Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
c/o Cherokee Hotel,
Tallahassee, Fla.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

The day after you left I got the scrap book and your kind note and it pleases me to know that you were pleased with your visit here.

I also received the copy of "Ashore at Maiden's Walk."

Today Mr. Yonge sent up some pictures with notation on them, "these are the pictures that Miss Tarbell selected." They are the "Woods Lot" at the Dairy Farm, the Silo, the Sugar Cane Field, the Corn Field, and the Velvet Bean Field, and I would be sending them to you in this mail, but I am not sure of your address and therefore I am sending this letter asking that it be forwarded and when you give me your correct address I will send you the pictures in first mail.

With kind regards and trusting that we will have the pleasure of seeing you here again, I am

Yours sincerely,

H.H. Thornton
