Y. M.--Y. W. ATTRACTS THE STUDENT BODY

Novelty Entertainment Lures Students to Gym Decorations

With 300 people crowding the new gymnasium, the annual Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. reception last Thursday night was declared by many to have been the most successful in the history of the event. The affair has been given annually at the beginning of the school year for the last ten years under the joint auspices of the two Christian associations. It is intended to provide a means for Alleghenians to become better acquainted with one another.

The receiving line was very short; onl ythe presidents of the two Christian associations and a few members of the faculty greeted the guests. Everyone was then given a booklet and the announcement was made that the girl who secured the greatest number of names of the men and the man who secured the greatest number of names of the girls would each receive a two-pound box of candy. There was a mad rush to secure names, so the students quickly became acquainted with one another. This contest continued throughout the evening. At the close of the reception, Miss Lois Holderman, '24, and Jamison S. Sides were announced as the winners.

The feature of the evening was the presentation of stunts. On each program the name of some make of automobile had been written. During the evening everyone sought out his own group of about twenty-five. Each group then gave an "automobile" stunt.. The Overland group gave the most elaborate entertainment. Their stage setting consisted of a box of dirt (representing "land," the audience was informed). Each member of the Overland troupe, including Dr. Shultz, gracefully jumped over the "land." No prize was given for these stunts, but if there had been, no doubt the Buick crowd, who were "sorry, but we're out of gas," would have received it.

Credit for the success of the reception is due to the presidents of the associations, Miss Clara Weller and Mr. Herbert Neeley, and the social chairmen Miss Mary Neeley, Mr. Vernon Wise and Mr. Braun. These people planned the program and decorated the gymnasium.

Music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Samuel Bates, piano, Joseph Moffatt, violin, Lloyd Shaffer, saxophone, and W. W. Phillips, traps.

WHERE DID THEY ALL GO?

The system of grouping the students by using names of automobiles must have acted as a suggestion to numerous people because there was a noticeable decrease both in the number of people in the gymnasium and in the number of cars parked outside. Several of the cars reported missing must have been driven by inexperienced drivers for a number were "stalled" on the Baldwin street road. The trouble with all the cars was discovered eventually for they are reported back to the gym in time to prevent any of their passengers being put on campus limits.

GROVE CITY WILL BE FORMIDABLE OPPONENT

UNDEFEATED, HEAVY TEAM WILL HAVE BITTER BATTLE SATURDAY.

Advance reports of the Grove City football aggregation are indicative of a hard game for McCracken's boys on Oct. 15.

The meeting Saturday will be the third contest of the season for both elevens. The teams have had equal chances of straightening out the usual weak spots found in the first games.

From present indications the Grove City game will be one of the best football games of the season to be played on the home gridiron. Noted sport writers claim that Grove City has the best team in years and that it expects to end the 1921-22 season with a clean slate. So far the down-state eleven has succeeded. There is, however, some doubt as to whether the Crimson team will have its clean slate after Saturday.

Grove City boasts of a heavy team, but it did that last year and the Blue and Gold won, 3-0. There is no question, however, that the team is big, even bigger than last year, and that it knows the game. Nevertheless, Allegheny does not intend to give an inch of ground without a fight. The local team will take the field Saturday with the determination to win at any cost.

Last Saturday Grove City defeated St. Bonaventure by a 21-0 score. Colgate was held to a 7-7 tie by the Catholics at Hamilton earlier in the season. Colgate then turned back Allegheny by a 14-0 score. This is dops figure it out for yourself.

SENIORS ELECT OFFICERS JUNIORS ELECT TODAY

Hugh Buchanan, President; Mary Gealey, Vice President; Wm. Krebs, Treasurer, and Alta Postance, Sec'y.

At a meeting of the Senior Class yesterday afternoon, the following officers were elected fo rthe year:

President, Hugh Buchanan; Vice President, Mary Gealey; Treasurer, William Krebs, and Secretary, Alta Postance.

There will be a meeting of the Junior Class today, at which election of officers will take place. The Sophomores are scheduled to meet on Thursday and the Freshmen on Friday.

G. BYRON HAFER IS ELECTED CHEER LEADER

NEW BASIS FOR ELECTION MEETS WITH APPROVAL.

G. Byron Hafer was unanimously elected as cheer leader at a meeting of the men students held in place of the regular chapel service last Friday. That "Red" is the only man for the job is quite evident from his work of last year in assisting Trotter. Hafer made his first appearance in his new capacity last Saturday at the Alfred game.

