

THREE SUTTON PLACE

May 1, 1933

Dearest Ida:

Since I had the joy of seeing you the other day--and by the way, what an interesting person Mrs. Buck is--everything has been settled and we are to have the meeting of the Jury of Award on Wednesday, May twenty-fourth, at one o'clock. mlw

In the meanwhile, I forgot to mention one thing. In my first letter there was some misunderstanding in regard to the dinner next November. We do not want to bother you to preside over the whole meeting--simply to present the medal to whoever is the winner of the award. More of this when we meet.

Always devotedly,

Rene M.
