SORORITIES ENTERTAIN AT INTER-GREEK DANCE

THE PAN-HELLENIC ASSOCIATION
GIVES PARTY AT ARMORY FOR FRESHMAN GIRLS

One of the best all-women college functions in years was held last Thursday evening at the State Armory when the Pan-Hellenic Association gave a formal dance in honor of the freshmen girls.

This dance is held at the beginning of every college year in order that the new girls may become better acquainted with each other and the members of the several sororities. Each freshman was permitted only two dances with the girls of any one sorority.

Patronesses of the dance were Mrs. Fred W. Hixson, Mrs. R. W. Thomas, Mrs. F. P. Miller, Mrs. Walton, Mrs. B. Garble, Mrs. S. Adrian McCoy, Mrs. A. S. Emig, Miss Eleanor Gill, Miss Eleanor McKay, Miss Josephine Perkins, Miss Varenne Collins, and Miss Dorothy Schanck.

A receiving line composed of Dean Wren Staley, Mrs. Fred W. Hixson, and the senior members of the Pan-Hellenic Association greeted the couples as they came in the door.

The hall was decorated to suit the occasion. Blue and gold streamers were stretched in canopy effect across the hall, and College and fraternity banners ornamented the walls. Autumn leaves were strewn about the hall.

Dancing began immediately after the Grand March at eight o'clock and lasted until eleven. Music was furnished by the Crescent Orchestra, which has the reputation of being one of the best orchestras that has ever played at Allegheny.

Credit for the success of the evening may be given to the various committees. The committee in charge of decorations was made up of Mary Louise Murphy, Annabelle Mosher, Dorothy Holeman, and Martha Schwartz. Frances Stoolfer, Ellen Mary Reeve, and Ruth Meyers were in charge of the refreshments. Punch and wafers were served.

Football Team Entertained At Dinner in Cochran Hall

As a tribute to the prowess of Allegheny's football team, a banquet was served in their honor Monday evening at 6:00 p. m., in Cochran Hall.

The football squad numbered about thirty-five and filled four tables. A fine chicken dinner was served to those who regularly eat at Cochran Hall as well as to the team. Following the pie-a-la-mode Cheerleader Hartman lead the diners in several rousing cheers.

Under the direction of Mrs. Mittan, matron at Cochran Hall, the dining room was very tastefully decorated. Blue and Gold crepe paper was cleverly draped about the room, and large Allegheny pennants were hung about the walls. The tables were also artistically decorated in blue and gold.

MERCHANTS' CARAVAN PARADES ON CAMPUS

ERIE BUSINESS MEN BRING BAND
—STOP TO SERENADE HULLINGS HALL

Making a good will tour in the interest of Erie's retail business, a caravan of about thirty automobiles, under the direction of the Retail Merchant's Board of the Erie Chamber of Commerce, crossed the campus at 2:15 on Friday. A band accompanying the Board played several selections while on the campus and finished their short visit by serenading Hullings Hall. Various members of the caravan met their daughters and sons and had a short reunion. The caravan left Erie at eight o'clock in the morning with Titusville as the final stop.

Kennedy Crumrine, '22, is in New York, where he is taking graduate work at Columbia University.

Paul S. Dwyer, '21, who spent the summer at the University of Chicago, has returned to Pennsylvania State College to take up his work as instructor in the mathematics department. This will be Mr. Dwyer's fourth year in this department.

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS GIVEN HONORARY DEGREE

W. C. DEMING, '90, IS AWARDED
DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS
YESTERDAY MORNING

William Chapin Deming, Allegheny A. B. '90 and M. A. '93, received the degree of Doctor of Laws at the regular Chapel exercises yesterday, October 7. Dr. Deming is a well known editor and public servant. He is especially famed in the far West, where he was the editor of several dailies and the president of the Board of Trustees of the University of Wyoming. He is at present president of the United States Civil Service Commission. Dr. Deming is also the author of several books.

Following the awarding of the degree by President Fred W. Hixson, the distinguished alumnus spoke a few words of thanks and followed with a short address to the student body. His talk dealt chiefly with the advantage a college graduate had over the less educated person. But education alone cannot make success, experience and hard work must supplement it. Furthermore, we should not depend upon the element of luck to win us a place in the world.

NO NEWS OF MISSING

FRESHMAN IS RECEIVED

DISAPPEARANCE OF ARTHUR
JAMES STILL REMAINS A MYSTERY

The usual popular press misrepresentation has followed the disappearance of Arthur James from the College. The rumor of his kidnapping by the sophomores is little short of absurd. At present no news of any reliable nature has been learned of the freshman, nor is there any accurate and unimpeachable theory for his disappearance.

Regardless of the facts in the case, sensational publicity and notoriety is bound to follow such an incident. It is the purpose of this article to make a plea for fair-mindedness and conservatism on the part of the student body. The almost unbelievable distortion of the facts in the hazing case of last year is ample proof of the dangerous effects of unfounded rumors, upon the name of the College.

FOOTBALL TEAM WELCOMES DAY OF REST SATURDAY

OPEN DATE SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER 11—HARD GAMES TO FOLLOW

After two of the hardest early-season games that an Allegheny team ever had, the Blue and Gold gridgers will welcome the open date on the schedule which comes next Saturday. The entire squad, and particularly Dolde and Smith, will have a chance to rest up and get in shape for the Thiel battle scheduled for October 18, at Greenville.

