COLLEGE ANNUAL FOR 1923 IS ARTISTIC AND ENJOYABLE
FROM COVER TO COVER

Unrestrained in joviality and refreshingly informal in character, the 1923 Kaldron is a vivid review of Allegheny life of this past year. An artistic composition, an accurate compilation, and an enjoyable presentation reward the efforts of a capable and hard working staff.

The book is quite appropriately dedicated to the memory of the late Bishop James Mills Thoburn. The dedication with its accompanying portrait is followed by four campus scenes one of which is of old Lake George.

The faculty section is introduced by a message from President F. W. Hixson. The write-ups are wholly informal, and the snapshots show the faculty in typical poses. Clever cartoons and verses precede each class roster. The senior write-ups are full of life and without monotonous repetition. The juniors are labelled with well-known advertising slogans which are especially suited to each member of the class. The sophomores are similarly characterized by titles of popular songs. Recognition of the freshman class is made in a capital manner.

The athletic department is completely and systematically organized. Both the publications and the forensic sections are prefaced by humorous cartoons.

The clubs of the college are given with their group picture, their personnel, and their usual sketches.

In the fraternity section undertones of the coat-of-arms of the respective groups are printed underneath the chapter rolls. The sorority pictures are not uniform as a result of different photographers doing the work.

Among the honorary and professional fraternities are two new groups: Kappa Phi Kappa, a national honorary educational fraternity, and Phi Sigma Iota, a local honorary language fraternity.

MICHIGAN AGGIES HOLD LOCAL NET MEN TO TIE

LOCAL PLAYERS GIVE GOOD
FIGHT IN LAST MATCH
OF SEASON

The final tennis match of the year, held a week ago Monday on the local courts with the representatives of the Michigan Agricultural School resulted in a 2-2 tie, Captain Clarke and Cochran winning their singles matches, while McQuiston lost his match and Cochran and Pratt lost the only doubles engagement. Good tennis was played by both teams. The Michigan men had previously met Oberlin, Pitt, and Penn State on the same trip and completed their season with the match here. Captain Clarke was forced to extend himself somewhat against Coale but came out on top after three sets. Cochran played his usual brilliant game, but had to go three sets to win. Cummings had difficulty defeating McQuiston, the latter playing probably

NOTICE TO ALUMNI

Alumni headquarters will be in Bentley Hall where alumni are asked to register, vote and pay their dues, if they have not already done so. This will be a general information bureau. The headquarters will be open from 9:00 a. m. Monday, June 18, until Wednesday, June 20, at 2:00 p. m.

All votes for Alumni Trustees must be in before 2:00 o'clock Wednesday. Reservations for tickets for the Alumni Luncheon may be made up to 7:00 p. m., Monday evening, June 18. The alumni, their wives or husbands, the trustees and their wives, the faculty, and their wives, and the Senior class are guests of the college for the luncheon.

CHAPEL SPEECHES AND SMALL
PARADE MARK OBSERVANCE OF ANNUAL HOLIDAY

With all the classes of the year over the students enjoyed the short respite before the exams in celebrating Moving-Up Day last Wednesday morning with speeches in the Chapel and a parade down town.

The Chapel period was devoted to the petitioning for seats in the chapel by the three lower classes and the answers to the requests by the classes addressed. The speeches were full of good natured bantering and wit. Each speaker praised his own class and derided the weaknesses and foibles of the class which he addressed.

After Chapel a small parade was formed on North Main St. On account of rain early in the morning arrangements for most of the features of the parade had been cancelled, consequently there were none of the floats which the various fraternities and classes had planned. However some of the students made hasty preparations and the parade started down N. Main St., about 11:30.

The freshman girls, riding on a hay load, led, cheering and making a din with kazoos. Next in the formation were several freshmen who impersonated a few popular members of the faculty. Upper classmen rode in automobiles.

BEGINNINGS OF "CAMPUS" RELATED BY ALUMNUS

ALUMNUS SENDS AGE-STAINED PANDORAS AS RELICS OF
EARLIER ALLEGHENY

Under the caption, "How the Campus Came to Be," Mr. W. E. McDowell, '77, has written a most interesting letter in which he portrays Allegheny life of an earlier day.

Copies of the two clandestine sheets mentioned were received by the Campus. Bearing the dates of 1875 and 1876 and yellowed with age, they have an historical value which well compensates for their vulgarity.

