

The first time the young rook was put out Mr T. turned up a heavy seed rich with ample worms and placed it where the chicks could reach them.
The mother excitedly called "Here quick worms - fresh delicious my dears my dears be quick" The yellow & black babies hurried excitedly out to the young dish.
Ogh - how they started
"Ah ah, be brave" cheered the mother.
"Only my dear, you will miss beastly after you have tasted me!" One younger - bolder than his brothers & sisters seized a huge writhing worm. - and dropped it as quick. The whole flock instantly gazed him for he flew at the worm again & actually ran a foot with it.
When ~~obviously~~ a cold chill seized him and down went the worm
By this time a second chick was ready to turn the