A new basis for election to this position has been established as a result of action taken at the meeting of last Friday. Election will be gov-

DR. SWARTLEY ADDRESSES FIRST MEETING OF FORUM

PHILO-FRANKLIN FORUM NOW ELECTS ITS MEMBERS—INITIATION OF YOUNG ORATORS WILL TAKE PLACE FRIDAY.

"The Philo-Franklin Forum was founded in 1820 as the Bef Gimmel Lambda Society," said Dr. S. S. Swartley as he opened the first meeting of the year last Friday afternoon. "It was organized to aid in the celebration of the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims two hundred years before. In 1833 the name was changed to the Allegheny Society and one year later to the Philo-Franklin Forum. The early meetings were very interesting, some taking as long as four hours to complete. One of the interesting facts found in the early minute books is, "the secretary reports that in the first three months eight pounds of candles have been burned."

"The membership role has included many honorable and widely known names. Prince Albert of England, Edward Everett, Henry W. Longfellow, Daniel Webster, Horace Greely, Ulyses S. Grant and Rutherford B. Hays are ENTERTAINMENT SERIES TO BE GIVEN BY Y. M. C. A.

REDPATH BROCKWAY COURSE WILL BE BIGGER, BETTER THAN EVER.

With its opening number on Oct. 20th, the Y. M. C. A. will open its annual concert course in Ford Memorial Chapel. The Redpath Bureau again has charge of the appointments and a group of eminent performers have been chosen. Five engagements comprise the full series, including artists who have been affiliated with this circuit for years.

The Chapel Singers, a mixed quartet, will be the first attraction. With their three-part program of sacred music, operatic selections and modern compositors, the quintet are able to inject into the entertainment sufficient life and humor to give it a diversified appeal. While it is true that there is not a cheap number on the program, it is likewise true that the musically uneducated can thoroughly understand and appreciate the work of the company.

The next date, Nov. 14th, will be given to Dr. Preston Bradley, recognized throughout many parts of the country as one of America's foremost lecturers. Alton Packard, the cartoonist, will occupy the next engagement, the 24th of January.

The one that will probably prove to be the most enjoyable will be the appearance of Miss Selma Lenhart at the chapel on the 10th of February. As a reader, this young woman has but few equals. The National Male Quartet will close the series on March 15th. Including Charles Cox, Lawrence Wickland, Stanley Graham and Melvin Newquist, this company will be certain to furnish a concert which has been unequaled in Meadville.

Tickets are already on sale for the series from Messrs. Neely, Larson, Havice, Boynton, Braun, Buchanan, Wise, Kincaid and Bushyager. The price has been set at $2.50.

INSPIRING ADDRESS BY DR. W. S. MITCHELL

"CIVILIZATION OF THE WORLD DEPENDS UPON THIS GENERATION."

Dr. William S. Mitchell, of Philadelphia, spoke at the vesper service in the chapel on Sunday afternoon—the first of a series of such services which are to be held once a month during the winter. Both college and town people enjoyed Dr. Mitchell's address on "The Rebuilding of the World."

As a result of the war, the pillars of almost one-third of the governments of Europe have been torn away. For the past three years one out of every four persons has perished from hunger. The world is not upside down, but in ruins, and the present generation must rebuild it.

There are thousands of suggested solutions for this reconstruction being tried now; but there is really only one final solution which is based upon the principles of Christ. For this statement Dr. Mitchell quoted others besides himself: The Premiers of England and the United Kingdom, a Jewish merchant of Boston, the president of the International Moulders Union and the president of the Argentine Republic.

Out of the despair of its own hopelessness, the world is asking every man where he stands on the principles of Christ: Justice and kindness to his neighbor, brotherhood with and service for him, and love and loyalty for an all wise God.

Men may believe in Christ, but do they practice Him? Two historical assumptions which have negatived two thousand years of Christian history are that these principles were never intended to be lived, are only a vast idealism and that they cannot be lived. Now men must settle the issue, either rebuilt upon them or make the world commit suicide.

A twenty-story civilization is now

THE CHAPEL SINGERS.

Representative music, beautifully sung, is the program offering of the Chapel Singers. Soul-stirring sacred songs are featured. Then there are operatic quartets and solos, modern quartets and pianologs. Sufficient life and humor are injected to give the three-part entertainment a diversified appeal. While there is not a cheap number on the entire program, it is likewise true that even the musically uneducated can thoroughly understand and appreciate the work of the company.

The initial success of the Chapel Singers was attained on a trip to the western coast. Almost unheralded, these artists surprised and delighted discriminating audiences in the largest cities with their interpretative abilities. There have been many calls for their re-appearance.