The letter follows:
For several years previous to 1876 a vile, disreputable paper made its appearance usually at commencement time. It was not issued regularly, but made up in villainous what it lacked in frequency. It was distributed at night and the authorities were never able to trace its source. Among the various titles of the paper were The Scorpion and Tutor Et Ultor.

When Dr. Bugbee became president in 1875, the college authorities determined to squelch the disreputable sheet and bring the guilty parties to justice.

Among the new students in the fall was a fine appearing well dressed young man and a good mixer. He made many friends, especially among the "sporty" fellows. It was a matter of comment that he had plenty of money and was taking only a few studies. He was sized up as a dude, out for a good time.

Several weeks previous to the next commencement the young man disappeared without telling even his best friends of his plans. Soon after there were vague rumors and then an "explosion" in college and police circles. The mysterious student was a spy. The guilty persons were arrested and brought to justice. It was rumored that one of the outfit fled to Germany while fathers put up liberal cash requirements to keep their sons out of the penitentiary.

tabish a real college paper. As a result The Campus was launched. The good people of Meadville, long disgusted of the old vile sheet, gladly supported the new venture. In two afternoons in one ward I secured eighty paid-in-advance subscribers before the first number had been issued.

So here's to the continued success of The Campus.

W. E. McDowell, Class of '77.

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH CLASS GRADUATES WEDNESDAY

Prominent Speakers and Varied Entertainment to Make Closing Days Memorable Ones

With a large number of visiting Alumni, members of the Board of Trustees, and other guests in attendance, the one hundred eighth annual Commencement of Allegheny College will be held Sunday, June 17, to Wednesday, June 20. In addition to the customary exercises and class events, several new and noteworthy features have been arranged which will add a touch of color and festivity to the program. Allegheny's combined Glee Clubs, which have just finished a season of successful concerts, will give a cantata, "The Ancient Mariner," in the Chapel. On the campus, Shakespeare's "As You Like It" will be presented by a group of professional actors. Mr. Charles M. Courboin, the noted organist, will appear again at Allegheny and will give a recital at Ford Memorial Chapel. These, with other special features of entertainment which have been provided will make this Commencement a pleasant and full one. The program follows in detail.

BACCALAUREATE SUNDAY

The opening of the Commencement season is on Sunday, June 17, when President Fred W. Hixson, D. D., LL. D., will deliver the annual Baccalaureate sermon in Stone Church at 10:30 in the morning. The Seniors, according to custom, will attend in a body in cap and gown.

In the afternoon, at 4:30 p. m., the Rev. William L. Stidger of St. Mark's M. E. Church of Detroit, Mich., will deliver the annual Commencement Vesper sermon on the campus. Reverend Mr. Stidger was a student at Allegheny for three years, after which he went to Brown University, where he received the degree of Ph. B. in 1912. Since that time he has distinguished himself in the service of the Methodist Church and by the authorship of several notable books. During 1918 he was a Y. M. C. A. worker in France. He was prominent in the direction of the Centenary movement of the Methodist Church until he took his present position at St. Mark's in 1920.

CONCERT AND OPEN AIR PLAY ON MONDAY

The events for Monday will start with the Class Day exercises held at the Rustic Bridge at 2:00 p. m. The speakers representing the class are: Salutatorian, Miss Helen Jane Bowman; Valedictorian, Mr. J. L. Ross; Historian, Miss Dorothy Leeper; Prophet, Miss Alicia Tobin; Optimist, Mr. Charles Bollinger; Pessimist, Miss Helen Shaffer; Ladder Orator, Mr. J. Edwin Larson.

The cantata, "The Ancient Mariner" will be sung by the combined Glee Clubs in Ford Memorial Chapel at 3:15 p. m. The story of Coleridge's "Rime of the Ancient Mariner," set to music by John Barnett, is the theme of the cantata. This same concert was given by the Clubs May 8. Although the music is ancient, the two groups succeeded admirably, and will no doubt, give an equally effective performance this time.

At 4:30 p. m. the Phi Beta Kappa Society will hold its annual meeting in the Quill Club room of Reis Library. Twelve members of the senior class having the highest scholastic standing will be initiated into the Fraternity (Continued on page 3.)

SHAKESPEARE PLAY IS FEATURE IN ITSELF DELIVERS VESPER SERMON

FRANK McENTEE, SHAKESPEARIAN ACTOR, WILL PRESENT
"AS YOU LIKE IT" HERE
MONDAY NIGHT

Frank McEntee, who is to appear with his Company in the Shakespeare Playhouse performance on the campus next Monday evening, has had for this day and generation, quite an unusual experience for an actor of Shakespearean roles. It has been his good fortune to have played over seventy parts in the various plays of the great bard.

