ALLEGHENY DISPLAYS CLASS IN WITTENBERG CONTEST

Ohioans Fall Easy Prey to Bakermen in Season's Opener —Score is 47-29

Allegheny's basketball quintet, composed of four freshmen and one junior, opened its season with a surprising abundance of fine basketball to defeat the Wittenberg College five in the gym on the evening of December 21, by the decisive score of 47-29.

Coach Baker turned loose an almost completely new team, Captain "Granny" Bair being the only connecting link with the Allegheny team of last year. Bair was at right forward, paired with Harry Dennison, a product of Meadville High. At center was found Willard Conn, while Walter Berger and Robert Garbark held down the guard positions. In its opener this team showed that it is capable of a lot better basketball than was witnessed here last winter.

Their opponents from Springfield, Ohio, were not the set-up that the score might indicate. Tired from a five-day trip which took them through three states, the Ohio outfit was hardly in the best of physical condition. In their three previous starts of the season, the Wittenberg team had been victorious but the Blue and Gold outfit proved too much for them, in spite of the fact that the visitors boasted a veteran combination which had received a high rating among Ohio schools.

It took just about three seconds for the Allegheny team to score. Conn tipped the ball nicely to Dennison, who made a neat pass to Bair, and Charley registered his first goal of the evening. A short time later the Allegheny captain sank another one, and in doing so was fouled, the result being that four points were chalked up at once. On a well executed out-of-bounds play, Berger scored the next basket, and shortly afterwards the Allegheny guard gave a fine exhibition of defensive work when he stopped a deluge of shots from his side of the floor. During the first half Wittenberg scored first on a foul by Brickel and later registered a basket by the same player, these three points composing the visitor's total for the half, while Allegheny had piled up 20 points.

At the beginning of the second half Wittenberg moved its entire defense up the floor, to give it more time to check Allegheny's fast rushes. But even this move failed to stop the Blue and Gold, with Bair, Dennison, Garbark, and Conn all registering points. Then the substitutions began, the score at the time being 32-5. Lane went in for Dennison, and soon afterwards Conn, Berger, and Garbark were replaced, and finally Bair. With the influx of subs, the Wittenberg team seemed to come to life and a scoring spree commenced. The visitors rang in basket after basket, quickly increasing their total to 29 points and decidedly improving their showing. The game ended with the score at 47-29.

MEMBER OF SENIOR CLASS IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

VIRGINIA VAN CAMP CALLED SUDDENLY ON JANUARY EIGHTH

Last Wednesday the college received the sad news of the death of Miss Virginia Van Camp, of the senior class, who passed away on Tuesday, January 8, at 11 p. m., at her apartment on Loomis Street after an illness of two days.

The body was removed at once to Girard, the family home, where the funeral was held on Saturday, January 12, at two o'clock from the residence of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson. Rev. Charles Easternhouse of the Universalist Church, of which Miss Van Camp was a member, and Rev. Charles Hesthorn of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated. A large number of friends attended the funeral and many beautiful floral offerings were evidence of the regard in which Miss Van Camp was held.

The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Van Camp of Girard and is also survived by her sister, Clarissa, who was a student at Allegheny some years ago, and by her grandmother. She lacked two days of reaching her 28th year.

Those from Meadville who attended the funeral were: Miss Ethel Olsen of the college, Mrs. F. T. Keefe and daughter Alice, and Mrs. Lewis and her son Frederick. Other out of town friends and relatives were: Mrs. William Fay, Mrs. Harry Aiken, and Mrs. William Aiken of Cleveland; Miss Susan Esterbrook of Erie; Mrs. Henry Graham of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Kurtz of Conneaut, Ohio; and Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Johnson of Jamestown, N. Y. Interment was in the Girard Cemetery, both ministers taking part in the service.

Miss Van Camp entered college in the fall of 1919, remaining two years, after which she started to teach so that her sister could enter. She had spent two summer school terms at Allegheny, one in Erie in the Extension of State College work and one in the University of Pittsburgh Summer Schools. She taught at West Springfield on two separate appointments and at Girard.

Always it had been her ambition to complete her work at Allegheny and receive her degree. Last winter illness compelled her to give up teaching but after some months in the hospital she recovered sufficiently to enter Allegheny last fall. She was majoring in English Literature and minoring in French.

Up to about November 1 Miss Van Camp roomed at the home of Mrs. Roy Perry at 576 Baldwin Street, after which her mother came to live with her at the corner of Loomis and Park Avenue. Her sister spent the Christmas vacation with them in Meadville and had only recently returned to her position as a teacher in Jersey City.

Miss Van Camp was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. Coming to college with a high ambition as a student, Miss Van Camp maintained her ideal of scholarship through the many breaks in her college course and the past fall, in spite of uncertain health and reduced strength, maintained good grades. Of a retiring disposition and deeply interested in her studies, she was always a loyal Alleghenian and never gave up the desire to return to college.

John Pratt, '26, and Robert Pratt, '24, were callers at the College on December 31.

BUHL CLUB OF SHARON FALLS BEFORE ALLEGHENY TEAM

Injury of Captain Bair in Practice Contest is Hard Blow —Final Count 29-24

In a practice game which had been arranged for the purpose of giving the team some outside competition before the Westminster contest, Allegheny's basketball team won its second game of the season last Friday night at the expense of the Buhl Club of Sharon by a score of 29-24.

The game, which afforded the majority of Allegheny students their first glimpse of the team which will represent the Blue and Gold this season, proved to be quite a disappointment, for the team failed to measure up to what had been expected of them. The contest developed a considerable amount of roughness, which detracted from its interest and the team failed to function with the speed and smoothness which it had displayed in its opening game.