The company is strongly recommended to music clubs, but above all it is recommended to patrons of the Lyceum. The members are experienced church, concert and operatic singers, guaranteeing satisfactory entertainment whether in sacred or secular offerings.

FRESHMAN CAPS MARK MEN OF 1925 CLASS

FROSH ORATE DAILY AFTER CHAPEL SERVICES.

With the appearance of the Frosh caps last Friday the Class of 1925 may be said to be fully installed in Allegheny College. This custom is one of the oldest traditions of the school. It is said to have been begun by the Class of 1869, who appeared one morning while they were Freshmen wearing blue and gold bands on their derby hats. The upper-classmen were quick to resent this and in the fight that followed practically all the hats were smashed. As a reproof the Frosh were tendered a substitute in the form of a green bandana handkerchief, which they were compelled to wear until Washington's birthday. The style of hat has changed from year to year, but the principle has been the same ever since our grandfathers had to use a green bandana as a head covering.

Y. M. C. A. HAS A VERY ENCOURAGING MEETING

COLLEGE SONGS AND YELLS PRACTICED AFTER SERVICE

Enthusiasm and interest were very prominent in the Y. M. C. A. meeting held last Wednesday evening at Cochran Hall. With an exceptionally good attendance, with hearty songs and with interesting talks, the meeting did credit to the college and the organization itself.

The attendance was an increase over that of the meeting the week before, and represented a fair proportion of the Freshman class. It was indeed encouraging, as one speaker remarked, to see but two or three unfilled chairs. It was good-naturedly added to by another speaker, that more chairs were available, so that lack of seating accommodations cannot hinder an ever larger attendance.

SOPHOMORES WIN IN FIELD CONTEST

Sophs Pile Up a Score on the Frosh by Strategy

Making a clean sweep of all events, the Class of 1924 handed their kid brothers of '25 another defeat in the annual field day held on Montgomery Field last Saturday morning. The Poster Scrap, held a few weeks ago, was also won by the Sophomores.

The tug-of-war was won in two heats by the concerted action of the Sophs, which made the greater weight on the Frosh side. The second heat was especially hard fought before the Frosh were dragged across the line. The obstacle race was won principally because of the greater experience of the Sophomores. They finished 35 seconds ahead of the Freshmen. The obstacles in their order were: Twenty yards in a sack, over a stepladder, crawling over a bench, under a tennis net, through a hurdle, diving for a penny in a dish of flour, eating a cracker and whistling. Dale, Ellsworth, Nunn and Shively ran for 1924, while Shaffer, Troup, Remick and Sigendall represented the Frosh.

After twenty minutes of fighting the Frosh were again on the losing side in the tie-up, which ended with the score 16 to 5 in favor of the Class of '24. Better team work was responsible for the victory.

Glenn C. Jones, a member of the Class of '25, was so seriously injured during the tie-up Saturday morning that it was necessary to take him to the Meadville City Hospital. An examination showed that his lung had been punctured by one of three broken ribs and that he was suffering from internal injuries. His hurts are said to be the result of the application of a wrestling hold known as the scissors. A late report from the hospital has him resting easily.

Jones's home is in Monongahela, Pa.

PHI BETA KAPPA ELECTS TWO SENIORS

MARIE CHARLTON AND JOHN GIBSON, JR., ARE HONORED.

President Hixson Addresses the Students in Making the Award—Honor Students are Named.

The most important thing in college is not applause for small things, according to President Hixson, in his talk in chapel last Thursday morning.

The greatest applause now seems to be applause for the minor things in college, such as athletics, sports, etc. While these things are very important in their way, we do not applaud the fine, real things that count. We came to college to get something that will be worth while and a help to us in years to come, and some get a great deal more than others out of their opportunities.

President Hixson took this time to announce the names of the two students who would be elected to the honorary fraternity, at the beginning of this year. This is the greatest honor that can be awarded anyone during their college course.

The two students from the senior class who were elected to Phi Beta Kappa at this time were Marie Charltan and John Graham, Jr.

The honors for the students of last year's classes were announced in chapel by Dr. Akers, chairman of the committee on student work.

In each class, students who have had no grade less than B. during the year and who have maintained an average of A. were awarded "First Honors." Other students who had no grade less than C. and have maintained an average of 88 were awarded "Second Honors." Those in the Junior Class for 1920-1921 who were awarded "First Honors" were:

Glenn Busyoger, Marie Charlton, John Graham, Jr., Coral McMillin, Marion Russell,

GRADUATE OF '72 RENEWS FRIENDSHIPS

PROMINENT ALUMNUS SPENDS WEEK IN MEADVILLE, AFTER LONG ABSENCE.