Beginning with Ben Greet in his early years in this country when Edith Wynne Matthison was the leading woman of the Company, Mr. McEntee began in minor Shakespearean roles and continued to advance season after season until he eventually played, for two seasons, the great role of Hamlet. This was followed by Romeo, Petruchio, Brutus, Shylock, the chief comedy parts of Bottom, Malvolio, and Touchstone, and, subsequently, the extremely difficult role of Prospero in an extensive series of performances of the Tempest, given in conjunction with the Boston, Russian and New York Symphony Orchestras.

A few seasons ago he founded the Shakespeare Playhouse in New York. His aim was to establish a permanent producing center, where the plays of Shakespeare might not only be kept before the public as a constant source of inspiration, but where they could (Continued on page 3.)

STUDENT ATHLETIC BOARD MEMBERS ARE ELECTED

Ralph A. Clark and Paul H. Schuttz were elected student representatives to the Athletic Board of Control for the year of 1923-24 at the election which was held in Bentley Hall Wednesday, June 7.

These men, who succeeded Verne L. Wise and Paul Clark, this year's representatives to the Board, will assume their new responsibilities upon their return to Allegheny next September.

REV. SAMUEL L. MAXWELL
LOVE OF GOD IS THEME OF FORCEFUL MESSAGE BY ALUMNUS

Rev. Mr. Samuel L. Maxwell, '10, pastor of the Fredonia, N. Y., Methodist Episcopal Church and former resident secretary of the Allegheny College Y. M. C. A. delivered the final vesper sermon of the year in Ford Memorial Chapel last Sunday.

Mr. Maxwell chose as his text Mark 12:28-30, the perfect law of love as given by Christ. This command to love God with all one's strength and mind represents the great aim of Christianity. Just as Michael Angelo from a discarded piece of marble carved his far-famed statue of David, so did Christ bring forth this perfect law from the imperfect mass of Jewish laws.

Taking this command as his theme, the speaker first exhorted his hearers to love God with all the strength and vigor of their bodies. Then Mr. Maxwell devoted the rest of his sermon to a plea for a devotion to God with all the strength of one's mind. A knowledge of the Bible, a blending of religion and science, a full consecration of mental powers for the advancement of the kingdom of righteousness were urged by the speaker as a solemn duty and a moral obligation of all Christian people.

Rev. Mr. Maxwell in closing his sermon spoke of the great happiness that had been his ever since he, as a college student, had resolved to devote his life to Christian activity, and he declared that he could conceive of no higher joy for Alleghenians than the all-powerful love of God.

This service was the annual sermon before the Christian Associations combined with the monthly vesper service. President F. W. Hixson presided at the meeting and introduced the speaker. During the service L. R. Gearhart accompanied by Dr. H. W. Church sang a baritone solo.

MEADVILLE CHORUS PRESENTS ORATORIO

PROF. H. R. HUNT, '12, COMPLETES REPORT ON BIRTH RATE
MENDELSSOHN'S "ELIJAH" GIVEN
BY LOCAL MUSICAL ORGANIZATION

Meadville's Choral Society staged its second musical success of the year, when it sang Mendelssohn's oratorio, "Elijah," depicting the conflict between the prophet of the Lord and the priests of Baal, to a large audience in the Park Theatre last Thursday night.

The principal solo part was carried by Rollin Pease, a noted baritone from Chicago, who won the admiration of the audience by the ease with which he sang solos of contrasting range and tone, giving them precisely the color which they required. Miss Marie De Kyzer, who has an unusually beautiful bell-like voice, carried the soprano solos, and Miss Genevieve Cleveland and Mr. Carl Rhodes the contralto and tenor. The trio included Mrs. Carl Fahr, Mrs. A. V. Leberman, and Mrs. Myrtle Shaffer.

The Choral Society was organized a year ago under the directorship of Professor Lee Hess Barnes of the Pennsylvania College of Music, and has been steadily achieving a degree of excellence that is scarcely paralleled in an organization of its kind. There are one hundred voices in the chorus, and, though soloists of national fame were secured to carry the leading parts, the local singers have attained a quality of tone and attack and a proficiency in shading that is remarkably fine.