A misfortune of the contest is the fact that Captain "Granny" Bair sustained torn ligaments in his left ankle shortly after the second quarter opened, and this injury not only necessitated his removal from the contest, but also will keep the diminutive forward on the bench for some time. The loss of Bair will undoubtedly prove a severe blow to the Blue and Gold team, for not only is he the best offensive player of the lot, but also is the only experienced player in the varsity lineup. Bair's presence in the game has a steadying effect on the other players, this fact being made particularly apparent by the play of the team on Friday after their captain was forced to retire.

The first and third quarters of the game were decisively in favor of the Allegheny team, with the second quarter about even. In the final stanza the visitors opened a rally that seriously imperiled the lead of the Blue and Gold team, four points being all that the Bakermen could score during the period. Dennison opened the game for the Blue and Gold by taking a point from the foul line, but Wellman put the visitors in the lead with his field goal. The lead switched back and forth several times during the first quarter, but Allegheny emerged on the long end of a 12-8 count. Just before the period ended Siegle dropped in one of the longest shots seen in some time, the ball going between the rafters on its trip to the basket.

The going was considerably slower in the second quarter, each team garnering but five points. Wellman and H. Cox did the scoring for the visitors, while Allegheny's guard combination of Berger and Garbark did the scoring for the Bakermen. With the game half over the count stood at 17-13.

During the third period Allegheny was represented by a team composed of freshmen players. Mills replaced Lane, who had gone in for Bair, and five first-year men carried on the fight in a satisfactory manner, limiting their opponents to one point while they garnered eight. In the last period the visitors made numerous substitutions, with a marked degree of success, in that they succeeded in cutting down the Bakermen's lead to five points. Berger's performance for the Allegheny team was the best of the evening, although his running-mate, Gar-

NEW BUILDINGS RAPIDLY NEAR THEIR COMPLETION

$310,000 IS BEING SPENT IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF THESE BUILDINGS

Arter Hall, so named after the late Frank A. Arter, and the Jacob C. Caffisch Memorial Hall, the new residence hall for freshmen men, are rapidly becoming realities.

Arter Hall, costing approximately $135,000 and located on the north side of Prospect street facing south, is nearing completion and at the rate of progress now being made, will be ready for occupancy sometime in February. It is a brick building of simple colonial design to harmonize with Bentley Hall. The new building, extending east and west, is 130 feet long and 56 feet wide. The building, which will be used principally for the study of modern languages, will contain fourteen classrooms and several offices and consultation rooms. One unique feature of Arter Hall is that a part of the basement is being made into a "Little Theatre." The theatre will be quite complete in that it will seat close to 275 people, will have an orchestra pit, two dressing rooms, an office for the instructor, and an excellent stage.

Excellent progress is being made on the Jacob C. Caffisch Memorial Hall. The building was made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Margaret E. Caffisch, Union City, Pennsylvania, and will cost not less than $175,000, exclusive of site. It will accommodate 125 freshmen men. From the "outside looking in," it appears as if the building will soon be ready for occupancy, but the building will not be used till the arrival of the freshmen class next fall.

New Bus Service Is Now Being Supplied To College Students

On Saturday, January 12, the West Ridge Transportation Company opened a new bus route that will be a great accommodation to students and residents on the Hill. "The end of the line" is at Water and Chestnut Streets. The bus goes up Chestnut Street to Liberty Street, up Liberty to Randolph, down Randolph to Highland Avenue, up Highland to East College, over East College to North Main Street, and up North Main to Allegheny Street. The trip going down town is not so complicated, the bus going down North Main to North Street, down North to Water, and down Water to Chestnut Street.

The buses will run every half hour, starting in the morning early enough to get students to school in time for eight o'clock classes, and they will continue running until ten o'clock at night.

All the students will be greatly pleased to hear of this new facility. The bus line down Park Avenue will still continue to run as usual.

Allegheny alumni are following with unusual interest the stories of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition because an Alleghenian is a member of the party. The members of Paul Siple's fraternity, Alpha Chi Rho, sent him the following radiogram admonition on the occasion of Paul's birthday, December 18: "The Chapter unites in sending its best wishes for a happy birthday. Don't let any Eskimo girls give you the cold shoulder. Easy on the Eskimo ples."

Glee Club Will Make Five-Day Trip To Contest

The Men's Glee Club of the college has been busy with final preparations for a five day trip to the Inter-Collegiate Glee Club contest to be held at Pittsburgh on February 22. There have been several extra rehearsals during the past two weeks, and the members of the club have shown their enthusiasm and interest by a large attendance at the meetings. The club has now over a dozen numbers on which it is working hard.

Norman Laffer, manager of the club, has recently turned in his resignation. Laffer has been the mainstay of the Glee Club for several semesters now, and many of the singers have expressed their regret at the fact that he is resigning. However, the club is very fortunate in getting a new manager who is very capable, having worked as assistant manager for some time. He is L. E. Thompson, and was unanimously elected to his new position last week. The men have manifestly shown that they will do everything to help him in working for the interest of the Glee Club.

At the regular meeting of the club on this Wednesday evening, the thirty men who will represent the club on its future trips will be chosen, and, as there is a very large number of singers, the men selected will probably form a very fine and efficient club.

Mr. Luvaas, director of the club, has been giving his best efforts towards making this year's group of singers into a very well trained organization.