"New faces, but the same old Allegheny," is the way Mr. James N. Clarke, of Hastings, Nebraska, commented on the college in an interview Monday morning. Mr. Clarke was a graduate of the Class of 1872 and is a prominent alumnus of Allegheny, who, for the past twenty-five years, has resided in the middle west.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Clarke, who was formerly a Meadville resident, being the daughter of Charles A. Derrickson, a graduate of the forties and a granddaughter of Judge David Derrickson, a member of the first graduating class in the college.

Mr. Clarke's father was a trustee of Allegheny for over fifteen years and it was during this time that his sons, Cyrus, Jr., '67, and James attended this institution.

In commenting upon the rest of his class, Mr. Clarke mentioned Mr. Enoch Hogate, '72, as head of the Law School at the University of Indiana; Mr. Jasper N. Hunt, as a member of the American Book Company, of Chicago, and the Hon. George Wolf, an eminent attorney in Pittsburgh.

After his marriage in Meadville in 1873, Mr. Clarke moved to Nashville, Tenn., and thence to Nebraska, where he began his career in the building and loan business. Aside from his connections with Allegheny he is a trustee of Hastings College and has been active in the administration of that school. He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. During the recent endowment campaign Mr. Clarke made a substantial subscription to the college, thus proving his loyalty to the institution after forty-seven years' absence. He learned while here that his brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. A. Reis, was the donor of the library, which was listed as an anonymous gift until commencement, 1920.

MODERN PROBLEMS CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR '22

W. H. MAITLAND IS ELECTED NUMBER TWENTY IN ECONOMIC SOCIETY.

On last Tuesday evening the Modern Problems Club held its first meeting of the year, and the election of officers was the primary business of the meeting. The following officers were elected by the Economic organization: W. H. Maitland, president; H. H. Buchanan, vice president, and Merrill Maitland, secretary and treasurer. Also the election of new members to the club was taken up and twenty men were elected to membership. The organization is composed of upper-classmen and open to only those who are majoring in the economics department.

The following men were elected to membership: A. J. Bender, D. W. Frazier, E. B. Kinselman, F. E. Smith and J. L. Gordon, of the Senior Class, and S. P. Bates, R. C. Blodgett, C. A. Bollinger, P. W. Clarke, R. S. Courtney, T. L. Johnson, W. M. Jones, R. L. Klingensmith, J. E. Larson, A. W. Mabon, R. M. Powell, L. A. Schafer, H. E. Sterling, V. L. Wise and I. B. Estep of the Junior Class. A new policy was adopted by the club whereby the meeting will be held the fourth Tuesday of each month at the different fraternity houses.

EDITORIAL

The Campus desires to welcome every Alumnus back for the Grove City game. Your school versus rivals of old should make it well worth while.

Do you want to write for The Campus? Have you been wanting to for a long time and yet, have waited for the invitation? If so, The Campus extends to you the opportunity. Everyone is eligible to write for the paper. The staff members can't put out the publication unless other people contribute. The staff for next year will be chosen from among this year's contributors. Do you want to be on the staff? Then come out for competition.

Maybe you have literary ability of which you have never dreamed. Give yourself a chance, at least.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS AGAIN.

The series of concerts, sponsored by the Meadville Public Schools and Dr. Church, the first of such a nature ever to be undertaken here, offers an unusual opportunity to Allegheny students. It has often been complained that there is little chance for the musical and artistic side of the student to develop; as people argue that a certain necessary part of the individual's personality lies dormant and is in danger of being lost. It is to meet this long recognized need at Allegheny that such artists as Charles Cadman, the American composer and pianist; Olive Kline, the soprano and Victor artist, and Guy Maier and Lee Pattison, the foremost two pianists recitalists in America, are to appear in Ford Memorial Chapel this year. The leading baritone of the metropolitan Opera Company, Clarence Whitehill, and the Chamber Music Art Society of New York, will also give concerts. For the past few years there has been considerable discussion concerning some program and its realization is now assured. Every Allegheny student welcomes this means of enjoying here what had before seemed impossible; nor can the success of the plan fail to attract the attention of more students to Allegheny in the future.

