Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

This morning I have your note of the 23rd, and I had already read in the public prints of the work on which you are engaged, and it had occurred to me that while you were engaged on this, I should say something to you about my impressions of Judge Gary's war services. Therefore, I am especially pleased that it has also occurred to you.

We can handle the matter either way: I shall certainly be in New York prior to the middle of June, and can give you what time you may wish, or, Mrs. Scott and I would be delighted to see you in Cleveland prior to the middle of June, and we can cover the subject here. Please suit your own convenience, and I will accommodate myself to it with pleasure.

Cordially yours,

Fascott

FAS:EMS

President.