It is expected that Smith, who has been suffering from an infected stone bruise on his foot, will be in condition to get in the game with the Greenville outfit. Dolde's knee was hurt again in the West Virginia game, and the extra week's rest will likely be of great benefit to the injury. Dahl has been somewhat used up in the first two games, and will get a much-needed rest, while Fuller, who was knocked out in last week's game, should be in excellent shape when Holleran's eleven is met, a week from Saturday.

The Thiel gridgers are one of Allegheny's most bitter rivals, and a

Second Homecoming Day Is Arranged for Saturday, Nov. 8

Allegheny's second annual Homecoming Day for all her alumni is scheduled for Saturday, November 8, the day of the football game with Westminster College.

The committee in charge has made no definite plans for the occasion up to this time, but it assures all alumni that the Old College will do herself proud in welcoming graduates and former students at this great autumn rally.

ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION DISCUSSES DEBATE PLANS

GROUP FAVORS EXPANSION OF ORATORICAL ACTIVITIES DURING CURRENT YEAR

At a meeting of the Oratorical Association held Monday afternoon in the Library, plans for the ensuing year were talked of and a probable schedule for the debating team discussed.

The members present at the meeting were Ralph Demmler, president, Doris Peterson, secretary, and G. A. Palmer, treasurer, and Faculty Members S. S. Swartley, A. S. Emig, and B. J. Hovde.

After a discussion of general business, Dr. Swartley read a letter from Furman University asking to be put on Allegheny's debating schedule. After some deliberation it was decided not to meet this team.

The teams which Allegheny will probably debate are Western Reserve, Wooster, and Oberlin. In addition to these schools, negotiations are to be carried on with Penn State, University of Pittsburgh, and several western New York colleges.

Dr. Swartley brought to the attention of the members the meeting of the Pennsylvania Debating Association, October 11, at Harrisburg, to decide on the question to be debated by Pennsylvania colleges this season. It was decided that no one should represent Allegheny at this meeting. Since Allegheny debates very few Pennsylvania schools, it was deemed an unnecessary expenditure.

During the meeting a move was made to increase the number of faculty members on the board by two. Professor W. F. Woodrig and Professor A. L. Funk were suggested.

POPULAR NOVELIST TALKS TO STUDENTS AT CHAPEL

MISS ZONA GALE DELIGHTS COLLEGE WITH SHORT IMPROMPTU CHAT

Zona Gale, mid-western authoress, known especially for her book, "Miss Lulu Bett," addressed an audience of students in Ford Memorial Chapel last Friday morning. Miss Gale spoke briefly, and in her talk, which was of an informal nature, she treated several subjects.

The speaker declared that she was pleased to address a co-educational college gathering. In such a group the students are fully aware that the opportunities for men and women are equal. In the West co-education is readily accepted, but in the East, Miss Gale said, she was surprised to find it still a controversial question.

The speaker then told of women in politics. She said that many women do not hesitate to accept an appointive office but they shrink at the thought of taking an elective one. Women should have the same opportunity in politics that they now enjoy in education.

Miss Gale changed to another subject, and after several illustrations told how people did the right thing because of an inner urge that compelled them to do it. There is the opposite situation, too, as people have often left undone things that ought to have been done. Miss Gale concluded her talk with the statement, "Business isn't just business, and studying isn't just studying—they are both exercises in human relationship."

Following her speech in the Chapel, Miss Gale was the guest at a luncheon at Saegertown Inn at which a number of the Allegheny community were present. There she spoke on "Women in Congress."

Dr. Schultz Lends Collection Of German Money to Library

An interesting display of modern German money has been put in the show case in the reading room of the Library. This money was collected by Dr. J. R. Schultz, who traveled through Germany during his recent sabbatic leave. The money is in paper bills with denominations ranging from 100 marks to 2,000,000 marks, with the predominance greatly in favor of the latter type.

The librarian also announces the addition of about fifty new books. The fifty books cover almost that many different fields—from architecture to literary criticism and from science to fiction.

FOOTBALL TEAM GIVEN ENTHUSIASTIC SEND-OFF

STUDENTS TURN OUT EN MASSE
TO CHEER TEAM ON DEPARTURE FOR MORGANTOWN

In order to give the football team a fitting send-off to Morgantown, the first two classes on Friday were shortened and Chapel service was omitted. When the second hour class was dismissed at 9:30, the freshmen formed in two single columns behind the College Band at the Gymnasium and marched across the campus to Park Avenue. The band played intermittently while the upperclassmen, on the sidewalks, marched in time to their selections. A large crowd had already assembled at the Erie depot, when the marchers and the train arrived at the same time.

Yells were given for all the players and the coaches, with a final cheer for the band.

MEN'S SENATE NOMINATES UPPER CLASS OFFICERS

FORMAL ELECTION TO TAKE PLACE DURING PRESENT WEEK

Meeting last Thursday afternoon, the Men's Senate nominated the following men for the ruling offices in the three upper classes:

Senior Class president, Robert E. Piper; treasurer, Glenn C. Jones.

Junior Class president, Harold E. Milliken; treasurer, Edgar C. Dehne. Sophomore Class president, Cyril B. Hartman; treasurer, W. B. McClelland.

The formal election of these men to their respective offices will take place in the near future.

The nominations are made under a new system whereby the Student Senate acts as an interfraternity council and choose the nominee for each office from a list submitted by the members of the various classes in the different fraternities.