KALDRONS DISTRIBUTED TODAY

This afternoon the first allotment of the Kaldron will be distributed at the Treasurer's office. A number of the Seniors and some of the men whose pictures appear in the fraternity groups owe the Kaldron management from 35 to 70 cents apiece, for their cuts. Those who have not yet paid this must bring their money with them to the Treasurer's office if they wish to receive their Kaldrons.

Greetings to Alumni

TO THE ALUMNI OF THE COLLEGE:

By the program of commencement exercises which has just been mailed out to the alumni, it will be evident that the attractions of Commencement Week this year at the Old College will be of unusual interest. The College made special effort at great expense to prepare an interesting week of events. However, no other single phase of the program is so important as the alumni reunions. I earnestly hope that we shall see many more of the alumni present than even a year ago. Last year broke the record. Be sure to send announcement of your intention to be present in order that the committee in charge of the Wednesday noon luncheon may prepare for you.

Most cordially yours,

Fred W. Hixson

TO OUR ALUMNI:

One of the very finest things connected with one's college is the annual (and as often as possible) return for Commencement. Such pilgrimages should start early after graduation, because this practice keeps up the associations of early friendships which are so treasured in later years.

The prosperous condition and unusual position of Allegheny College among colleges of America are not only refreshing but make one very proud of being an alumnus of that institution of learning. The splendid equipment, wonderful endowment, the standing of its curriculum among other colleges—all these things contribute to the commanding position which Allegheny holds in educational and literary circles.

We should all try to make each Commencement the best affair in the college's history, and as the years roll by our efforts cannot fail but give results which will contribute to the welfare of the world and give us a satisfaction of accomplishment which, after all, is one of the truly great things of life.

I hope that many of the alumni will journey back to Meadville this year and make the event one long to be pleasantly remembered.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur W. Thompson

WE GET OUR KALDRON

The 1923 Kaldron is out, with all its good-natured informality and artistic touches. We hastily turn the pages to see how our picture looks in the club groups and who gets the "merry razz" in the college life section. Next year we'll refer to it to see who we can take to our next party. But the real value of our annual cannot be appreciated until years hence. We'll forget that time we stood impatiently in line at the treasurer's window to receive the now worn and dog-eared copy, as we review it to an inquisitive youngster, or as we dream over its pages of those college days when a call to the office was our chief concern.

NEXT WEEK IS COMMENCEMENT

It's hard to realize that commencement is but one week away. We have planned for it and have looked forward to it; now it is upon us. The usual routine of classes is already a thing of the past, and we shall soon find ourselves in a whirl of excitement. Many strange but friendly faces will be seen about our campus; we shall almost feel that we're not running this old college, after all, and that we are but a small part of it. When gray-haired men and women will make themselves at home in the corridors of Bentley, when they will speak knowingly of old Lake George and "Skin and Bones," we shall feel that it is we who are intruding. We shall want to leave quietly and inconspicuously. But their smiles and handshakes will encourage us to stay. We shall believe that Allegheny is ours, too. We shall feel that we represent one phase of the life and growth which has extended over a century. And we shall want to show them that we are doing our part to perpetuate the old college. More than all, we shall want to welcome them back as fellow Alleghenians and members of a great family.

"TELL-TALE"

"Six hundred and eighty-two members of another graduating class of the University will go out into the world in two weeks, leaving their marks behind them for those that come later to see. There will be black A's and half-obiterated red F's in the registrar's office; there will be many a name transferred from the active chapter roll to the alumni roll of hill organizations. But greater far, perhaps, than any of these in the stories they tell, are the marked-up desks in the lecture rooms, monuments to the restless fingers of many a student.

"A picture of a fraternity pin, linked up with that of a certain sorority pin, is found on a desk in the political science room. Beside is printed the name Lloyd-George. How hard that student fought to keep his mind on the question in hand, only to succumb to the question in heart!

"Greek letters, names, dates, geometrical figures—all are there. A pretty girl's head with much rolling hair and wide fringed eyes; an Arrow-collar man with vasedined locks and beautifully-curved lips—we find them in abundance.

"Fraser steps may be worn with the feet of passing students; campus grass may be marred by the paths of careless men and women; but the marks on the desks in the class room tell the old, old story of youth that never will grow up, try however hard it may to abide by the restrictions of the class room."

Although we have pushed our pens over the marred desk-arms for the last time this year, our memory of the maddening effort involved is yet fresh enough to appreciate the local application of the above editorial. Unfortunately, not all students with this perverted idea of making a mark in the world attend the University of Kansas.