Allegheny should be proud of the business-like way in which the affairs of the different publications art conducted. With the inauguration of the Publications Board last year a new regime was started. Every cent now goes into the publications to make them better, with the exception of the manager's commissions. Heretofore many managers have boasted of paying a good share of their college expenses with their manager's graft. Any recurrence of this is now impossible. The manager has to obtain the authorization of the Board for every cent that he spends. At the end of the year his books are audited by the Board and the books of the Board are in turn audited by one of its committees. Subscriptions now run from Nov. 1 to Nov. 1. This gives time for all bills to be received or paid before the beginning of the new year. During the short time that the new system was operative last year it succeeded in wiping out a debt of $200, from the previous year. With such a system, Alleghenians will get the maximum good from the money it invests in its publications.

The makeup of this issue was under the direction of George L. Bird.

Read 'Em and Weep

It's out! It's out! The Frosh "bible" is ready to make its annual appearance. Neater, easier to handle, more concise than formerly, the Y. M. C. A. again makes it easier for the green and inexperienced Frosh. Minus the view of the campus and diary section that has always been a part of the "bible" of former years, this new edition contains several new features as well as the necessary "do's and dont's" yells and songs, list of registered students, introduction to the faculty, curriculum and organizations and all general information necessary here at Old Allegheny.

Freshmen may inquire of upperclassmen for copies.

RULES.

By Lois A. Halderman.

My reason is unsteady for memorizing rules; I've learned enough already to run a hundred schools. My mind is growing lazy; my memory is hazy, and soon I'll be as crazy as many other fools. Since I'm a green beginner they thing they have the right to feed me rules for dinner, to feed me rules at night. As though it were for wages I've learned them by the pages; a storm of rules still rages with no relief in sight. My head is crammed with orders, with pledges and with laws; so narrow are my borders there is no room for flaws. My walls they are adorning; I read them every morning; without the slightest warning, they have me in their claws. By rules I lace my shoes up; by rules I comb my hair; by rules I lift my teacup for rules pollute the air. Yet not alone I wear it, for all the Freshmen share it—this yoke—it's either wear it or spend our days in prayer. By rules I do my sleeping; by rules I speak to folks; by rules I do my weeping; by rules I crack my jokes. While working or reclining, some rule I'm underlining, some contract I am signing, dressed up in fancy cloaks. The "do's" are on my right side; the "dont's" are on my left; I'm like a convict twice tried for murder and for theft. Would there be sweet commotion if I should get the notion to end it in the ocean and join the glad bereft? With face that's worn and eager I watch the mail appear. My hopes grow brighter, bigger; I grin from ear to ear. I fancy some relation who took me to the station will end my desperation—remember I am here. But mother's brutal letter contains rules by the score; ;Dad does a little better and sends a dozen more. I fold the thing in creases; before my anger ceases, I tear it into pieces and madly walk the floor.

MAYBE IT WAS THEIR NIGHT TO TEAR.

Two deer, an owl, and a snake were out all night last Wednesday. It is thought that they grew bored in their places in Ruter Hall Museum and decided to go out with the boys. They were back in their places Thursday afternoon, but looked a little the worse for wear. The purpose of this article, aside from its news value, is to let everyone know that there is a museum in the first floor of Ruter. The story is true.

Y. M. C. A. HAS

While the well-filled room was very gratifying, the fact was emphasized that there are even yet a far greater number of men on the hill who should be present at these truly masculine meetings.

The manner in which the song service was conducted made it quite evident that singing has not lost its popularity among men. Each song selected was one filled with inspiration, yet not lacking in animation.

The talks, while very informal and rather brief, were filled with many helpful suggestions of a very practical nature. The general topic was, "What the Y. M. C. A. has meant to me," to which many supplementary subjects were added. Each speaker emphasized the importance of the organization, especially to the Freshmen. Several members of the Class of '25 gave an ardent expression of their appreciation of the Y. M. C. A. and offered their co-operation.

Acting upon the suggestion of a member, a short practice of Allegheny songs and yells was held after the service. The hearty manner in which this somewhat novel feature was executed showed very clearly that the men of the Y. M. C. A. are all-around loyal Alleghenians.

The optimist never sees the hole in the doughnut.

found in the list of honorary members."

Henry, '23; Braun, '24; Buchanan, '24, and Bozic, '23, made short speeches, asking for co-operation in the year's work. Although only a small group were present, applications for membership were accepted from those signifying their intention to attend the meetings and join in the discussions. Contrary to the former membership policy, only a limited number will be enrolled to this now elective society.

Debates, discussions and drills in parliamentary procedure are some of the features of the forum, all of which are fundamental in the art of public speaking. Dr. Swartley has given a large part of his time in the interests of this society in the college. He stated that practically all of the material for the debate teams and oratorical contests was found first through the Forum.