Alleghenians who have known Professor Richard F. Mezzotero will be interested to learn of his engagement to Miss Alice M. Harvey, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harvey of Portland, Maine. Miss Harvey is a graduate of Bates College and has been engaged in social service work in Portland. More recently she has turned her attention to magazine writing. Professor Mezzotero went to Bates College from Allegheny College in the fall of 1927, as a member of the Romance Language faculty.

Jules Verne Upheld In Chapel Talk Last Wednesday

In a talk on the science of the world today, Professor Hollington, of the Gary Biblical Institute addressed the students of Allegheny in chapel, Wednesday, January 9. In the beginning of the address, the speaker remarked that people scoffed at Jules Verne when he wrote about the so-called "ludicrous and impossible" methods of transportation and communication which were peculiar to his books, but now we are not even interested in the writings of "the most scientific liar of his time," as Jules Verne was called, because submarines and airplanes are very commonplace today. Since physical science is so nearly perfected, Mr. Hollington pointed out, new worlds must be found to be conquered, and this realm is to be spiritual, as Mr. Steinmetz prophesied. In order to accomplish this task, cultivated men and women must be found to take charge of young people who are just beginning to think seriously of the world and its problems. These "Spiritual Engineers" have another duty besides training the children—this is to influence the people of the world so that they would use their time and money for the purpose of teaching the poorer class to believe in God and his powers. In concluding, Professor Hollington urged his audience to live right and think of the kingdom of God, for all success depends on Him.

TWO OF FACULTY ARE HONORED BY ELECTIONS

Recently Dr. Church and Miss Schafheitlin were honored by the Modern Languages Association with secretaryships in research work. The annual meeting, at which they were chosen, was held in Toronto during the Christmas vacation. It is of special significance that Allegheny's representatives were both elected to secretarial positions. Dr. Church was reelected secretary of the research into Romanticism and Miss Schafheitlin was elected secretary of the work on Goethe.

Debaters To Meet Westminster College Team Next Month

Plans and preparations for a debate with Westminster College are being made by the debate team. The debate will take place late in February. Teams from the two colleges will argue the question: Resolved: That Freedom of speech and press in political and economic questions is unsound.

The teams chosen for this year to represent Allegheny are as follows: Affirmative: Robert Rutherford, George Munnell, Tom Gill. Negative: Aubrey Billings, Bert McGill, William Wycoff. Alternates are Harmon Gilbert and Robert Wilson.

The debate committee is working with the two teams now in order to have the subject well in hand for the coming contest. Seven faculty members comprise this committee: Dr. Swartley, Dr. McClean, Dr. J. L. Ross, Mr. Calloway, Mr. Lavelly, Mr. Steinbower, and Mr. Boetcher.

Sports Program Is Arranged For The Coming Season

Allegheny's intra-mural basketball season gets underway next Saturday when the Seniors and the Frosh tangle in the inaugural at 2 o'clock. Immediately following this game the Juniors, last year's champs, and the Sophs will meet.

The Freshmen stole a march on the upperclassmen when they held a practice and appointed Casey Shultz and Walter Wescott to choose the team and direct it in battle. The defending champions, the Juniors, were captained last year by Ronnie McKay, the Sophs were led by Boylan, and the Seniors were directed by Connie Hughes and Chuck Bowen. The new captains for the upperclass teams as yet have not been chosen.

The first round of volleyball will not be played until next semester, when the opening games will be played on Wednesday, February 13. Two leagues will be formed when representatives of each fraternity meet to draw for places in one of the leagues. The winners of each league will play off the championship.

The Phi Delta and the Non-Frat teams, winner and runner-up in last season's play, have already held practices and expect to do just as well this year. The Faculty will again enter a team.

Fall Social Season Closes With Several Parties and Dinners

Delta Tau Delta held its mid-winter party on Saturday, January 12, 1929. The dinner was at the Kepler Hotel, followed by the dance at the chapter house. Jay Karas and his Blue and Gold Playboys of Warren furnished the music. Dr. and Mrs. Lee chaperoned. Guests of the chapter were Mr. and Mrs. Straw, and Dr. and Mrs. David Dunn of Meadville, and the Misses Sample, Roett, White, Shaw, Waters, Dierer, Earnest, McCabe, Staff, and Milliron, all from Meadville.

Phi Delta Theta held a chapter party Friday evening, January 19. Miss Bowie and Mr. Chapman chaperoned. Price Sullivan and his orchestra of Sharpville furnished the music.

Pennsylvania Delta of Phi Delta Theta entertained at a dinner Sunday, Jan. 13, at the chapter house. Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Dennis, Georgia Bucham, Margaret Helmbold, Margaret Wood, Lillian McClintock, Marion Taylor, Winifred Ober, Alice Humphrey, Anne Gilmore, Dorothy Rodgers, Helen Patterson, and Jane Eckert.

Beta Upsilon held its annual fall party and dinner dance at the Hotel Riverside, Cambridge Springs, on Friday, January 11, 1929. Ted Marlow's Melody Monarchs from New Castle, furnished the music for the party, which was formal. Professor and Mrs. Dennis chaperoned.

Mrs. Oscar P. Akers delightfully entertained the girls of the senior class at luncheon Saturday afternoon. The guests were seated at small tables, where each place was decorated by an attractive view of some European scene. Thirty-four guests were present, each of whom considered the affair one of the most pleasant in her college career.

Bishop Herbert Welch and Mrs. O. S. Lackland were dinner guests at Mullings Hall Monday evening. Bishop Welch, who was introduced by Caroline Richards, president of the C. A., spoke for a few minutes concerning the idea that college is "preparation for life. Afterward a reception was held in the Hyatt room.

THE ELEVENTH HOUR!

