

Paul is present only J.K.W.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE
STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA

OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF WOMEN

August 15, 1934

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East Nineteenth Street
New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

To say the least, I am delighted beyond words with "The Business of Being a Woman". And I can't tell you how much it means to me to have it come from you with your own inscription. This book will be handed around constantly among our women students with due care to have them see your name and then realize that the book is very precious to me.

I appreciated your kind letter and was glad to know that you thought of having a new edition of the book. It is just as suitable today as twenty years ago. The eternal fitness of your theme reminds me of a quotation whose source I have forgotten: "The more it changes the more it remains the same." I feel just that way about your message.

Be sure that your gift is deeply appreciated and that it will remind me of the hope of having you return to our campus for a real visit.

Most sincerely yours,

Charlotte Ray