship, spoiled stamina, spoiled ambitions.

Do not be so particular about going to a famous college. Make the college you go to famous.

College students think the heavens will fall when they fall out with the Faculty. The heavens do fall—fall to laughing.

The hazing spirit creates a denser haze in the college atmosphere than any other kind of fog. Scatter it—with gunpowder, if necessary.—From The Christian Endeavor World.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A. A. Culbertson, '01, of Erie, spent Sunday with the Phi Kappa Psis.

Frank R. Frost, of Meadville, was initiated by Sigma Alpha Epsilon on evening.

A fine line of Holiday Furnishings for men just received at the only place to buy such articles—Mendel Bros.

Miss Florence Bates entertained a few of her Alpha Chi sisters at her home on Highland avenue, on Monday.

If your Campus subscription is not paid this week the price advances to $1.50.

Dr. Crawford was home over Sunday and reported that the raising of the $200,000 Endowment Fund is at present just at the point of peril. It is to be hoped that the point will be speedily and successfully passed. Dr. Crawford is about the busiest man imaginable these days. He was at the Tribune office on Monday morning, ordering some important work done, the business finished he had but three minutes to make a train. There was a rush of feet, a banging of doors, and a black streak of coat-tails marking the path of the hurrying doctor. "I guess he will make it if the train is already under way," said some one.

Fred A. Hartung, who was in college in '96 and '97, and who is now studying medicine at U. of P., played half-back in the games against West Point and Cornell.

They are slowly drifting in. For near, Gregg, Boyle, King, Rhinehart and Plannette; the inevitable "she" exerted a varying influence on all, but the last one has finally come back.

Frazier was out at practice for the first time yesterday and did good work.

Parisen, the center on the Westminster team, has been elected captain for next year.

The article in The Campus last week on the Gym. Bath Room produced the desired effect. Two feet of rubber hose and the nozzle of a sprinkling can have been added. We thought they'd loosen.

Endean is composing some college songs. His parody on "Bingo" has become quite popular at the Kelley club.

The Psychology class use R. C. Smith as a subject upon which to study. Frazier, Freeman, Allen, Bird and Griffith are the chief demonstrators.

Frazier analyzed his blood last week and found the following substances: Iron, cobalt, aluminum and brass. The iron is rusting, which will probably undermine his iron constitution.

Charles Douglass, '01, is working in the office of the Erie depot. He is at present staying at Phi Delta Theta house.

Haas had a painful injury in the game on Friday. His finger was dislocated and a bone fractured. It came at an unfortunate time, for "Bob" was playing a nice game.

Judging by the time spent on training the gymnasium exhibition should be a good one. Prof. Borne has been working as faithfully as Bostock and in some cases has produced as good results. His subjects are not always so bright, however.

HULINGS HALL NOTES.

Miss Winnie Parshall, of Warren, Pa., is visiting Miss Jessie Williams.

Miss Eleanor Hall is visiting her brother of Franklin.

Miss Eva Hart was confined to her room over Sunday.

The girls of the Hall feel that if they were to be judged according to the statements of certain swell-headed, callow youths their case would be hopeless.

A pretty, pleasing and acceptable Christmas gift for anyone is songs of all the colleges.

Cadets' Football Team.

Annapolis, Md.—At a meeting of the Naval Cadet football team, Cadet Charles Belknap was elected captain of the team for next year. Cadet Belknap is the son of a naval officer, and was appointed from Massachusetts. He has played right guard on the team for three years, and has done all the punting for two seasons. At present he is suffering from injuries to his head and shoulder received in the game with West Point. Cadet Alfred T. Brisbin, of Pennsylvania, has been elected manager. The team will lose the following players by graduation next season: Captain Nicholls, f. b.; Adams, r. t.; Freyer, l. h. b.; Land, r. h. b., and Reed, l. t., besides one or two good substitutes.

Y. M. C. A.

Wait for 4 p. m. Sunday next! Something interesting will take place at that hour. In the chapel there will be a joint meeting of the Young Women's and Young Men's Associations. The session is in charge of the two missionary committees, and is to be led by Miss Fitzgerald. Very likely you will hear a selection sung by the Y. M. C. A. quartet.

Dr. Montgomery gave us many good things to think about last Saturday evening. In his usual good way he told us to have an aim, stick to it; prepare thoroughly; fight fearlessly. A good, true story always helps the memory, and the doctor knows it.

MEETING OF CLASSICAL CLUB.

The regular meeting of Classical club was held Tuesday night, Dec. 3. The following program was given:

News Items—Miss Parsons.

Periodical Report—Mr. Royce.

Magazine Summary—Mr. King.

Miss Rogers read a most interesting paper on "Palmyra," of which the following is a brief summary: Nomadic Arabs founded Palmyra about 1000 B. C., on an oasis in the Syrian desert. Caravan routes passed through the city and it became a place of great wealth and importance. In the Third century A. D., under the great Queen Zerobia, the city was the rival of Rome. Aurelian conquered it, slaughtered the inhabitants and demolished the magnificent temples and palaces. To-day a wretched village occupies the site of one of the most famous ruins of Grecian architecture.