The great part of the first semester is now history, and the day of reckoning will soon be here. From all indications, parleys, negotiations, and "peace" conferences seem to be futile. War has already been as good as declared, and it is apparent that on the fateful morning of January 26, the first line of infantry will silently wend their way into the front line trenches of the gymnasium to fight in defense of their existence on the Allegheny College Campus.

Already the opposing forces are lining up and preparing for battle. On the one side, the faculty—relentless, remorseless, inexorable. Against them will be pitted the harmless and innocent student body—God-fearing, faculty-fearing, exam-fearing!

Following the popular song, "I'll get by as long as I have my little crib," the students are diligently at work. With some, however, it will be proved that the pen is mightier than a good line. Others are ambitiously desirous of rising from the lowest ranks, and are preparing themselves to meet the blue-book-enemy attack on something approaching even terms.

The faculty have been in conference and meditation for some time, and after having consulted the czars of the other leading colleges of the country, and after having studied most of the hardest exams in their respective fields, they are confident enough to say, even at the present writing, that they have some sure "death-drops."

To the students, we suggest, merely as a precaution, that you study a little bit. Find out the name of your text books from your instructors, try to borrow some of them, and start to study before it is too late.

BATHTUBS—A NECESSITY OR A LUXURY?

Arthur T. Vance, editor of the Pictorial Review, claims that a social note of the time of Queen Elizabeth contained the following astonishing announcement:

"The Queen hath built herself a bath where she doth bathe herself once a month whether she requires it or no."

The corners of your mouth twitch in anticipation of an oncoming smile, but, nevertheless, when the first bathtub was built in the United States in 1842 please remember that it was exhibited at a party as a curiosity. This exhibition was held no farther away than in Cincinnati and our Ohio neighbors' parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins all voted that the bathtub was a luxurious vanity, to say nothing of that vanity being very undemocratic.

Your mother never told you on Saturday night that a law was passed in Philadelphia shortly after that Cincinnati exhibition prohibiting all bathing during the winter months because the people were so shocked at the idea of bathing the whole body, did she?

Back in 1850 in Virginia bathtubs were taxed, and in Boston a doctor's permission had to be secured to take a bath because it was considered a highly risky undertaking.

Missionaries returning from India today tell us that the Gujarati people think it a most uncleanly trick to wash part of one's body and allow that water to touch another part of the body. Instead of bathtubs the Gujarati natives use containers from which they can easily pour clean water over the body.

Shall we let the schoolboys decide for us whether or not we shall have bathtubs in the future? Without a doubt the majority would be in favor of the "ol' swimmin' hole." Or shall we ask the physicians to decide the fate of the white enameled monster? Why are bathtubs anyway? Are they the result of a plot conceived by certain mothers of small boys who are being "led to the slaughter," or are they the result of an inmate of some home for the feeble-minded just giving a free ride to his pet idea? Regardless of who conceived the idea there are bathtubs and the question before us is, "Are bathtubs a necessity or merely a luxury?"

FRANCES A. GREENAWALT.

A WORD TO THE WISE

(With Apologies)

So study, that when summons come to join that great caravan which moves to the gymnasium, where each shall take his final within its silent halls, thou go not like the foolish student, cramming at night, but sustained and aided by unfaltering knowledge, approach the exams like unto one who wraps the mantle of wisdom around him and sits down to perfect work.

This and That

ENTER LEO

Not a few of the older Allegheny fans were surprised to see Leo Ross back on the basketball court last Friday night. Leo appeared in a different capacity from that which he formerly fulfilled, having charge of the officiating for the evening. The going got pretty rough at times, but the former star managed to get away without any real battle occurring.

AT YALE

We noticed in a magazine article the other day where Yale makes over a million dollars a season in football. At Allegheny the graduate manager has a hard time making both ends meet. Not only must football pay for itself, but must also share the burden of expense incurred by the minor sports of the college. This helps to explain why one or two large schools appear on the football schedule this year, for it is only on these games that a profit is realized.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?

The interest in the Inter-fraternity track meet last Saturday was not up to the standard of other years. If it hadn't been for just three fraternities, the meet would have been a complete flop. Everyone criticizes college athletics at the present time because of the fact that only a few can participate. Coach Hammett has arranged an attractive program of intra-mural athletics for this winter, in which all may participate, no matter how limited their ability. Such an effort demands the support of the students. Why not avail yourself of the opportunities that will be yours in the future?

THE POINT-GETTERS

Bair is the high scorer of the basketball squad to date. In spite of the fact that he was forced to retire from the game last Friday, he has eighteen points to his credit so far, his nearest rival being Berger, who has fifteen. Conn is in third place at the present time with thirteen points and he is being closely trailed by Garbark, who is but one point behind him.

The value of Captain Bair to the Blue and Gold team was evident last Friday night, for the team seemed to play much better ball when their captain was in the game. With his departure their playing became erratic, showing that the steadying influence of the little forward was greatly missed.

KIRBY PAGE WILL BE GUEST OF COLLEGE

On Wednesday and Thursday, February 20 and 21, Kirby Page, the editor of "The World To-morrow," will speak at the chapel services. He will also speak at the Forum in Kingsley Hall on Wednesday evening and at the college chapel on Thursday evening.

Mr. Page is only thirty-five years old but he is the author of two books and more than a dozen pamphlets on such subjects as War, International Relations, and Labor, and has also spoken at practically all of the leading colleges and universities in the United States. Some of his writings have been translated into eight languages.

