Autobiography:

In connection with this decision about going on the Peace Ship, about going on /the Tariff Commission, about taking this or that stand, this industrial stand, the stand in regard to Gary for instance, Young, the company unions, ~~the~~ that thing in one tragic element/that makes them go it alone unable to join the crowd, although that crowd be the one where your deepest sympathies lie; the tragedies, the humiliation/in that came in the case of the Peace Ship and decided upon those/greater that were, not only in achievement but in mind, probably more far-seeing than I hampered by something, hampered by an unwillingness to revolt. I had come to a point where I had reached the limit beyond which I couldn't see. I am a poor follower and that is the tragedy of it.

Digital Image, 2013. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library