THIS YEAR'S KALDRON

In the next section are the photographs of a few of the most successful graduates of Allegheny. These are: Mr. Arthur W. Thompson, Mr. Frederick S. Breed, Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell, and Mr. Edward B. Heckel.

The Feature section of the Kaldron, which, no doubt, is the most humorous and interesting part of the publication, is opened by the photographs of the winners of the beauty contest: Miss Lucile Leffingwell, Miss Maria Avery, Miss Margaret Quinlon, and Miss Marian Whieldon.

With the ominous forewarning, the editor announces the college life section, for it is in this section that the annual wages war. Fraternities suffer scathing exposures and sarcasm. No partiality or sympathy is shown.

A series of fifteen silhouette profiles of Alleghenians furnish "types" for character analysis.

"We Have With Us Today" is the title of four cartoons representing the shark, the thin girl, the athlete, and the prof., with appropriate verses by Miss Lois Halderman. On the following page the sororities are revealed in their "true" light. The Senior Questionnaire contains many foolish questions with ridiculous answers such as: "Should the chapel be abolished? Yes, 101. The other senior said, 'No, we need our sleep.'" Another feature of the college life section is "An Intelligent Test." "Picked at Random" are cartoons portraying some of the faculty members with their characteristic facial expressions. "Do You Remember When" gives a series of photographs and caricatures with such titles as, Ross Debated, Wimmer Ran, and Jones Edited the "Campus." The Unofficial Kalendar merits its share of laughs and giggles. Several expressive cartoons add to its humor. The style page gives an exaggerated reproduction of the style of clothes worn by Allegheny's classy dressers. On the opposite page is a feeble travesty on "The Campus." A few photographs and jokes complete the production.

A. D. MOOK, Manager.

Miss Lois Halderman, ex-'24, contributed the following poems: "To My Senior Thesis," "Window Glimpses," "Miss Cotton," "Examination week," "Another Dance," and "The Price He Paid." The verses preceding the class divisions were written by Miss Alicia Tobin.

The paper is of especially fine quality, as can be easily seen from the clearness of the cuts and photographs. The cover, a rich dark brown with "The Kaldron" in subdued gold, and the college seal in the lower corner, gives the outward appearance a most attractive finish.

Editor Charles A. Bollinger and Manager Arden D. Mook deserve special mention for their constant efforts for making the 1923 Kaldron possible. Mr. Bollinger not only did the editing, but did all the art work which has so materially added to the book. A faithful staff assisted the editor, and their work has been invaluable. From every angle of criticism the 1923 Kaldron is a credit to the college it represents and the editor and his staff who have produced it.

find the highest grade of interpretation. To accomplish this he restricted his productions to matinees only, so that he could secure the services of many artists who were playing elsewhere in New York at the time.

Finding the task of producing a very exacting one, Mr. McEntee decided to do but very little acting through this period.

During the past year, however, he has been playing leading parts in an extensive series of performances on tour, and is looking forward to presenting them in New York, next season.

Mr. McEntee will present "As You Like It," the complimentary performance on the Allegheny campus which is to be one of the big features of commencement week. The setting will be a natural woodland scene and all the surroundings will be in keeping with the atmosphere of the play.

at this meeting. Three of these twelve were elected to the Society last fall, by a ruling which permits one-fourth of the number to be chosen from the class to be elected on the standing of three years work. These members are Miss Helen J. Bowman, Mr. Julian L. Ross, and Mr. C. Stanley Thoburn.

As a compliment to the guests of the College, Shakespeare's comedy, "As You Like It" will be presented at 8:00. The cast will be composed of a company of professional Shakespearean actors who have given similar performances at a number of colleges and universities. Mr. McEntee of New York, the principal actor and manager of the group, will direct the presentation.

ORGAN RECITAL AND PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION ON TUESDAY

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held in the Oratory of the Chapel Tuesday at 9:00 a. m. At this meeting the elections to the faculty for next year are made, and other important business is transacted.

At 11:00 a. m. the senior farewell to the buildings will be made by the following speakers: Chapel, Mr. E. R. Burdick; Library, Mr. K. A. Smith; Hulings Hall, Mr. W. Melville Jones; Bentley Hall, Miss Dorothy Mussler; Gymnasium, Mr. H. H. Loomis.

Election of Alumni Trustees will be held in Bentley Hall at 2:00 p. m. All votes for Alumni Trustees must be in by 2:00 p. m. Wednesday.