FORUM DISCUSSES BYRD ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION

Friday, January 12 at four forty-five the regular weekly meeting of the Philo-Franklin Forum was held in the Forum room in Bentley Hall. James Hamilton was elected Speaker Pro-Tem, in the absence of Speaker Gill. The roll was called and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Due to the absence of the debaters for the regular program, the debate was postponed until next Friday. In place of the debate, Mr. Plate gave an impromptu talk on Byrd's Antarctic Expedition, and following this a discussion of the expedition took place.

Alumni Notes

Elbert Smith, '88, died very suddenly at his home, Warren, Pennsylvania, on the morning of January 2. When the news was received by relatives in Meadville and Guys Mills, it could scarcely be believed, as Mr. Smith visited his aged father, Hiram C. Smith at Guys Mills on the preceding Sunday, and was among the happiest of the relatives who had assembled to celebrate the 91st birthday anniversary of the father.

Elbert Smith was born in Randolph township, January 17, 1865. He became a student at Allegheny, and was graduated in 1888. In 1890 he was elected to the office of treasurer of his county, and was re-elected to the same office in 1896. After serving this second term he located in Philadelphia in the lumber business. While living in Warren, Pennsylvania, Mr. Smith compiled a genealogy of the Smith and Jones families, a very valuable and interesting work. Mr. Smith achieved a remarkable record during his career as a citizen of Pennsylvania, and a host of relatives and friends mourn their loss.

Lights
that Fill
Skies with Commerce

THE air map of America is now in the making—on the ground.

Ten years ago, there were 218 miles of air mail routes with two station stops; to-day, a network of sky roads bridges the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Can you imagine this growth without electricity—without illuminated airports—without trunk lines studded with electric beacons?

Men of vision are building for increasing traffic of the air. Soon, the skies will be filled with commerce.

Just as electricity is helping to conquer the air, the land, and the sea to-day, so to-morrow it will lead to greater accomplishments in aviation and in every human activity.

A majority of the beacon lights used in airport and airway illumination have been designed and manufactured by the General Electric Company, whose specialists have the benefit of a generation's experience in the solution of lighting problems.

ALLEGHENY ALUMNI NEWS

WHO KNOWS

Here's a fine, frank opinion from a recent graduate, Class of 1927. It brings to a sharp focus a very vital and important matter of college policy. The opinion is as follows:

72 Mt. Vernon St.,
Boston, Mass.
Dec. 31, 1928.

The Alumni Secretary,
Allegheny College.

Dear Sir:

The letter of Paul S. Dwyer, '21, in a recent issue of The Campus, so admirably expresses what I too feel about the athletic policy of the college that I take this opportunity of saying so, in view of your request for expression of opinion on the part of alumni. Without the ability, or the time at present, to make such a detailed statement as Mr. Dwyer, I content myself with this endorsement of his attitude; I believe you will find many alumni who feel as we do about the matter.

Very truly yours,
Bruce L. Middaugh, '27.

Why not have this thing run down? Suppose the Alumni Office undertakes a canvass of our alumni and by the much over-worked questionnaire ascertain just what the majority of our alumni believe about this thing.

Both in the Summer Bulletin and in the Campus the Alumni Office has attempted to provoke expression about the athletic policy of the college. There have been but three open reactions. They were from Mr. E. L. Matern, Mr. Paul Dwyer, and now this endorsement of Mr. Dwyer's statement by Mr. Middaugh. Thus far the expression is overwhelmingly in condemnation of any policy of intercollegiate contests. If this is universal, and the lack of almost all alumni financial support would indicate that it is, why, the sooner we all realize it and rearrange the college policy and maintenance on that basis, the better for everybody concerned.

Why not have a questionnaire and abide by the results? Can it be settled otherwise?

Clarence Darrow, ex-'80, was elected a director of the Amalgamated Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago on January 9, 1929.

One of Allegheny's seniors, the Reverend V. Rupert of Kinzua, Pennsylvania, was united in marriage on Christmas morning to Miss Marjorie Almarita Ames, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ames, 502 South Franklin Street, Titusville. Mr. Rupert is carrying on the work of his pastorate at Kinzua as well as completing his work for graduation from Allegheny in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ellis, on January first, at a bridge party, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Francis, to Joseph Pressley Price of San Francisco, California. Miss Ellis is an Alleghenian of the Class of '22.

Monessen friends and relatives of Harold J. Ruse were saddened late in the afternoon of December 27 by news of his sudden and unexpected death from pneumonia. Mr. Ruse was only 31 years of age and had a bright professional career ahead of him, having been a member of the editorial staff of the Post-Gazette of Pittsburgh since February 1. He was an owner and news editor of the News-Call, Monessen. Mr. Ruse went to Monessen in 1926, when he purchased the Friday Evening Call of the estate of the late Goodloe H. Thomas.

During the World War, Mr. Ruse served as first sergeant in Base Hospital Unit No. 28, A.E.F. At the close of the War, he was a student for six months in Bordeaux University, France, after which he returned and was graduated from Allegheny College with the Class of 1921. He also was graduated from the school of journalism of Columbia University. In Bordeaux, Mr. Ruse edited the comic supplement of a newspaper. He was at various times employed on the New York Times, the Knickerbocker Press, Albany, New York; the Boston American; and the Philadelphia North American. Since going to the Post-Gazette he had covered a variety of stories, including the Mather mine disaster and the recent international coal conference at the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Alumnae who have lived in Hulings Hall recently will remember Marie Bowers with interest and admiration. Miss Bowers died Tuesday afternoon, January 1, at the Spencer Hospital in Meadville. She was a faithful and cheerful worker about Hulings Hall, trying in her way always to make it comfortable and pleasant for the girls. Interment was in Greenlawn Cemetery, Townville.

