Company union

May 29, 1935

My dear Mr. Young:

I was much interested in the newspaper reports of your speech at the dinner of the Institute of Management. I have personally long believed in a company union simply because of what I have seen of their functioning in certain factories where there was a real intent to co-operate on both sides. I believe myself that it is a step on in "the way out."

Sometime at your leisure I wish I could have a talk with you. I am meditating an article on the subject and I would like to get your notions a little clearer.

The Wagner Bill strikes me as a bungling and unintelligent, and I am inclined to think a political document.

Very sincerely yours