LOYAL ALLEGHENIANS TRAVEL TO MORGANTOWN

STUDENTS USE DIVERS METHODS OF TRANSPORTATION TO MAKE LONG JOURNEY

Approximately one hundred twenty-five Alleghenians utilized all known methods and means of transportation to negotiate the two hundred and some odd miles between Meadville and Morgantown in order to witness the annual Allegheny-West Virginia gridiron tilt last Saturday.

All day Friday, from early morning until late at night, a continuous stream of students in groups of two and three might be found along the entire route to Pittsburgh. Some motored, some went on the train, while others hired Fords, or "bummed." The majority attempted to make Pittsburgh by Friday night, where they spent the night with relatives or friends, continuing on to Morgantown Saturday morning. Many of the students, living in the Pittsburgh district, bumbled to that city and made the balance of the journey in the family flivver.

The weather was ideal for the trip, and everyone who possibly could, took advantage of it. The roads were crowded with motorists who were glad to heed the signs "Allegheny to West Virginia—Give us a Lift," and few, if any, of the hikers found it necessary to do any walking at all. Some indeed were so fortunate as to get lifts all the way from near Meadville to Pittsburgh or farther.

While in Morgantown, the visitors were treated in the finest possible manner. Many stayed over at the various fraternity houses, and report being entertained in a royal manner. The spirit displayed by both sides at the game was also worthy of note, and it speaks well for the friendly relations existing between the two schools.

The usual collection of souvenirs of the trip was made, of course, and numerous pieces of silverware, menus, towels, signs, and other movable articles are now displayed about the Hill.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD HOLDS SECOND MEETING

SALARIES VOTED KALDRON EDITOR AND NEWLY ELECTED MANAGERS

Compensating the managers of Allegheny's several publications and the advisability of editing a humorous publication at Allegheny, were the chief matters of business taken up at a meeting of the Publications Board held Tuesday, September 30, in Alden Hall.

The first business taken up was a few matters unfinished at the previous meeting. The compensation of the newly elected managers was decided upon. E. A. Hill, manager of the Kaldron, was voted an annual salary of $25.00. Theodore Borrell, assistant manager of the Campus, was voted an annual salary of $20.00. These two men are to compete with Harold R. Milliken, manager of the Literary Monthly, for the position of General Manager of Publications next year. A salary of $50.00 was voted to Charles Taylor, Editor of the Kaldron.

After ordering the signing of a contract with the Canton Engraving Company for the engraving in the Kaldron, the matter of an Allegheny humorous publication was brought before the board. John M. Pratt and E. A. Hill presented a prospectus of the magazine. The members discussed the practicability and the expense of the project. The matter was referred to a committee consisting of Prof. L. D. McClean and W. A. Risher.

DR. SWARTLEY TALKS TO COLLEGE BIBLE CLASS

PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH COM-
PARES PAST AND PRESENT
RELIGIOUS STANDARDS

Meeting last Sunday for the second time of the year, in the Oratory of Ford Memorial Chapel, at 9:45, the College men's Bible class enjoyed a lesson by Dr. S. S. Swartley.

The lesson by Dr. Swartley dealt with a comparison of life with old religious standards. Today standards of the time are set against those made by Jesus. People get into the habit of following a standard, and when a new standard is presented it is hard for them to adopt it. For this reason we form the opinion that older people are ultra-conservative when in reality they are not. The younger generation should better adapt themselves to look at a thing objectively; to see its good and its bad points before passing judgment on it.

The question of a permanent teacher was again brought up after the lesson, but no definite action was taken.

SUCCESS ATTENDS FIRST MEETING OF Y. M. C. A.

STUDENT SPEAKERS DISCUSS VA-RIOUS PHASES OF COLLEGE
Y. M. C. A. ACTIVITIES

"Why the Y." was the topic of the first meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held last Wednesday evening at seven o'clock in the basement of Cochran Hall.

There were four speakers, each of whom pointed out one of the phases of "Why the Y." Although the subject could be one of national interest, the speakers concentrated their talks on the Y. M. C. A. in Allegheny. R. O. Barber explained that it is to lead students to faith in God through Christ Jesus. A second phase, to lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church, was outlined by William McClurg. A third talk by Carl G. Steward told how the Y promoted growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible and prayer. Finally Clarence Avey explained the way in which the Y made the will of God effective in human society, and extended the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

Dr. C. F. Ross told of his interest in the Y. M. C. A. and of its need of support.

Leo Ross, president of the Men's Senate, pledged the support of that organization to the betterment of the Y during the coming year.

GRAND OPERA TO OPEN FOURTH CONCERT SERIES

FOUR NUMBERS INCLUDED IN MUSICAL PROGRAM FOR
YEAR 1924-1925

Allegheny is to have a series of concerts during the winter months which will surpass any that have been presented heretofore. The entertainments of last year were exceptionally good, but those that have been booked for the coming months are attractions of even greater renown.

The following is the program of four presentations of sterling quality: 1. October 30—Grand Opera, "The Marriage of Figaro," by Mozart. A William Wade Hinshaw production composed of an all star cast directed by Ernest Knoch. Orchestra accompaniment. 2. Date to be arranged—The New York String Quartette; a rare ensemble group. 3. March 19—Percy Grainger, a pianist of international reputation. 4. April 16—Vladimir Rosing, the sensational Russian tenor.

Each of the four productions will be presented in the local high school auditorium. Season tickets will be sold for $5 each, a reasonable sum considering the expense incurred in bringing these attractions to Meadville.