The congregation of the First M. E. Church, Meadville, had the privilege on December 30 of hearing Miss Alta L. Postance, '22, sing solos at both morning and evening services. Miss Postance is engaged in Y. W. C. A. service in Erie.

Miss Isabelle Johnson, '22, of New York City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson of Meadville, during the Christmas holidays. On December 16 she sang the offertory solo at Christ Episcopal Church, Meadville. Miss Johnson is a member of the choir of St. George's Episcopal Church in New York City.

MR. OLMSTED GIVES $100,000 FOR TEMPLE

The following clipping from the New York Times came to the Alumni Office recently:

"Among the Christmas gifts to Broadway Temple is a pledge of $100,000 from George W. Olmsted of Ludlow, Pennsylvania, announced yesterday by the Rev. Dr. Christian F. Reiser, Pastor of the Temple. This makes $1,100,000 pledged toward the $1,500,000 fund for the Temple. The balance of $400 must be pledged during the remaining five days of the year to save nearly $1,000,000 in conditional pledges, Dr. Reiser said.

"Mr. Olmsted, who is interested in leather manufacture in his home town, is vice-president of the Long Island Lighting Company, with offices in New York. He is a trustee of Allegheny College, and a director of the Boy Scouts of America. His interest in boys, he said, prompted him to support the Broadway Temple project, with its social and recreational plant as an essential feature.

"The most neglected boys in the city," declared Mr. Olmsted, "are those of the middle class who live in apartment districts like those of Washington Heights. I welcome the opportunity to help give these boys the gymnasium, swimming pool, club rooms, and social hall of Broadway Temple."

A. D. Horton, '98, for several years past the superintendent of schools of West Virginia, has accepted a position as the head of the schools of Ridgefield, Connecticut, fifty miles from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Horton's daughter, Mrs. George Glaunier, ex-'23, of Buckhannon, West Virginia, recently visited her parents. During a motor trip this last fall Mr. and Mrs. Glaunier saw Alleghenians at several places. At Wilkesburg they called on Helen Shuster, '21, and in Macksburg, Ohio, they visited Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Boynton. It will be remembered that Mrs. Boynton, '23, was Wilhelmina Traub before her marriage. Mrs. Glaunier also met Katherine Morrow, '24, recently, who is employed at the Columbia Country Club at Chevy Chase, Maryland. Mr. Glaunier is professor of history at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon.

Grant Norris, '96, supervising principal of Curwensville Public Schools for the past seven years, passed away at his home December 9, 1928. Mr. Norris was in ill health for a number of years, but he actively attended to his duties until just a few weeks before his death. For thirty-five years Mr. Norris was active in the public school field, having been Principal of Schools at Wilmerding, Superintendent at Braddock, Kenmoor, and Curwensville.

Dr. Frederick Shellito, one of Kalamazoo's best known physicians and surgeons, died suddenly at his home, 301 West Vine Street, early Monday morning, January 7. As a resident of Kalamazoo, Michigan, since 1902, he had won almost universal acquaintance and respect as a citizen and a professional man. Medicine had become his hobby as well as his profession, and he had achieved distinction in state as well as local circles.

Dr. Shellito was born at Esbyville, Pennsylvania, April 25, 1857. He received his A. B. degree from Allegheny in 1880 and later his M. A. degree. Continuing his studies, he was graduated in medicine from the Kentucky School of Medicine in 1861, and then from Rush Medical College at Chicago in 1890.

After graduation he practiced for a very short time at Mattawan, but located soon afterwards at Marcellus, where he continued his practice until his removal to Kalamazoo in 1902. He was married July 31, 1895 to Miss Mary Ellen Hookins of Kalamazoo.

In medical circles Dr. Shellito was a past president of the Kalamazoo Academy of Medicine, and at the time of his death was chairman of the legislative committee of that organization. He was a member of the American Medical Association, the Michigan Medical Association, and the Tri-State Medical Society. He also was a member of the Clinical Club and on the staffs of New Borgess and Bronson hospitals. He was active in fraternal organizations and clubs, too, and he participated in every major civic and community event in Kalamazoo.

The Campus of December 12 contained the notice of the death of Arthur M. Shellito, on December 2, 1928, a brother of Dr. Frederick Shellito.

Miss Mary T. Heydrick, '03, of 327 North Main Street, Meadville, has returned to her home after a visit with her brother in Minneapolis. Her nephew, William Heydrick, Allegheny ex-'30, is a junior in the University of Minnesota preparing to take up the study of law.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Lillie, '22, and Mr. Calvin Becherer took place June 28, 1928, at Buffalo, New York. Mr. Becherer is a Prudential Insurance representative. Mr. and Mrs. Becherer have built a new home in Medina, New York, and would be glad to hear from any Alleghenians.

Reverend Thomas E. Colley, '20, and V. Grace Colley are the parents of Jean Marie Colley, born on December 22. The Colleys live in Little Valley, New York.

TOUR EUROPE IN 1929 WITH MELVILLE JONES, '23

Temple Tours, Inc., has secured the services of W. Melville Jones, '23, to conduct a European tour in the summer of 1929. Mr. Jones is at present Associate-Professor of English at the College of William and Mary, and Literary Editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch. He has had exceptional travel experience and this experience, combined with his pleasing personality, ability and thorough knowledge of the places to be visited, assures his party members of sympathetic leadership which will add much to the pleasure of the trip.