Those elected for membership in the society at the meeting were: Nellis H. Fisher, Ralph H. Memmler, Adams Anderson, Robert Leeper, R. J. Hirst, Collins Veatch and Sam E. Warren.

At the next meeting on Friday afternoon a debate has been arranged: "Resolved, That the United States should provide Unemployment Insurance. The affirmative will be upheld by H. H. Buchanan and the negative will be aken by Charles Teft.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED FOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

At the first meeting of the Girls' Glee Club, Sept. 29th, the following officers were elected: Leader, Alta Postance; manager, Elouise Fink; assistant manager, Ruble Rishell.

Tryouts are now being held fo rnew members. The list of members will be completed this week. The club expects to start work on its first program within a short time.

CURRENT EVENTS.

One of the recent developments of the Army Ordinance Corps was demonstrated in Washington a few days ago. This was flashless gun powder; making possible night firing without illumination.

The American Relief Administration is doing good work. At present it is feeding 15,000 students in educational centers of Warsaw and other cities.

Parades of masked men are not permitted in San Antonio and Cameron, Texis, according to officials from these cities. Six dictrict judges in Texas were also on record as having denounced the Ku Klux Klan.

The busiest chaperon in the world is said to be Olive Pressler. As president of the Associated Women Students of the University of California, she is responsible for the welfare of more than 5,000 feminine students of the largest university in America.

Two Scotch Boy Scouts, J. W. S. Marr, of Aberdeen, and N. E. Mooney, of Kirkwall, Orkney Islands, 19 and 17 years of age, respectively, have been selected from ten picked applicants to accompany Sir Ernest Shackleton on his Antarctic expedition.

Virginia City, Nevada, the home of Mark Twain and Bret Harte, once a city of 35,000 inhabitants, has now diminished to a town of less than 2,000. Formerly busy streets are caving into abandoned mines.

The unique service held at Gloucester, Mass., for many years as memorial for the fishermen who had been lost at sea during the year, was held a few weeks ago. A vivid description of this observance is given in Kipling's "Captains Courageous."

PANHELLENIC PARTY.

The Panhellenic organization of sororities on the hill entertained the freshmen girls at a dinner-dance Friday, Oct. 7.

At 6 o'clock the upper-class girls with their Freshman partners assembled in Hulings living room and then adjourned to the dining room, where dainty place cards and lighted candles decorated the tables. A chicken dinner was served amid laughter and song.

At 8 o'clock the party removed to the college gym, which also had been appropriately decorated for the occasion with banners, floor lamps and cozy corners. Gage's orchestra furnished music for a lively dance. At 11 o'clock the orchestra played "Home, Sweet Home" and the party came to a successful close.

Guests of the evening were Miss Spalding, Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Henke, Miss Rowley, Mrs. Laffer and Mrs. Black.

COLLEGE BAND MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE.

In spite of the bad weather last Saturday afternoon the spirit of the college band could not be dampened, and they played several selections. Much favorable comment was passed by spectators who were unanimous in their opinion that the band is an essential factor in the winning of football games. This holds true of not only football, but all athletic contests, and it is hoped that the band will continue its good work throughout the year.

FACULTY NOTES.

Mrs. B. Vaissade and daughter, Miss Marthe Cheveret, of California, are guests of Miss Antionette Cheveret instructor in the French department of the college. They are enroute to New York by way of Buffalo and Niagara Falls and will return to California by New Orleans and southern route, stopping at the principal cities of the south.

Meadville High was soundly trounced by Academy High in Erie last Saturday. Final score being 51-0.

Alfred Univ. Holds Allegheny to Tie Score

Muddy Field Prevents Exhibition of Good Foot Ball.

Numerous fumbles and the inability to maintain a consistent offensive proved the undoing of the Blue and Gold eleven in her game with Alfred last Saturday on Montgomery Field. A sea of mud greatly handicapped the local backs, who fumbled repeatedly in some instances after substantial gains had been made.

Due credit must be given the "fightin' fools" from Alfred, as they put up a sterling game, but from a fan's standpoint they were favored with all the breaks. Much unfavorable comment has been passed on the New Yorkers' tackling, which was very "dirty" at times.

Allegheny had a wonderful chance to score in the fourth quarter as a result of gains made in rapid sucecssion by Meyers, Parker and Blackwell. However, a fumble at this point turned the tide and gave the purple clad warriors renewed vigor. The Blue and Gold line displayed strong defensive powers and Alfred was unable to penetrate for any substantial gains, but one first down being credited to the visitors. Allegheny made a total of ten first downs.

