My dear Miss Tarbell:

Judge Gary desired you to have the enclosed copy of a letter from Andrew Carnegie dated November 28, 1906, thinking that you may wish to use it in your manuscript. The original is in our files here.

I hope you are having a real vacation for the two weeks referred to in your letter recently received.

TWO EAST NINETY-FIRST STREET
NEW YORK

Nov. 28th, 1906.

My dear Judge,

Thanks for kind note. Delighted always to see you, have always felt drawn to you, and from the first you ~~were~~^{won} my confidence.

The "boom" has placed the Steel Co on solid ground. What a future is hers if you continue at its head.

Shall be at home tomorrow afternoon, or Friday. Glad to see you. My greetings to your dear wife. I read of your union with much pleasure, for without a good woman to look after us judging from myself we are poor creatures.

Sincerely yours

(Sgd.) Andrew Carnegie.