The itinerary includes travels in France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland, and England. The party will sail on June 29 from New York on the S. S. "Minnekahda," returning to New York on September 2. The price of the tour from departure New York to arrival New York is $825.00.

Any one interested in knowing the details of Mr. Jones' tour should communicate with him at once. His address is College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia. It will be remembered that Mrs. Jones was formerly Helen Boyd, of the Class of '24.

Morey P. Jeffery, '14, was instantly killed on January 3, in his home town of Vermilion, Ohio, when his car was struck by a fast New York Central train. The doctor was on his way to visit one of his many patients suffering from influenza.

Morey P. Jeffery was the only son of David and Charlotte Jeffery, born at Kingston, Michigan, September 12, 1891. He attended preparatory school at Albion, Michigan, and at Meadville. Entering Allegheny College in 1910, he was graduated in 1914. That fall he entered Western Reserve Medical School. In his senior year, he was compelled on account of illness to drop out, but he returned and was graduated in 1919.

On March 12, 1917, he was united in marriage to Edna Byham, of Meadville. Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Morey, 9; Keith, 6; and Bryce, 5.

In May, 1923, Dr. Jeffery and his family established their home in Vermilion, Ohio. He soon won the confidence of the community and became a popular physician. His friendliness with the young people in particular and his interest in athletic teams of the Vermilion High School made for him a high place in the affections of the homes of the community. The Class of 1927 dedicated their Annual to Dr. Jeffery. It was a large and sadened audience that gathered in the First Congregational Church of Vermilion to pay a last tribute of respect to Dr. Jeffery. Representatives both from the Lorain Medical Association and the St. Joseph Hospital Staff were present, as was also T. Thoburn, and T. W. Thoburn, classmates and fraternity brothers, of Cleveland. E. T. English, '13, pastor of the Vermilion Church, gave a short address, praising Dr. Jeffery as a man who lived up to the high standards of his profession and was faithful to his duty even unto death.

Harry E. Stone, Allegheny, '05, Dean of Men at the University, arranged a delightful dinner for the group of Alleghenians present. Among them were J. A. Gibson, '22, Instructor in Chemistry, and Dr. A. M. Reese, Professor of Zoology, who was at Allegheny in 1901-2 as acting professor of Biology. Others present were Judge S. J. Morrow, '01, of Uniontown, an Mdr. Morrow, B. B. Whitehill, ex-'05, Uniontown, and Mrs. Whitehill, nee Mae Snook, ex-'07; W. O. Foreman, ex-'12, and Mrs. Foreman, nee Lenore Lytle, '09, of Uniontown. Other Alleghenians who attended the inaugural ceremonies were E. G. Rohrbaugh, '00, president of the Glenville, W. Va., State Normal School, and Gertrude Roberts, ex-'05, teacher in the Huntingdon High School, and the one woman member of the Board of Governors of the University.

The children of Dr. and Mrs. George Mulfinger, former head of the German Department at Allegheny, and now a professor in Heidelberg University at Tiffin, Ohio, are engaged in a variety of work. Carl, '15, is a physician in Los Angeles. George, well known as a pianist, who has recently returned from abroad and been engaged in concert work, now holds the chair of piano in Syracuse University. Rudolph is located in Chicago with a law firm. He recently passed the law examinations admitting him to the Illinois Bar. Wilhelmina, who took her first two years of college work at Heidelberg, is a senior at the University of Chicago, where she has specialized in English and the Classics. She will enter Columbia University in the fall to take up the study of journalism.

At the December meeting of the Round Table of Meadville, the address was delivered by Professor Horace T. Laveley, Class of 1912, and now a professor in the Philosophy and Education Department of Allegheny College. His subject was "New Paths in Old China."

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harley D. Carpenter, 678 Chestnut Street, at the Meadville City Hospital, Tuesday, December 18, 1928, a son. Mr. Carpenter is a former student of Allegheny, Class of 1909.

BABCOCK-STAPLES WEDDING

The First Methodist Episcopal Church of Erie, Pennsylvania, at 8:30 Monday night, December 10, was the scene of the ceremony uniting Miss Ethelyn Babcock, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Babcock, 307 West Fifth Street, Erie, and the Reverend Edward Staples, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Staples of Portsmouth, Ohio. Dr. Staples was formerly pastor of the church where the nuptial vows were pledged. Dr. Staples, assisted by the Reverend S. Parkes Cadman of Brooklyn, New York, and Dr. Clarence E. Allen, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a sleeveless gown of white satin and rose point lace. Her veil of tulle was arranged with a coronet of pearls and was trimmed in rose point lace. She carried bridal roses in a shower bouquet.

Her maid of honor, Miss Gilberta Babcock, wore a pink taffeta gown, and carried brooch roses. The two bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Staples, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Thelma Wood of Northfield, Vermont, were attired similarly in gowns of lavender taffeta and lace. They carried arm bouquets of butterfly roses.

Harry Wilson of Pittsburgh was Staples' best man, and the ushers were William Babcock, the bride's brother, Donovan Blanchard of Cleveland, Maurice Kolpin of Wesleyville, and the Reverend Glenn Cornell of Kingsville, Ohio.

Miss Kathryn Goodall of Philadelphia sang appropriate numbers during the ceremony. She was accompanied by Miss Vera Powers of Waterford, New York.

Three hundred guests attended the reception which followed in the church parlors. Later Mr. and Mrs. Staples left for a honeymoon trip in Florida. They are to reside in Brooklyn, where the bridegroom is assistant to Dr. Cadman, pastor of the Central Congregational Church.

