Dear Mr Lydenberg:

I am glad if you think the type-script of "All in the Day's Work" adds something to your collection. I am pleased that it has found a resting place.

You ask about my letters and manuscript source material. All the material that I have covering my Lincoln work, which is the most important at least in bulk, I am turning over to my old College - Allegheny at Meadville, Pennsylvania. We are hoping to build up a good working collection for the study of Lincoln in connection with American History. As for other materials I am not sure there is much that is worth saving. When I get the Lincoln off my hands I am going to find out. However, whatever is to be saved is already mortgaged, I fear, so I will not have the satisfaction of knowing that I am to be in your safe deposit. But I am pleased to have the matter suggested to me.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. H. M. Lydenberg