An organ recital will be given by Mr. Charles M. Courboin at 3:00 p. m. Mr. Courboin is an organist of international reputation. In 1919 he was appointed guest soloist on the Wana maker Grand Court Organ at Philadelphia. He gave a recital in Meadville last January.

Dr. Frederick S. Breed, Professor of Education at the University of Chicago, will deliver at 4:30 p. m. at Ford Memorial Chapel, an address before the chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa which was established here recently. Dr. Breed was a member of the faculty of Allegheny from 1907 to 1910.

President Frank Aydelotte of Swarthmore College will deliver the annual address before the Phi Beta Kappa Society, in Ford Memorial Chapel at 8:00 p. m. He is a former Rhodes scholar, and a member of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

The annual reception given by the President to the guests of the college and townspeople will be held in Cochran Hall at 9:15 p. m. The senior class will also be the guests of the President at this reception, since the reception which is usually held for them one month earlier was postponed this year.

ALUMNI LUNCHEON AND FRATERNITY DINNERS

Commencement exercises and the conferring of degrees will be held in Ford Memorial Chapel at 9:30 Wednesday morning. Bishop Alexander Mann of the Episcopal Church will be the Commencement speaker. He has been rector of Trinity Church in Boston since 1905.

The Alumni, the Trustees, the Faculty, and the Seniors will be the guests of the College at the annual Alumni Luncheon given in the Gymnasium at 1:00 p. m. Reservations for tickets must be made before 7:00 p. m. Monday evening, June 18. The speakers and their subjects are: "The Allegheny Spirit," Miss Irene Beatty, '13; "Class Reunion," Leroy Peterson, '13; "The Allegheny Teams," Hugh Wells, '13; "The Allegheny Mission," Vera Bash, '08; "The Allegheny Work," John A. Gibson, '98; "The Allegheny Family," Robert A. Darragh, '93; and "The Allegheny Equipment," President Hixon. The ladies of the Congregational Church will serve the luncheon.

The wives of the out-of-town Trustees will be entertained at the Saeger-town Inn during the three days of Commencement.

Mrs. D. W. Howell (Mary Wilkinson, '87) is spending the summer at Southold, Long Island.

GARRET

Established in 1855

One of the really great theological seminaries of the country.
WALTER DILL SCOTT, President
Northwestern University

"With intimate acquaintance of most of the seminaries of the United States, extending from the time when I was president of the Federal Council, I wish to offer my testimony that no church in American Protestantism has, taking it by and large,
any higher grade of seminaries than has Methodism. In development of curricula, modern scholarship, and general progressiveness, I think they are in the very van of theological education and in the matter of supervised field work they have made a distinct place for themselves. Of the Methodist group Garrett stands in the forefront."

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Crosby, Miss Fannie, and Mr. Bud Crosby were Sunday dinner guests at the Phi Kappa Psi house.
Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Miller and Miss Mary Agnes Miller of Erie were Sunday visitors.

Professor and Mrs. Dale E. Thomas,
and the Misses McCafferty, Kirk, Kirschner, Jones, and Gibson, and Messrs. Skinner, Cummings, and Black were Sunday dinner guests of Alpha Chi Rho.

Mr. and Mrs. Berling of Erie were the Sunday guests of Charles Weigel.
Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Pierce of Kinsman, Ohio, visited their daughter Mildred Pierce, Sunday.

Miss Rose Wilson of Monessen visited her sister, Florence, over the weekend.

Linnie E. Loudon has returned for commencement.

Elsie Reynolds entertained Kappa chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta at a breakfast at her home, Sunday morning, June 10, 1923.

Helen Milhoff, '21, spent Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Helen Robinson.

Millicent Leeper has spent the past few days visiting her sister, Dorothy.

Alvin Riley, Penn State, '20, visited the Phi Gamma Delta house on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dale of Erie, and D. L. Parker, '22, and Miss Crawford of Avalon were visitors Sunday.

Guy C. Bittner, '22, now studying public health at Harvard, has returned to Meadville for the summer.

W. A. Brownell, '17, now studying Education in the University of Illinois, and P. A. Zettler, '21, teaching in Ker-winville, visited the Phi Delta Theta house last week. Mr. T. T. Allen, '02, of DuBois and his son, Robert, were guests of the chapter on Sunday. Mr.
and Mrs. R. M. Campbell and Mrs. L.
E. Canby of New Castle were dinner guests on Sunday. J. E. Burns, '16, of Oil City made a brief visit Sunday night.