The bride is a graduate of Central High School, Erie, of the Erie Branch State Teachers College, and of Syracuse University. She is a member of Delta Zeta sorority. Reverend Staples graduated from Allegheny in 1925, and later from Drew Seminary.

Among the guests at an evening party given by Mrs. Sara Johnson Bave at her home, 963 Vergil Avenue, Morsemer, New Jersey, were the Misses Florence and Ethel Bacon ('14 and '11) of Bellevue Hospital, New York City, Harriet Rogers, '25, a student at the Library School of Columbia University, and Edith Rowley, '05. Miss Rowley spent a part of the holiday recess in New York City.

B. U.'s AND SIGS STAGE HOT BATTLE IN FRAT TRACK MEET

Half Point Separates Two Teams at End of Saturday's Events—Mile Still to be Run

Beta Upsilon, with a total of 34 1/2 points, holds the slight advantage of a half point lead over its nearest rival at the end of four events, run off last Saturday in the Seventh Annual Interfraternity indoor track meet. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, by virtue of qualifying the most men, was a very strong second, scoring 33 1/2 points, while Alpha Chi Rho was third with 18 points. Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta, and Phi Kappa Psi followed in the order named. The championship will not be decided until January 21, when the mile run will take place. This event once again will serve to determine the winner, as it did in 1928. The fraternity winning the meet will receive a bronze plaque, which has been the property of the Sigs during the past year.

The score gives a good indication of the tenseness of the struggle which took place in each event. A large number of competitors furnished plenty of vigorous and exciting competition. While good work was turned in in each event, the performance of A. Moon in hurling the shot 42 feet, 2 inches, and Bob Hoke's equaling of the college record of 6 feet, 5 inches, in the fence vault, were the two outstanding performances of the afternoon, although the struggle in the high jump proved the most exciting, by virtue of the keenness of the competition. Weisel, by winning a second place in the fence vault, tying for second in the high jump, and tying for fourth in the dash, was the high scorer of the meet, with eight points to his credit. Herb Eighthy, the Phi Gam's lone representative, earned seven points by placing second in the shot put and tying for second in the high jump. He took second in the individual scoring.

An accident occurred when Charles Lunn (B. U.) broke through the board track in the 85-yard dash and was thrown headlong to the floor. At first it was thought that he was seriously injured, but fortunately it turned out that he had only received bruises on the knees and legs, along with a sprained ankle.

The meet this year resembles the one of last year in that the outcome will not be known until the mile run.

The final event, is run. All three of the leaders in this year's meet will enter capable men in this event. The Sigs are banking on Gil Minnis to pull them through to victory, while the B. U.'s are counting on Paul Dreibelbis. Tom Gill is the Chi Rho's hope for a place in the distance event. These three men should stage quite a battle, as all have been practicing faithfully for some time.

The summary:

Shot Put—Won by Moon (SAE); second, Eighthy (PGD); third, Milner (SAE); fourth, Forbes (SAE); fifth, Huches (AXP); distance: 42 feet, 2 inches.

Fence Vault—Won by Hoke (BU); second, Weisel (BU); third, Jones (AXP); fourth, Meadowcroft (AXP); fifth, Ledger (SAE); Jeffords (AXP); Lewis, (PKS); and Mansell (BU). Height, 6 feet, 5 inches.

85-yard Dash—Won by Richards (BU); second, Brown (SAE) and Greer (PDT); fourth, Weisel (BU), Green (BU) and W. White (SAE). Time—10.3.

High Jump—Won by Mansell (BU); second, Eighthy (PGD), Weisel (BU) and Wescott (SAE); fifth, Anderson (SAE). Height—5 feet and 4 inches.

BOWLING SCHEDULE IS NOW ARRANGED

Interfraternity bowling for the year will be inaugurated on Saturday afternoon, December 7. Another spirited contest for supremacy among the fraternities is being looked forward to this year. The alleys have been repaired and are reported to be in much better condition than they were last season. The Sigs, who won the cup last year after a hard race, have their entire team back again this winter and are anxious to repeat their victory. This year the league will be composed of two sections as follows:

Section I	Section II
S. A. E.	B. K.'s
Faculty	Delts
Phi Psis	Phi Gams
Phi Delts	Chi Rhos
B. U.'s

SWIMMERS PLAN EXTENSIVE SEASON

Allegheny's swimming team will open its season on January 19 when it meets Pitt at Pittsburgh. A return contest is scheduled with the same team on February 16. Besides these two meets, matches are scheduled with the Oil City Y. M. C. A., Westminster, and the Pittsburgh Athletic Association. A meet is also under consideration with Thiel College, which is organizing a swimming team this year.

Last year's activities were confined to two meets with Westminster. Last year letter men who will be available this year are Sankey, R. Young and E. Young. George Ledger is the manager. In the interfraternity swimming meet held before the Christmas vacation, several promising freshmen natators were discovered. Among those in the upper classes giving promise of making the team are Behrhorst, Bugbee, Rumsey and Bowen.

All in all, the season should prove to be a very interesting one, because of the good material on hand and the more than usually extensive schedule.

On their way to here!

780,000 Chesterfield cigarettes are now sailing South-Polewards with the Byrd Antarctic Expedition. We are officially informed that the selection of Chesterfield resulted from the individually expressed preferences of a majority of the expedition's members.

When it is recalled that these are—in superlative sense—picked men . . . selected not only for bravery, ability and experience, but also by searching tests of physical fitness . . . we may be forgiven for our considerable pride in their vote. And something of this pride, we believe, will be shared by all Chesterfield smokers.

It is another of the many proofs piling up that the surest way to earn popularity is to deserve it!