The Grand Opera production will be accompanied by the Chamber Orchestra, and the cast will include eight stars of international prominence, such as Miss Editha Fleischer, Soprano, as "Susanna," and Pavel Ludikar, Bass-Baritone, as "Figaro."

The New York String Quartette, well known in the musical world, will present a good program of classical music.

Percy Grainger, pianist, has made his reputation for the most part in the larger cities of Europe, having appeared before the King and Queen of Norway and other royal families.

Vladimir Rosing, the Russian tenor, has been well recommended by the critics, and is known to possess a voice of unusual finish.

FRESHMEN JOURNALISTS GIVEN COURSE OF STUDY

CAMPUS DEPARTMENT EDITORS
TO TALK BRIEFLY TO COM-
PETITORS OF STAFF

Freshmen competitors for positions on the staff of the Campus will be aided in their initiation into college journalism by an instruction course that has been planned for them. There will be a variation in the course this year, but it will remain fundamentally the same as those courses that have been given journalistic aspirations before.

The freshmen will be given a talk every Wednesday following the regular Campus staff meeting by the various members of the editorial staff. On Wednesday, October 7, John M. Pratt, the managing editor, will talk to them on the "lead" sentence. The following week, Edgar C. Dehne, the news editor, will emphasize the development of the news article and the economy of words.

It is intended that in this way the competitors will be fitted for the positions of reporters that will fall to them in their sophomore years.

GLEE CLUB HOLDS FIRST TRYOUTS FOR SINGERS

MANAGEMENT PLANS PROGRAM
OF EXPANSION UNDER PRO-TECTION OF NEW FEE

Tryouts for Allegheny Glee Club were held yesterday afternoon in Ford Chapel under the supervision of Prof. Lee Hess Barnes. From the number and quality of the candidates present the club has a great future in store for the coming year.

Protected by the new fund which was assessed on each student when he registered, the club should be able to have a very successful season. Trips to Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Warren, and other cities are anticipated. Mr. John H. Miller, Student Manager of the Club, is busy at present making arrangements for the coming season.

CLASS ELECTIONS

One of the important events on the calendar of student affairs is the annual election of class officers which takes place early in the year. Formerly, the choice of officers was based on the popularity and ability of the candidates, but during the past few years the elections in the three upper classes have been actually, though not avowedly, controlled by group politics. Though the results of the system were not always unfortunate, the situation became so obviously unfair and objectionable that the Men's Senate of last year formulated a plan to eliminate, as far as possible, politics from elections.

The plan, which was not put into operation until this year, is this: Each fraternity nominates its candidates for the offices of president and treasurer of each class. The Men's Senate then chooses, from the eight men named for each office, one man who is formally nominated in his class meeting as the choice of the Senate. Of course, other nominations may be made, but all fraternity men are expected to support the candidates chosen by the Senate. The advantage of this plan is that it provides for some deliberation and some measure of fairness in selection of officers, and eliminates the old system of "railroading" elections.

Some have raised objections to the new plan, because they feel that it deprives the students of direct choice in their elections. This objection, of course, is reasonable, but not altogether valid, because almost all men are represented in the Student Senate; and the Senate acts only as a representative body. The new plan is, at any rate, a step in the right direction, and its effectiveness can be judged only after it has been tried.

A CHEERLESS CHEER PRACTICE

It was a sorry assemblage that greeted the cheer leader at Montgomery Field last Thursday afternoon, after the personal request by Coach Davies that the student body report there for cheer practice in anticipation of the West Virginia game. It was so sorry, in fact, that it was inadvisable to attempt to cheer. By actual count there were twenty-two of Allegheny's three hundred and fifty men students on hand, and not a single one of her two hundred co-eds.

There is absolutely no reason why at least four hundred loyal Alleghenians could not have appeared, and there should have been a perfect turnout. We seem to have a queer conception of spirit here at Allegheny. We boost our team and our college to people outside; we send big a delegation two hundred miles to Morgantown; we go out of our way to congratulate the coach and the members of the team individually; yet it seems impossible to get concerted action out of our college group.

There is apparently no reason for this; it is just our way. But our way must change, for in order to put an enthusiastic team on the field, it is necessary that the student body be doubly enthusiastic and display that enthusiasm on all propitious occasions.

We hope that there is no recurrence of the farce and tragedy of last Thursday. The only way by which this can be accomplished would necessitate the forgetting of petty differences and the breaking of the barriers imposed by cliques. A bigger, a better, and a happier Allegheny would be the result.

DON'T GET DISCOURAGED, BOYS!

There is a persistent cry among the pessimistic youths of today, as there has been a persistent cry among the pessimistic youths of every age, that there's no chance for a young fellow to rise in the world, that the good old days of golden opportunities have gone, and that the best one can hope for is a decent living on a fair salary. In the light of statistics gathered and conclusions reached by the National Industrial Conference Board this doleful lament is quite unwarranted. The last census, that of 1920, shows that there were some forty odd million men employed under the supervision of a million and a half administrators. If we have a population of 120,000,000 in 1930, about 50,000,000 will be gainfully employed, and about 400,000 new executives will be needed, to say nothing of replacements in the old force of supervisors.

With practically a half million good jobs waiting to be filled within the next six years, don't get discouraged, boys.