In a short story contest held recently by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Frank P. Miller (Florence Grand, '08), and Miss Margaret Lusille Lippitt, '15, of Meadville, were awarded second and third prizes for their stories, "Mrs. Bendron Goes Alone," and "The Pied Piper of Ven-dome." It is interesting to note that Miss Lippitt's story, "The Pied Piper of Vendome," appeared in the Allegheny Literary Monthly in 1915.

Alleghenians will be interested to know that George L. Bird, '22, has received the first fellowship in journalism that has been offered by the University of Wisconsin.

Ralph D. Bacon, '22, and Gale C.
Kirschner, '22, were visitors of Alpha Chi Rho last week.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

TINGLEY BIOLOGICAL CLUB

An outdoor meeting was held by Tingley Biological Club in Park Avenue ravine on Saturday afternoon, June 2. After a picnic dinner there was a short business meeting during which the following officers were elected for 1923-24: Walter Shively, president; Katherine Kuder, vice-president; and Leckore Berlin, secretary and treasurer. Dr. C. A. Darling and Dr. K. F. Bascom spoke briefly in a very informal and entertaining manner.

ALUMNI VOTES FOR TRUS-TEES ARE COMING IN

The votes for the candidates for alumni trustees are coming in every day. Up to date 350 ballots have been received. Last year the largest vote in the history of alumni voting for trustees was polled. It is hoped to exceed all former voting records this year and all alumni who have not yet voted are earnestly requested to do so at once. Even if you intend to come for commencement and to vote then, will you not vote and pay your dues now in order to lessen the clerical work and make sure that your ballot is in the hands of the secretary. If your ballot has been mislaid or failed to reach you, write at once for another and vote for alumni trustees.

PHI SIGMA IOTA GIVES INFORMAL DINNER

Phi Sigma Iota, the local honorary French fraternity, held an informal dinner party at the Maples, in Waterford, on Saturday evening, June 9th.
Among the alumnae members present were Miss Helen Milhoff of Johnstown, Miss Elizabeth Carew of Erie, and the Misses Marie Charlton and Coral Mc-Millan of Meadville.

DELTA TAU DELTA ENTERTAINS
ALPHA CHI RHO

Delta Tau Delta entertained members of Alpha Chi Rho at luncheon on Monday evening in honor of the latter's winning the inter-fraternity track meet on June 6 and for the purpose of turning over the trophy which goes to the victors. The cup has been in the possession of Delta Tau Delta for the past year, winning it from Alpha Chi Rho in the meet of 1922.

Mr. Daniel W. Steenken made the presentation speech and Mr. Charles R. Wimmer accepted the trophy with a few appropriate remarks. A pleasing musical program was rendered by members of the two fraternities.

ALUMNI DOINGS

Born to Dr. C. V. Calvin, '13, and Mollie Bassett Calvin, '11, a daughter,
Margaret Hunting, on May 20, 1923.
Rev. Mr. D. W. Howell, '88, is the Corresponding Secretary to the General Deaconsess Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His work takes him pretty well over this country and through Europe. He has supervision of all the deaconsess work in the Methodist Church, and he is now on a trip to the Pacific Coast. Mr. and Mrs.
Howell live at 287 Jersey street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. George S. Nichols (Marie Howell, '15), of Fredonia, N. Y., will spend June at Van Buren Point, and in July will go with her daughter, Patricia, to Southold.

Mrs. John A. Glasse, (Jessie Howell) has recently moved to Prosser, Wash., where her husband, Rev. Mr.
Glasse, has taken the Pastorate of the United Presbyterian Church of that city.

William A. Godsave, '15, is pastor of the Methodist Church at Rapid City,
S. D. His address is 624 Kansas City Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Patterson of Columbus, Ohio, announce the birth of a son, Gordon, Jr., on May 6. Mr.
Patterson was a member of the class of '19, and is now a Grasselli Fellow in Chemistry at Ohio State University.
He spent part of last year working for the Belle Alkali Company at Charleston, W. Va., on research and development problems. At Ohio State he has been studying methods for determining small quantities of sulphur dioxide in the air but expects to conclude his experiments in the near future.

Frederick K. Herpel, '12, is now residing in Reynoldsville, Pa., but expects to locate soon in either Colorado or California where he will engage in the practice of medicine, specializing in Roentgenology. He has been on duty in the Medical Corps of the regular army at Denver, Colorado, for some time but was recently placed on the retired list as a major and after five and a half years of army service, is again free to establish himself in civil practice.

