Dear Miss Wolfe:

As you were kind enough to write me in your letter of March 2 that Miss Tarbell would send us a few words of tribute to Miss Reed for our April magazine, I wonder if I may asked you whether she has remembered it, and if so when we may expect to hear from her?

It was so very good of her to consent to do it that we hesitate even to remind you of it, but as you can well understand, I am sure, how we are looking forward to it and how greatly we appreciate her finding the time to take out of her busy life, I hope you will forgive my writing again to you about it.

Our magazine will have to go to press this week, but we will hold it until the last minute in hope of having Miss Tarbell's article.

I should appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible. With thanks, I am

Yours very truly,

Mary G. Birney