NEARLY FIFTY ALLEGHENIANS VISIT CHAUTAUQUA DURING PAST SUMMER

During the past summer Chautauqua Assembly Grounds seemed to be a popular spot for students and alumni of the College to spend their vacation. Many of the Alleghenians were employed there while others were enjoying the beauty of the lake and its surroundings. Had it not been for the work of some of the people of Allegheny, the Chautauqua Daily could never have been published, baggage could not have been handled properly, the boats would have all been lost or stolen, the piers would not have been maintained. In fact it is indeed doubtful if Chautauqua could have run had it not been for the energy exerted by some of our people. The following is a partial list of the alumni and students who were at Chautauqua during the past months: Elizabeth Bentley, Charles Havice, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, John Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pratt, Seth Hough, John Miller, Charles Hammett, Jr., Elizabeth Hammett, Marietta Laffer, Mildred Lose, Muriel Green, Marian Blake, Lee Berlin, Anna Rightmire, Cecelia Johnston, Mildred Button, Orpha Starr, Clarence Ingram, Robert Ingram, George Booth, Oliver Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thomas, Prof. and Mrs. C. F. Ross, Julian Ross, Miss Edith Rowley, Stanley Thoburn, Katherine Crumrine, Charles Taylor, Howard Taylor, Eleanore Taylor, Margaret Ross, Olivia Widdowson Boyd, Mrs. C. C. Taylor, Maria Avery, Ruth Young, Elizabeth Brakeman, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Mook, J. Stuart McQuiston.

AMONG OUR CONTEMPORARIES

Students at the University of California are observing every Friday as Song Day. The purpose of the movement is to familiarize the students with the college songs and to create a greater degree of college spirit. The singing takes place in the class rooms at the beginning of each hour, and plans are under way to hold brief pep meetings between classes.

Lafayette College is planning an elaborate pageant, beginning October 15, to celebrate the centennial anniversary of the founding of the institution. The pageant will be in eight episodes and is under the supervision of Miss Charlotte Gallor, who has spent considerable time in England securing material for the production. The college authorities are being assisted by a committee of Easton citizens who are all cooperating to make the event a success.

After a detailed study of conditions both in Dartmouth and other leading colleges and universities of the country, a number of the seniors at Dartmouth proposed the following:

1. Virtual abolition of the lecture system.
2. Long time assignment of topic, the student himself working out the problem. The professor merely designates the available sources of material.
3. Small classes meeting weekly. Five or ten in a class with time spent in discussion.
4. Office hours for consultation with instructor.
5. Short assigned papers once a fortnight.
6. Additional check on students. Any student who had not completed his work at the end of a quarter semester would not be allowed to continue until he had made it up.

KALDRON NOTICE

The Kaldron Board urges all students to have their individual pictures taken at either the Pratt or Wetherby Studios before November 1.

OLD ALLEGHENY

FOUNDED IN 1815 AND
CHARTERED IN 1817

At the memorable meeting in the old log court house on June 20, 1815, a committee was appointed to prepare an address to the Legislature of Pennsylvania, requesting that it grant a charter to the new institution.

Ralph Marlin, James Weston, and Jacob Herrington, who were to become trustees of the College, were representing the Assembly district in Crawford, Erie, and Mercer counties respectively. In December of the year 1815, Major Marlin presented the petition, number 75 of the legislative session, which asked for the granting of articles of incorporation. This petition went to the Committee on Education, and a report was made to the Legislature by J. M. Scott of Philadelphia, chairman of the committee. The document was presented in House Bill Number 77, entitled, "An Act Establishing Allegheny College in the Township of Mead and the County of Crawford."

Unfavorable conditions prevailed for the passage of the bill at that time. Governor Simon Snyder in his annual message declared that the state had been chartering too many seminaries with the result that no one of them stood out prominently. He favored intensive development in a few seminaries of learning. Some of the early colleges had received grants of land which they had never used. Because there was no constructive educational program in Pennsylvania at that time, opposition to further grants in such a remote district was easy to rally. Furthermore, the proposal to build an arsenal at Meadville was thought to be sufficient government interest in the northwestern district of the state.

In December of 1816, the contest was renewed for securing the charter. The bill was brought up before the house as unfinished business, and after being referred to the committee of the whole, and after minor amendments had been made, the bill was again laid aside.

On March 20, 1817, the bill came up for its third reading. A section providing for undrawn donation lands was lost, and the legislature reduced the desired appropriation of $4,000 to $2000, which was to be paid in three equal installments. The senate passed the bill on March 22, and the governor affixed his signature to the bill on March 24, 1817, providing Allegheny College with a charter.

STUDENTS NOT PERMITTED TO SEND VOTE BY MAIL

SUPREME COURT HAS DECLARED
ABSENT VOTER'S BALLOT
LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Voting by mail, a boon to college students of voting age, has been abolished. The "Absent Voter's Ballot Law, approved on May 23, 1923, was declared unconstitutional by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, after hearing a contested election case of the fifth ward of Lancaster, in July, 1924. Only those students living in Meadville, or those able to get home for election day, November 4, will be able to vote for the next President.

The election laws quoted below explain the situation. To qualify as a voter a person shall have resided in the election district at least two months preceding the election. "Residence means the domicile, abode, home, or the place where a man abides with the intention of making it his permanent habitation." For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence by reason of his absence, while a student of any institution of learning. "In cases of students attending college for an education only, they do not lose their residence in the district they formerly resided in, nor do they gain a residence in the district in which they are for the purposes aforesaid, unless it be their flexed intention to acquire a permanent residence in the district to which they have moved." These rules show clearly the status of the college man in regard to voting.

