

*regrets sent
A. P. H. H. H. H. H.
with answers
in P. 2 B*

490 ARGYLE ROAD
BROOKLYN, NEW YORK

MRS. ROBERT GERARD WILLIAMS

REQUESTS THE PLEASURE OF YOUR COMPANY

AT TEA

SUNDAY, JANUARY TWENTY-SIXTH

AT THREE O'CLOCK AT THE

PARK LANE

TWO HUNDRED AND NINETY-NINE PARK AVENUE

Preceding the tea there will be a talk on a new play which will open on Broadway the week of February Twenty-fourth.

The producers are cultured, experienced men of our theatre and desire to have the leaders in distinguished clubs and civic and charitable organizations learn of this entertaining and interesting production before its premiere.

Those clubs and philanthropies wishing to add to their funds will find this play offers the most unique plan of the current season. Of course, you, on your part, are under no obligation whatever. It is simply desired that you be among the first to know the play, its story and cast and to meet some of the outstanding people of the theatre who will be present.

Will you come at Three o'clock?

Please return the card which has been enclosed for your convenience.