A. A. Rea, '13, is Principal of West
High School of Aurora, Illinois.

Born to Prof. and Mrs. H. R. Hunt, a daughter on Nov. 12, 1922. Mr. Hunt is a member of the class of 1912. He is Professor of Biology at the University of Mississippi, and is conducting the summer courses in Zoology at the University of Tennessee this year. He has two other children, Howard and Herve Henry.

Dr. Ernest J. Hall, '13, who is an assistant professor of English at the Drexel Institute intends to be present at the commencement exercises. He will probably be accompanied by his wife and two-year-old daughter, Mary Kathryn.

ALPHA CHI RHO WINS INTERFRATERNITY MEET

Phi Delta Offer Only Interesting Competition of Third Annual Event

Allegheny's Third Inter-Fraternity Track Meet, held on Moving-Up day, was won by the team representing Alpha Chi Rho, which scored a total of 79½ points. Phi Delta Theta was the only real rival of the winners, finishing second with 59½. Beta Upsilon was third with 18, while Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Gamma Delta tied with nine counters apiece. The other fraternities did not enter teams.

The Chi Rhos went into the lead soon after the opening events were finished and the runners up, the Phi Deltas, were out of competition from then on. The winners put up an even better showing than expected from them, taking seven first places and having men score in all but one of the sixteen events on the program.

The hundred yard dash opened the afternoon's program. This race went to Dick Ellsworth of the Phi Deltas who sprinted the century on a water-soaked track in 10½ seconds. Dunnire, Alpha Chi Rho, and Vic Wright, Phi Gamma Delta, staged an exciting race for second place honors which went to the former by a narrow margin.

The mile run proved to be one of the prettiest races witnessed on Montgomery Field this year. Although the time was slow, due to the flooded condition of the cinder-path, the race was exceedingly sensational. Little and Mackintosh, both of the Beta Upsilon fraternity, led all the way. Bliss, Alpha Chi Rho, and Hartzell, Phi Delta Theta, trailed them close, however. With about 125 yards to go Bliss made a wonderful sprint and all but nosed out the two B. U.'s who were neck and neck at the tape.

The pole vault brought out some good exhibitions, particularly from Judd, Phi Delta Theta, and Weining, Alpha Chi Rho. With the bar at ten feet six inches, the latter was forced from competition and Judd took first place honors.

A two lap relay race, the first held on our track this year, was won by the Alpha Chi Rho team composed of Shaffer, Devney, Dunnire and Wimmer. Phi Gamma Delta finished well and defeated the Phi Deltas by a scant few yards.

Fred Parnell, Alpha Chi Rho, was high scorer in the meet with 15 points.

VARSITY TRACK MEETS SUMMARIZED FOR YEAR

SUCCESS MARKS BLUE AND GOLD ACTIVITIES ON TRACK AND FIELD

Allegheny's 1923 track season was a success in every way. Although the schedule included nothing but dual meets, the Blue and Gold team made a name for itself. The contests with Thiel, St. Bonaventure, Rochester, and Alfred were won, while Geneva beat us in a close race for first place.

The results of the meets were:

Allegheny	Opponents
Thiel	130
Alfred	86
Geneva	56
Rochester	67
St. Bonaventure	83

Total 323 220
Coach Hammett developed a good team this year, a team which with the exception of Capt. Wimmer, Miller and Agnew, will return to college next fall. Parnell and Judd were the mainstays, both these stars averaging 20 points each for a meet. The entire team was a scoring machine, and we look for even a better season next spring.

INTER FRATERNITY BASEBALL

Three games were played this week in the inter-fraternity league. On Monday the Phi Deltas barely managed to nose out the Non-fraternity team by one run in a well-played, exciting game. Home runs by Olson, Anderson and Montgomery were the features, the last named winning the game. On Tuesday, the Phi Gams upset the dope and handed the league-leading Phi Delta Theta team an awful lacing. Byham pitched masterful ball for the Phi Gams, allowing two hits, one of the scratch variety. Good support helped in the shut-out. They scored nine times. Byham and Braun led the attack. On Saturday the Phi Psis and Sigs met in an important game. Until the seventh inning the score was 6-2, in the Sig's favor. In this inning three hits, one a home run by Clark with the bases full, coupled with errors, gave the Phi Psis six runs. The Sigs came back with one in their half but that was not enough.

Two games still remain on the schedule. The Phi Gams must meet the Chi Rhos and the Phi Deltas and Phi Psi will play the deciding game of the season, to determine the winner of the cup.