In order to cast a ballot in the fall election, a person must have registered in his election district on one of three registration days, the last of which was Saturday. He must have resided in the state one year, and in his election district two months before the election. "Citizens over twenty-one years of age and under twenty-two may register without a tax receipt by making affidavit as to their age." "For the purpose of voting on age, a minor becomes of age on the day preceding the twenty-first anniversary of his birth." If the persons are twenty-two years of age or more, they shall have paid a state or county tax within two years that was assessed at least two months and paid one month before the election.

PHILOSOPHY AND EDUCATION CLUB HEARS REPORT OF
N. E. A. CONVENTION

Last Tuesday evening the Philosophy and Educational Club held a meeting in Cochran Hall at which time Miss Varena Collins gave a report of her visit to the National Educational Association which met last July in Washington, D. C. Leo Ross was elected to membership in the club at this time.

Miss Collins reported that at one of the meetings President Coolidge told over 21,000 representatives that he favored the installation of a National Department of Education, the secretary of which would have a place on the President's cabinet.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. M. R. Hoy, of Oil City, visited his daughter Eleanor on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stoofler, Mr. and Mrs. Hough, and Mrs. Arnold, all of Westfield, N. Y., visited Frances Stoofler on Sunday.

Virginia Briggs spent the week-end at her home in Waterford, Pa. Luella Davis spent the week-end at her home in Cambridge Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lynn Smith of Titusville visited their daughter Charlotte on Sunday.

Dorothy Holeman spent Sunday at her home in Union City.

Dr. and Mrs. McLean of Bradford visited their daughter, Harriet Hearn, on Friday.

Mary Phelps spent the week-end at her home in Warren, Ohio.

Gwendolyn Shultz spent the week-end at her home in Youngstown, Ohio.

Jean McCrum was called home last week on account of the serious illness of her father.

Sara McQuiston and Jean Bowser, of the class of 1924, were week-end visitors in Meadville.

Mr. Gilbert Selgworth, ex-'24, and Miss Helen Wall visited the Beta Upsilon house last Sunday.

Phi Delta Theta held a five couple party at the house last Friday evening. Professor and Mrs. Hovde chaperoned.

Dinner guests of Phi Delta Theta last Sunday were Dean Wren Staley, the Misses Marian Wheldon, Harriet Brydle, Madeline Crowe, and Mr. Theodore Slocum of Erie.

Will Parsons, '14, was a week-end guest of Professor Mezzotero, and attended the Allegheny-Dickinson football game.

Messrs. Harry Goodman and Harold Fisher of Erie were week end visitors at the Phi Alpha Kappa house.

Swimming for women is required in twenty-two colleges and universities as part of their work, according to the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Education. Cornell University, Iowa State Agricultural College, Rockford College, Syracuse University, Cincinnati University, University of Wisconsin, Wells College, Western Reserve and Wooster College refuse to grant a degree to a student who fails to pass a fixed swimming requirement, which may be ability to swim 50 feet, strokes in good order, swimming instruction covering a period of two years, or swimming 120 yards, and diving. The usual requirement is to be able to swim 50 yards.

Polo has been recognized as a major varsity sport at Colorado Agricultural College this year.

The million dollar endowment fund campaign being carried on at Stephens Tech has reached and passed the goal, due to the excellent response to appeals on the part of the alumni of the college.

OXFORD CLUB MAKES PLANS FOR COMING YEAR

Thoburn Chapter of the Oxford Club held its first meeting of the year in the Y. M. C. A. room of the Cochran Hall last Thursday evening.

Since there had been no formal program arranged, the meeting was given over to the informal discussion of means of making the organization of more value to its members, and more effective and influential in campus life. Tentative plans for the coming year were made.

An invitation is extended to all men of the College who are contemplating some form of Christian work for their career to join the club. Meetings are held bi-weekly in Cochran Hall.

MISS SPALDING SPENDS SUMMER
TRAVELING IN SOUTHERN EUROPE

Miss Alice Spalding, instructor in public speaking, spent the summer in study and travel in Europe, chiefly in the central and southern portions. She left New York, June 18, on the steamer "La France," which went directly to France.

The first month she spent in Paris, where she lived in the Latin Quarter and attended lectures at the Sorbonne. Miss Spalding noted that a vast change had taken place in the city during the Great War. All the former elegance of the city is gone, and everything is very quiet.

From France she journeyed through the Dalmatian mountains to Innsbruck in the Austrian Tyrol, and thence to Vienna. Budapest in Hungary was the next place she visited, after which she went to Trieste, and traveled through Jugo-Slovakia.

On August 30 she sailed for the United States on the "Paris," which on the way encountered two hurricanes.

MISSIONARY ALUMNUS ON LEC-TURE TOUR IN MID-WESTERN STATES

The Rev. Otto H. Houser, '08, missionary of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and pastor of the large Central Church of Manila, Philippine Islands, is making a speaking tour of Methodist churches in Kansas and neighboring states under the auspices of the World Service Commission of the denomination. His subject is, "The Filipino—A Man With a Book."

Mr. Houser is a native of Meadville, Pennsylvania, and received his education at Allegheny College and Boston University School of Theology. Upon his graduation he joined the Northwest Ohio Conference and served churches in Cleveland and Lisbon. In 1919, he was appointed pastor of the Central Church, Manila, the home of a large student congregation. While the church seats only 325 people, Houser's ministry extends to some 10,000 students of half a dozen nationalities, who are only a small part of the 90,000 students living and studying in the city of Manila.

