Mr. Waldo Lincoln,
Worcester, Mass.

Dear Mr. Lincoln:

Do you know anything about the Bible described in the enclosed letter? I do not find a reference to it in your book, but of course may have overlooked it.

I have told Mr. Hunsicker that he will find in your History a detailed account of the evidence that he wants that Sarah Lincoln married a son of George Boone, and have advised him to write you.

Thank you for your letter about the Hanks genealogy. You undoubtedly are right that it would be difficult to raise the money now for the entire work and that the Kentucky end of it is the one for present research. If we could get the material together I feel pretty sure I could find a publisher to put it out at his own expense.

The present point is to raise the money for the research. I have sounded one or two people but have had no very enthusiastic response. I am writing ex-Governor Lowden of Illinois today about it. He is an enthusiastic Lincoln student; has money, I understand, and he has given me a leeway by writing me very kindly about my "In the Footsteps of the Lincolns."

By the way, did I send you a copy of that volume? I meant to do it, but the book came out just after I started on a short lecture trip which ended in a rather sharp illness. I sent out some books but lost my list so I do not really know whether I sent a copy to you or not. If not and you would accept it I will be glad to do so.

Thanking you again for your letter about the Hanks genealogy, believe me

Very sincerely yours,