Both teams resorted to punting in a great many instances, as neither could gain consistently owing to the bad weather conditions.

The local backs deserve special credit for their excellent performances. Houser, Alec Graham, Myers, Parker and Blackwell gave some pretty exhibitions during the course of the game.

Alfred had no outstanding stars, but braced at the critical moments and held Allegheny.

Detail—First Quarter:

Capt. Kramer won the toss and chose to defend the east goal. Murphy kicked off to R. Campbell, who ran the ball back five yards. Witter made two yards on a line buck through center. Gardner fumbled and Allegheny recovered the ball. Murphy punted to Burns on Alfred's 10-yard line. A blocked punt resulted in a touchback. Ball put into play on 20-yard line. Alfred punted to Murphy, who fumbled. Alfred recovered. Gardner plunged through center for five yards. Alfred fumbled on next play. Allegheny's ball on 18-yard line. A. Graham made three yards through right tackle. Houser ran around left end for three yards. Mort Graham made a yard through right tackle. Quarter ended with ball on Allegheny's 23-yard line.

Second quarter:

Murphy punted to midfield. Gardner and Burns failed to gain in two attempts. Gardner punted out of bounds. Ball put in play on 40-yard line. Alec Graham made first down on a buck through center. Mort Graham hit right tackle for one yard. A. Graham again plunged through center for five yards. Allegheny penalized five yards for offside playing. A fumble and recovery by Allegheny. A. Graham gained one yard through left guard. M. Graham failed to gain on next play. A. Graham made first down. M. Graham failed at right tackle. A Graham made two yards around right end. A. Graham made two yards at right tackle and first down. Ball on 20-yard line. Allegheny fumbled, Alfred recovered. Witter and Burns failed to gain on next two plays. Gardner punted to M. Graham. Allegheny was penalized five yards because Graham ran on a fair catch. M. Graham made two yards through right tackle. Shultz fumbled a forward pass on next play. Alfred's ball. Gardner hit center for five yards. Gardner punted to Morley. M. Graham made five yards through right tackle. Half ended with ball at about midfield.

Third quarter:

Gardner kicked off to Houser, who returned ball about five yards. Houser ran into hard luck and fumbled after making a pretty run around left end. Alfred recovered. R. Campbell failed to gain on first play. Witter made a yard through center. Gardner fumbled. Kramer recovered for Allegheny. Allegheny's ball on 30-yard line.

Houser made three yards through left tackle. Allegheny penalized five yards for offside playing. A. Graham made five yards at center. A. Graham hit right tackle for one yard. Allegheny fumbled, Alfred recovered. Ball in midfield. Witter failed to gain at right tackle. Burns made three yards around right end. Failed to gain on next play. Gardner punted to Morley, who was downed in his tracks. M. Graham hit right tackle for one yard. Failed to gain on next play. Parker substituted for Houser. Parker made 10 yards around left end. A. Graham failed to gain on next play. Blackwell for A. Graham. Parker made one yard through left tackle. Blackwell made first down on next play. Parker attempted a pass, but it went wild. Parker made two yards around right end. Murphy punted to midfield. recovered for Allegheny.

Fourth quarter:

Parker failed to gain on next two plays. Parker made first down. Blackwell failed at right tackle. Blackwell made two yards through left guard. Blackwell made one yard through right guard. Parker made two yards through right guard. Parker crashed through left guard for one yard. Blackwell failed to gain on next play. Alfred's ball on 10-yard line. Gardner punted to Morley. A high punt which he caught on the 15-yard line. Blackwell made one yard at right guard. Wills for Morley. A double pass failed which Alfred recovered. Gardner fails at line buck through center. Gardner punted and recovered. Ball on midfield. Judd for Reed. Alfred attempted two forward passes, one of which netted about five yards. Alfred penalized ten yards for offside playing. Gardner punted to M. Graham on 30-yard line. Myers for M. Graham. Alfred intercepted an Allegheny pass. Alfred attempted to substitute Peck, who had just been taken out and was penalized 30 yards for this technicality. Gardner punted to Myers. Ball in midfield. Myers ran left end for 15 yards. Allegheny penalized five yards for offside playing. Myers made one yard at left tackle. Game ended with ball in midfield.

WHEEZES BY GUNGA DIN.

Gus Desch, who broke the world's record for the 440 hurdles in the Penn Relays last spring, is playing a halfback position on the Notre Dame grid team this season.