Just recently the church secured a fine new property upon which it hopes to erect a $25,000 building, ministering to the religious needs of the young men and women students of the city. Mr. Houser says that he hopes to see the day when his church will seat 10,000, instead of 325 people.

Varicolored Oily Slickers
Make Appearance on Campus

Slickers of all shapes, sizes, and colors have invaded the sacred precincts of Allegheny College. Although they are very oily, they are not city slickers, because they are too green. These slickers are liable to be found anywhere. Once upon a time the slickers used to be accessories to the crime of catching poor fish, but now the New England fisherman, light-house keepers, and three mile limit men no longer have a monopoly on the slicker style.

Green, dark green, light green, yellowish green, grass green, pea green, blue green, and khaki green seem to be the prevailing hues of the oil skins. One of the manufacturers will doubtless thrust the following bit of literature upon a wholly helpless public: "Buy a Frog Skin Duckster. You are hermetically sealed so that no water can touch you."

The corduroy collars are quite apt to make rough necks of the wearers. An added convenience is the snap on the sleeve which enables one to button his sleeve tightly about his wrist, so that if one has a hole in one's umbrella, the water will not trickle down one's arm. The slickers differ in minor respects. Some have linings, and some don't but of course the features such as cigar lighters and nickel trimmings will change on the yearly models.

Alumni

Ivy B. Estep, '23, is studying graduate work in the Wharton School of Finance, Philadelphia.

Marion Russell, '22, is graduate assistant in Physics in the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, Neb.

Miss Marion Ruth Schmid, ex-'27, was married to Melvin Ackerman Zurn at Erie, Pa., on June 25.

Miss Margaret Peters of Saegertown, who is a teacher in the Meadville High School, is now convalescing in the City Hospital following an operation for appendicitis.

Edith L. Newmaker, '20, who has been in the Adirondacks during the summer, is spending a few days in New York City. She expects to return to Warren soon to continue her welfare work.

Blanche Joyce, '24, is now located in a Meadville grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Craig, '11, announce the birth of a son, William Samuel Craig, on August 30. Craig is located in Warren, Ohio.

Cecil H. Hodgkinson, '17, who completed his medical work at Western Reserve is now an intern under Dr. F. E. Bunce at the St. Vincent's Charity Hospital.

Prof. J. A. M. Stewart, '12, who has been teaching and doing graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh for the past two years, is now head of the Biology department of Thiel College. During the summer Professor Stewart conducted a party of twenty-eight students to the west coast, stopping at all points of interest. This was a part of a special summer school course at Pitt. Professor Stewart visited friends in Meadville last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Hart, '20, announce the birth of a son, Paul Townsend Hart, on September 10.

Claud R. Dye, '06, was recently elected principal of the high school at Fredonia, N. Y.

Wallace H. Miner, '07, who has been in the missionary field in China since 1913, is now in the United States on leave of absence for two years. He is accompanied by his father, George S. Miner, '80, who has also been in China. He is expecting to attend Columbia University for the year, as well as lecture through the country.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Donaldson, '07, announce the birth of a daughter, Lois Jannetta Donaldson, on August 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kramer, '20, 581 Chestnut Street, announce the birth of a daughter on September 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peck, ex-'24, announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Ann, on August 19. Mr. and Mrs. Peck are now living in Erie. They visited friends in Meadville over the week-end.

Sidney Carlson, '22, principal of the Silver Creek High School, and leader of the choir of the Fredonia, N. Y. Methodist Episcopal Church of which Sam Maxwell, '10 is pastor, was a student in the Chautauqua Summer Schools.

Mary Hilderbrand, '21, and Lyle Biehler were married on July 12.

Mary Henderson, '23, and Ira Fleming, '23, were married on August 16, at Connellsville, Pa. They are living in Warren where Mr. Fleming is teaching in the high school.

Mr. E. W. Robinson, husband of Blanche E. Bascom, '97, died at Saegertown on September 27. Mr. Robinson had accepted a new charge following his attendance at the recent conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and he was preparing to go and take up his work in this new field.

Four Double-Barreled ReasonWhy You Should Buy Life Insurance*FIRST:

- (a) You have the advantage of the younger rate. The rate at age 20 is about one-half that of age 40. It does not increase after you have started.
- (b) Money without health cannot buy insurance. If health is yours now, capitalize it at once.

SECOND:

- (a) If you are not married, insurance will be absolutely necessary when you become a benedict.
- (b) You create an estate immediately with the first payment.

THIRD:

- (a) Insurance helps you to form the habit of saving, thus strengthening your character. Thrift makes for success.
- (b) Insurance will make you independent in old age when 11 out of 13 men have to live on charity.

FOURTH:

- (a) It is a conservative investment. Insurance Companies cannot speculate, and they are absolutely safe financial institutions.
- (b) Men in the higher walks of life favor it. Every member of the late President Harding's Cabinet has recently advised young men to insure while young.

All Legal Reserve Life Insurance Companies are good but none can surpass in strength and friendly service.

WEST VIRGINIA VANQUISHES
FIGHTING ALLEGHENY ELEVEN*Fourth Quarter Rally Gives Mountaineers 35-6 Victory Over Blue and Gold Gridders

Defeated, but by no means disgraced, the Allegheny football team returned from Morgantown where West Virginia had scored a 35-6 victory over the Blue and Gold eleven. After fighting on almost equal terms with West Virginia's smooth running machine during the first three periods, Allegheny was completely overwhelmed in the last quarter by the numerous fresh substitutes whom Coach Spears threw into the fray.

