Dear Miss Tarbell -

This is a very tardy acknowledgement of your kindness in inscribing my copy of "All in the Days Work". But I wanted to read it first and my hours are so long and tiring that the days fly by and not much is taken care of. Now, at last, I have read and do very greatly enjoyed your splendid book. Such a full, true life!

How much I admire
you - always Lee, but more since reading this book - Keep you write much more -
With every good wish and many thanks for your generous inscription
I am, with affection
