Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you very much for your letter. We here seem to think that the title "Brunswick Days" is very proper, and will use it. When the copy is bound I will send it to you to be autographed, and I am hoping you will be willing to write a few lines in your own hand writing, as a sort of a preface. Could you not compose something short to the effect that the story is the outgrowth of a visit to Brunswick at such and such a time, and then pay a bit of a tribute to the "old girls" with whom you talked? Your signature and the date will be the means of giving the story its proper date for future history.

I will write you further when the book is ready.

Yours very truly,

H. N. Dowse