Carnegie Tech has a bad habit of running up 42 points to the visitor's none. Last year Allegheny was a victim of this preculiarity, while Thiel and Westminster have been on the short-end of the score so far this season.

Watch W. and J. In their first game of the season, the President's defeated Bucknell by a large score and rolled up 54 points on W. Va. Wesleyan last Saturday. They are out to avenge the defeat handed them by Carnegie Tech last season.

The University of Buffalo eleven will invade West Va. next Saturday to meet Bethany in Wheeling.

Princeton experienced no little difficulty in defeating Colgate 19-0 last Saturday at Princeton.

Dickinson put up a sterling game against Lafayette and held the Eastonians to 27 points.

Thiel and the University of Buffalo struggled through four quarters to a scoreless tie last Saturday in Buffalo.

West Virginia threw a scare into the Pitt camp last Saturday. Luckily Pitt won, after a hard tustle, 21-13.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH RECEPTION WAS WELL ATTENDED IN SPITE OF WEATHER.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 4, the students of the college were entertained at a reception given by the Presbyterian church. In spite of the inclement weather a fair sized assembly enjoyed the get-together. Divided into groups corresponding to the names of various college buildings, the participants staged impromptu stunts, some of which were very distinctive and original. A feature of the evening's entertainment was the journey to the "black chamber," which was full of unexpected thrills. After refreshments were served, the Rev. Mr. McElvaine made a short speech, in which he sincerely welcomed each and every student to the Presbyterian church.

FROSH-SOPH PHYSICAL TRAINING BEGINS OCT. 17

TRACK, BASKETBALL, CROSS-COUNTRY EVENTS ARE OFFERED AS ELECTIVES.

Physical training for the Freshman and Sophomore classes will start Monday, Oct. 17. The Sophomore men will report to Professor Hammett on Monday and Thursday at either 1:45 or 2:45 p. m. The Freshmen will report on Tuesday and Friday at the same hour that the other classes are held.

In case of an unavoidable conflict in the arrangement of class schedule, Prof. Hammett will take care of a class in the morning immediately after chapel on dates to be arranged.

Freshman physical examinations have been going on for the past week and will continue throughout the remainder of this week and possibly through next. The men are being examined by Prof. Hammett and then assigned to classes. Sophomore examinations will follow the Frosh exams. Though a Sophomore has not yet been examined this year, his last year's examination will hold good and he can report to the class held at the hour convenient for him.

A new feature has been added this year. Wednesday and Saturday of each week from 2 to 4 p. m. have been set aside for the development of special track events such as the high jump, pole vault, hurdles and shot.

It is now being planned to resume the mid-winter indoor track meet. None have been held for the last four years. Prof. Hammett is hoping to present the full plans in the near future.

Much new equipment has been purchased and notably among it is a huge tumbling mat eight feet long by four feet wide by two feet thick. This mat will be used in conjunction with the spring board.

Men who do not care to participate in the regular required physical training have the privilege of electing either the pre-season basketball practice or the cross-country squad. The pre-season basketball practice will be held three days a week from 4 to 6 p. m. under the direction of Captain Kofford. The cross-country squad goes out at 4 o'clock every day except Saturday and Sunday with Gale Kirschner, a varsity track man, at the head. Boxing and wrestling are expected to be under way after Thanksgiving, and those who care to change from the training classes to either of the mat sports can do so.

erned by the competitive system, and should result in the best fitted man getting the position. The candidates will be given trials in cheer leading during the coming games, and the one demonstrating the best ability in the work is the one who will be given the place. This new system of election is quite obviously fair, and at the same time insures the college getting the best cheer leader possible.

It is reported that no less than eight candidates have already been lined up, and will be given trials in the near future.

CROSS- COUNTRY.

Definite arrangements have been made by Coach Hammett for a meet with Carnegie Tech to take place in Pittsburgh Nov. 11. About twenty men now compose the squad, which will compete in the trials to be held on Nov. 5. The first five men to finish will make the trip. Plans are being made to take the men to Pittsburgh the day before the meet in order that they may inspect the course.

Tech is represented by an unusually strong cross-country squad this year. Last year's team, which defeated Lehigh and lost to Lafayette by a small margin, is practically intact.

Reputation

This store in winning the confidence of Allegheny men has won its greatest asset—good reputation.

Our reputation among college men for giving that spirited style—that something different in clothes that once lifts you out of the ordinary—is not without foundation.

When you put on a Smith suit or overcoat you'll feel a certain security, a certain distinction which only comes from wearing proper style—and you'll find that same "life" and dash in our hats and other furnishings.