An unfortunate fumble by Brace in the first minute of play paved the way for the foes first touchdown. The Allegheny team, as well as its loyal supporters, was so dazed by this sudden setback that it was not long before the rangy Mountaineers had scored another seven points.

In the second quarter, after an exchange of punts, the Allegheny team, aided by several penalties, carried the ball 55 yards down the field and across the West Virginia goal line. This was done after Brace had made a pretty nine yard gain around end and Dahl had punched the line for a first down. A forward pass, Hanlon to Brace, advanced the ball to the ten yard line. Here West Virginia's line braced; so on the last down Allegheny took to the air with a forward pass from Brace to Hanlon who was behind the goal line when he snatched the pigskin.

The one hundred fifty or more Allegheny students who made the long journey to Morgantown broke loose with a roar of applause and lusty cheers as the old Blue and Gold scored the first touchdown against the strong West Virginia eleven.

From the time of the touchdown until Fuller was injured at the beginning of the fourth quarter, it was an evenly contested game. Both teams were within scoring distance in the third quarter, but neither was able to carry the ball across the goal line. At one time the Allegheny team held their opponents to downs on the one yard line. At this point Judd kicked out of danger.

When the final quarter started, most of the spectators expected to see the game end with a close score. However, Allegheny's hopes were shattered when Fuller was carried off the field a few minutes after the period started. With Fuller out, a hole appeared in the line which was too big for Davies to patch. Along with this disheartening incident came a flock of West Virginia substitutes. Before the game was over, an entirely new team was placed in the field by Spears. Coming in when they did, these substitutes held a great advantage over the exhausted Allegheny men for whom capable substitutes were lacking. It was not long before the fresh West Virginians displayed their physical advantage and made three steady marches down the field for touchdowns.

Dahl, Hanlon, and Brace bore the brunt of Allegheny's offense, while Fuller, Parnell, and Dahl were the chief factors in hindering West Virginia's advance. The entire Mountaineer team played fine football. The numerous substitutes seemed to strengthen the team rather than to weaken it. Bruder, coming into the game as a substitute, was the best ground gainer.

Excluding the last quarter, it was a well matched, cleanly fought contest. The score does not do justice to the great battle that Allegheny gave the powerful West Virginia team.

BLUE AND GOLD HARRIERS
PRACTICE FOR TECH MEETWESTMINSTER CROSS COUNTRY
TEAM TO RUN ALLEGHENY
ON LOCAL COURSE

Inclement weather the earlier part of last week somewhat retarded the development of the Allegheny cross country team candidates, but as soon as conditions improved the harriers immediately showed signs of progress again. If the weather is favorable for the remainder of this week, the Blue and Gold runners should soon be rounding into excellent condition.

Under the leadership of Acting Captain Rea, the cross country men engaged in a few good jaunts last week. Friday afternoon the longest run of the season was taken when six miles were covered. The six mile course will be used frequently in the future as it is about the distance that will be covered in the opening meet with Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh on Saturday, November 1.

The Tech meet is expected to be a real test for Allegheny because on it hinges a large share of the Tri-State district cross country honors for this season. To defeat the Tartans would be the greatest trick an Allegheny harrier outfit has ever accomplished.

Following the Tech meet, Westminster College will be met here on November 8. It will be run as a preliminary to the Allegheny-Westminster football game which is being played on Montgomery Field on that date.

The personnel of the team is as yet undecided. The three veterans, Rea, Beyer and Bogardus, are displaying their usual form but are being hard pressed by Jones, Tornatore, Potter, Fallon, and Devereaux. The last two are new men who joined the harrier ranks last week.

SEASON ADVANCE

tough battle may be expected from them. The Greenville school has made rapid strides in Western Pennsylvania football circles since Tommy Holleran took over the reins as head coach. Holleran was a team-mate of Coach Davies at Pitt.

The long trip to Boston will follow the Thiel game. The clash with the Boston College eleven, one of the strongest teams in the East, will be a real test for Davies' men. They are determined, however to make a good showing against the big eastern team, and the latter will face a fighting outfit in the Blue and Gold machine.

Then comes the annual tilt with Grove City on November 1. According to reports from the neighboring school, the Grovers expect to beat their ancient rivals, and their record to date indicates that they have some foundation for these statements. Pitt encountered considerable trouble in beating Bowser's team by two touchdowns, while the Crimson handed the strong Marietta eleven a 14-0 beating last Saturday. Both teams always rise to the greatest heights in this game, and the result this year, as in other years, is a toss up.

The following Saturday, Westminster appears at Montgomery Field. Last season the Hurricane had an easy time with the New Wilmington outfit, but Coach Dyer has placed a strong team on the field this year, and although the "dope" has it that Allegheny will win rather easily, anything may be expected. The Westminster tilt is followed by the game with Waynesburg at Waynesburg. The Greene County school has a team that considerably outweighs the Blue and Gold. That the Yellow Jackets play a classy brand of football is indicated by the hard battle they gave Wash-Jeff, and by their victory over Geneva.

The game with Bethany, a team which threw a real scare into the Wash-Jeff camp by holding the Presidents to a 19-13 score last Saturday, winds up the season, and again Allegheny will face a heavier team. Meadville is likely to be the mecca of all football fans in this section on Thanksgiving Day.
