Dear Miss Tarbell:

Your message of June 12th has just been forwarded to me at my home. I am ever so grateful to you for even the least bit of your attention in the face of all your pressing duties, and I would urge you not to hurry with the three or four hundred words you promised me. Indeed, you may send your contribution to me at your convenience any time during the summer.

We shall have a cut made from the photograph immediately upon receiving it from you, so that we may return the photo to you as soon as possible.

Allow me to thank you again for your generous consent to my request for an article for our LAURENTIAN.

Very truly yours,

John G. Benack
